LC1VMAX1

(Trial resumed; jury not present)

THE COURT: All right. Matters to take up, counsel, includes the Rule 16/608, as I see it, issue. And then I want to see where you are in terms of working out anticipated personal identifying information of witnesses who I've given permission to testify under pseudonyms to protect their privacy.

So let's begin.

Ms. Menninger, did you want to begin with the Rule 16 issue?

MS. MENNINGER: I think Mr. Everdell was going to handle that piece.

THE COURT: Okay.

Ms. Comey, are you taking this?

MR. ROHRBACH: I'm taking this one, your Honor.

THE COURT: You all swapped off.

So I think the defense is clearly right that if we are talking by impeachment by contradiction, that is to say, impeachment, direct contradiction of something testified to on the stand, it's not required to be disclosed as case-in-chief material under Rule 16; and depending on what it is, it's likely not 608 because it's impeachment by contradiction, not impeachment to show -- extrinsic evidence to show a character for dishonesty and the like.

So the question is whether it's impeachment or not.

LC1VMAX1

1 And I still don't fully understand the photograph of the street
2 that the witness read the line from saying, That's the address
3 where we lived, how that's impeachment. That remains an open
4 question in my mind.

5 But otherwise, Mr. Rohrbach, do you disagree with 6 anything I've just said as to the state of the law?

7 MR. ROHRBACH: No, I think that that's a correct
8 statement of the law, your Honor.

9 The issue with the photograph is it wasn't established
10 that that satisfied any of the theories of impeachment; and so
11 if the defense is offering it for some other purpose, that 12 purpose would be part of the defense's case-in-chief and,
13 therefore, subject to Rule 16 or an attack on the witness's
14 character for truthfulness, which would be barred by 608.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 But the, I'll charitably call it, theory offered
17 yesterday that anything that's not part of the case-in-chief
18 somehow then falls under 608 as extrinsic, you've walked away 19 from that.

20 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes -- the theory really is that it has
21 to satisfy some proper basis of impeachment for extrinsic
22 evidence. So it's true that there are more than two paths,
23 yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. So just to get to the 25 photograph, as I see it, the witness's testimony -- and tell

LC1VMAX1

1 me -- I don't know if this is Mr. Everdell or Ms. Menninger.

2 MR. EVERDELL: It's me, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 The witness testified, I believe, that at the time
5 that she met Epstein and Ms. Maxwell, that she was living with 6 her family in a pool house and she described that as homeless;
7 correct?

8 MR. EVERDELL: And she said that she lived in one
9 place, I believe, continuously for her childhood. The 10 testimony, what you just said, is accurate.

11 THE COURT: Right. So then you've got the FBI 302 in 12 which she said that she lived at a certain address at the time
13 that she met them; correct?

14 MR. EVERDELL: That's right.

15 THE COURT: I think there's a question of whether that 16 statement comes in as a prior inconsistent statement. I don't 17 know that that was moved. But she said, in any event, she 18 looked at it and it was a typo; so she addressed the apparent
19 discrepancy, as I heard it. I'm not sure if you wanted to move
20 the statement in as a prior inconsistent statement and let the 21 jury resolve that dispute.

22 But we moved on then to a current photograph of a
23 street that had writing on it, an address and a date, and she
24 said that's the street I lived in -- that's the street I lived
25 on, which it just -- I think it suffered from a lot of

LC1VMAX1

1 problems, but certainly wasn't directly impeaching of her
2 testimony.

3 MR. EVERDELL: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I just -- see
4 if we could back up.

5 Have we moved beyond the Rule 16 issue at this point
6 and we're just talking about --

7 THE COURT: Well, if it's impeaching, then there's not
8 a Rule 16 issue. As I sit here, I don't know -- I don't see
9 that it's impeaching; so that if it's not impeaching, I'm not 10 sure what you're doing with it and it may be a Rule 16 issue.

11 MR. EVERDELL: If I can address that, your Honor,
12 because I think we disagree with what the state of the law is.
13 I think there's some disagreement on the courts about whether 14 or not if the defense is going to introduce something or talk
15 about something on cross-examination, whether that is 16 considered a Rule 16 document.

17 So what I understand the case law to be, your Honor,
18 is that they are trying to deal with the issue of where the 19 defense is trying to introduce affirmative proof in its own
20 case through the government's own witnesses.

21 THE COURT: For sure. Which is, let's face it,
22 usually what happens. There's often not a defense case. Both 23 cross-examination and impeachment testimony, as well as 24 affirmative evidence, comes in through cross-examination.

25 So I think the cases that say there's not a clear

LC1VMAX1

1 temporal time split, that is to say, you don't have to put on
2 your first witness, is not the question; it's a functional
3 question, are you putting on evidence in your case-in-chief as 4 opposed to impeachment testimony.

5 MR. EVERDELL: I think that's right, your Honor.

6 Let's give an example, because I think it's helpful to 7 use examples. I'll use one from this very case.

8 It's my understanding that the government wants to 9 introduce certain FedEx records through a FedEx document
10 custodian. The defense also would like to introduce other
11 FedEx records, coincidentally, through the same document
12 custodian. So if that happens, you'd have a witness called by 13 the government, the defense would want to introduce affirmative
14 proof in its case through that same witness. That would be 15 defense case-in-chief material which, by the way, we disclosed
16 in our Rule 16 letter to the government. That's an example, I
17 think, where the courts are talking about where you disclose
18 things -- where you have a witness where you are trying to put 19 on affirmative proof in the defense case through the 20 government's witness. That is an example where we don't 21 dispute.

22 I'll give another example. This is a hypothetical
23 one. Larry Visoski just testified. He was shown a number of 24 pictures of Little St. James Island where there were 25 structures, houses on the island. And he testified to those,

LC1VMAX1

1 and those were introduced.

2 If we hypothetically had photos of that same island
3 before those houses were built, we don't, but if we did and we
4 wanted to introduce those through Larry Visoski, again, that
5 would be affirmative defense in the defense case-in-chief
6 introduced through the government's witness. That would be 7 Rule 16 which we'd have to disclose ahead of time.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. EVERDELL: Now, what we are talking about here is 10 what Witness 1, what Jane, remembers about the childhood, about 11 these events; it's about her recollection of everything, and 12 that is critical to the case. So misremembering details,
13 misremembering where she lived, not being able to recognize a
14 house, that all goes to her credibility as a witness, her
15 believability, any contradiction.

16 This is central to the case. Her memory of every 17 single detail of her childhood is central to the case, and that 18 is not case-in-chief material. That is, if she testifies to 19 something and we think we have something that contradicts what 20 she just said, like a photograph of her -- of a place where she 21 lived as a child, but she didn't seem to remember, that's 22 impeachment material. And we don't know if we're going to use
23 that until she says on the stand what she says on the stand.
24 We have it ready to go in case she says that, and she did in 25 this case, and so that's why we were able to use it or try to

LC1VMAX1

1 use it, to show that she doesn't have an accurate recollection.
2 That is pure impeachment material.

3 THE COURT: Up to the point where you said it
4 contradicted what she said on the stand, you and I were in 5 vigorous agreement.

6 MR. EVERDELL: Okay.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. EVERDELL: All right.

9 Well, what I would say is that we can't -- no, this is
10 not -- it's not as if we were going to introduce the photograph
11 of her house in our case-in-chief. We are doing this -- we had 12 it ready to be able to use it in case she said something that 13 we believe was contradictory and contradicted by the 14 photograph. So that's why we did not disclose it ahead of 15 time, because we believed it to be impeachment material.

16 By the way, Judge, I'll just note for the record that 17 when we sent our Rule 16 discovery several weeks ago to the 18 government, we included a cover letter, which I'm happy to 19 share with the Court --

20 THE COURT: I can imagine it reserved all your rights.
21 And you can keep talking, but we remain in agreement.

22 MR. EVERDELL: Okay. And it cited all the cases that
23 we cited, and it said we do not consider impeachment material
24 or refreshing material case-in-chief material.

25 THE COURT: It is true. I think, Mr. Rohrbach agrees.

LC1VMAX1

1 The only question in any specific instance is is it impeaching,
2 and is it a prior inconsistent statement. We have to deal with
3 the rules around a prior inconsistent statement. It wasn't
4 like you had deposition testimony. You had an FBI agent's
5 write-up of notes which the witness was confronted with and 6 said it was a mistake. Again, that wasn't moved in, but we can 7 deal with that as it comes.

8 There could be -- not here, but there could be 608
9 issues if you're trying to use extrinsic evidence. If what we 10 have is impeaching by contradiction, impeachment of what the 11 witness testified to on the stand, then it's not going to be a
12 608 issue.

13 MR. EVERDELL: If we're impeaching the witness, yes,
14 that's right. And I just want to address the issue of 15 impeaching with extrinsic evidence, which I know the government
16 has raised. That rule is -- and the cases they cite --

17 THE COURT: I know you cited Rule 613. I hadn't
18 understood their argument to be about 613.

19 MR. EVERDELL: They raised in their papers the notion
20 that you can't impeach -- or you can't use extrinsic evidence
21 to impeach. But the rule there and the cases they've cited
22 stand for the unremarkable proposition that you can't 23 impeach -- or you can't use extrinsic evidence on a collateral
24 matter.

25 THE COURT: Correct.

LC1VMAX1

1 MR. EVERDELL: Her memory about anything to do with
2 this time period is not a collateral matter; she is a central
3 witness to this case.

4 THE COURT: Well, again, I don't adopt that broad
5 statement. But to the extent you are attempting to impeach --
6 so you have something that contradicts what she testified to on
7 the stand, then it's not a Rule 16 issue, I doubt it's a 613 --
8 a 608 issue. We may have to deal with 613 questions and what 9 it is that we're looking at.

10 MR. EVERDELL: Again, it's also not a 608 issue, I'd 11 say, your Honor, because that rule deals with conduct.

12 THE COURT: I said it's not a 608 issue.

13 MR. EVERDELL: Yes. Okay. I agree with you.

14 MR. ROHRBACH: I'm a little confused, your Honor.

15 I think we're agreeing that, as your Honor said, if 16 it's offered for impeachment with a proper basis for 17 impeachment and it's not about a collateral matter, then they 18 didn't have to disclose it in Rule 16. If it's to advance the 19 defense case, whether in the government's case or in the 20 defense case, then it should have been disclosed in Rule 16.

21 There are things that the defense might expect to 22 offer for impeachment, but that might be impeachment about a
23 collateral matter or might be impeachment, but is not, in fact,
24 based on a contradiction or some other proper theory of 25 impeachment, in which case it is not an admissible exhibit.

LC1VMAX1

1 The government also doesn't agree with the defense's
2 broad statement that anything that goes to this witness's
3 memory is a noncollateral matter. It's hard for us to know now
4 exactly what they plan to do. The government thinks we should
5 take that as it comes. But I think there's sort of broad
6 agreement about the general principles here, your Honor.

7 MR. EVERDELL: If there's broad agreement, your Honor,
8 then there shouldn't be objections. If we have an issue with 9 the witness's memory that we believe we have a document or some 10 other information that contradicts what she's saying, then we 11 are allowed to cross on it.

12 THE COURT: Okay. We'll take it as it comes, but we 13 agree on the principles. I think the only question is -- I
14 sustained the objection to admission of the photograph, because 15 it's not clear to me that it's impeaching. As I said, if it's 16 not impeaching, then it might be a Rule 16 issue; I wasn't
17 entirely sure what you were trying to do with it.

18 You're welcome to -- if there's some basis to show a
19 photograph, to impeach something she suggested in her
20 testimony, then you can do that.

21 MR. EVERDELL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. EVERDELL: Understood.

24 MR. ROHRBACH: The government agrees, your Honor. The 25 issue with that particular photograph, setting aside the fact

LC1VMAX1

1 that the witness couldn't recognize it, and there are other
2 questions about admissibility than just whether it's relevant
3 or impeaching, is that it wasn't a direct contradiction of 4 anything the witness said on the stand; so it wasn't a proper
5 basis for impeachment. And if it advanced the defense case in 6 some other way, it would have been a Rule 16 --

7 THE COURT: What is the government's understanding of 8 when the witness lived at the address that's referenced in the 9 302?

10 MR. ROHRBACH: If I may ask Ms. Moe, who's taking the 11 rest to answer that question.

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

14 I don't recall the particular date, but I think the 15 witness was beginning to clarify on cross-examination yesterday
16 that at some point while she was a teenager living in Palm
17 Beach, she moved to the second address. I don't recall the 18 specific date --

19 THE COURT: And you say the second address, what do
20 you mean?

21 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I guess what do you mean by the first
23 address, do you mean the pool house?

24 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. I believe the witness
25 would explain that at the time that all of this --

LC1VMAX1

1 THE COURT: Could you pull up the microphone.

2 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. I apologize.

3 THE COURT: Even though we're three days in, I still
4 can't hear you without the mic.

5 MS. MOE: I'm sorry.

6 THE COURT: That's okay.

7 MS. MOE: I believe the witness would explain that
8 when all of this began when she was 14, she was living in a
9 pool house because of her family's financial circumstances.
10 But at some point during the years that followed, her family
11 moved to a second house.

12 THE COURT: And that's the address listed in the 302,
13 as you understand it?

14 MS. MOE: I don't recall offhand whether that's the 15 particular address. I'd want to review the 3500. But I
16 believe the witness was clarifying that she lived at a second
17 house.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

19 MR. EVERDELL: Your Honor, I'm sorry.

20 I believe -- and I'm checking this right now, but I
21 believe the address she put on her 1994 Interlochen application
22 was the address we were showing her the photograph of. And 23 she's saying she's in a pool house or homeless. So I think
24 this is impeaching. I think this goes directly --

25 THE COURT: Again, she said she lived -- they move in

LC1VMAX1

1 the application. All she said about the photograph was, That's
2 the address that I lived in. And so we just don't have a --
3 she looked at your photograph, she looked at the address
4 written on it; she said that's the address where I lived.
5 That's not yet in contradiction to her statement, because 6 there's a timeline issue. But you can try, again, to see if
7 there's a basis for impeachment.

8 MR. EVERDELL: All right. I'll leave it to 9 Ms. Menninger, who's going to be doing the cross.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Any questions about that, Ms. Menninger?

12 MS. MENNINGER: No, your Honor. I think I can ask her 13 questions today that explain when she lived where --

14 THE COURT: Great.

15 MS. MENNINGER: -- what was on her applications. What 16 she said in her 302, which was already discussed on the record,
17 is that she lived in the same place from the time she met
18 Epstein until she moved to New York. That was her statement.
19 She continued on --

20 THE COURT: You mean that's the statement recorded in 21 the 302.

22 MS. MENNINGER: That is one of the statements recorded
23 in the 302 verbatim.

24 THE COURT: Right. Sorry, verbatim. She said it was 25 a typo. It's a type-up of agents' notes, is it not?

LC1VMAX1

1 MS. MENNINGER: It's a type-up of the agent's notes.
2 We also have the agent's handwritten notes.

3 The next sentence -- then I'll explain what I think we
4 may get to. The next sentence, she says, That home was a
5 three-bedroom home in a gated community called Bear Lake,
6 something like that. Those were the two statements that were 7 typed up in the agent's 302.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. MENNINGER: And in the handwritten notes.

10 She's had a chance to explain it; in her mind, it's a 11 typo. We have those agents on call to be witnesses, and they
12 can talk about whether it was a typo or not a typo. I mean, I
13 think that's the state of play in terms of contradicting a
14 witness with a prior inconsistent statement.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else on that?

16 MR. ROHRBACH: Nothing from the government.

17 MR. EVERDELL: No, your Honor. Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Do we have issues to take up around
19 specific identifying information?

20 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

21 Just to provide the Court with an update on the status
22 of our conferral with defense counsel, defense counsel provided
23 the government with a list of certain topics this morning,
24 which we appreciated; and we had a productive conversation this 25 morning about a number of those topics, and I think I've

LC1VMAX1

1 narrowed the scope of any disagreement.

2 There are two remaining topics. And I think we've
3 agreed that before those topics are raised at a break or before
4 the jury comes out, we're going to confer with the witness's
5 counsel just to confirm what issues might be identifying as to 6 those two particular issues. I'm hopeful that we'll be able to 7 resolve any disagreement there, but we want to just work that
8 out before that comes out before the jury. And I think there
9 are one or two issues that we've agreed that won't be raised
10 without a sidebar in advance to discuss them.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Is there no way to do that now
12 while we're waiting for our jurors or --

13 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I think defense counsel's
14 preference was to do that at a sidebar.

15 THE COURT: It's here.

16 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I just meant I'm happy to do it at the 18 sidebar, to the extent we're referencing the specific 19 identifying information. I just meant as a time saver can we 20 do it now.

21 MS. MENNINGER: I think there are two of the three 22 that we can do now; but the third one depends on what the 23 witness says, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 Let me just get a check on our juror numbers.

LC1VMAX1

1 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

2 Just to be clear, I think two of those topics were
3 ones that we wanted to just confer with the witness's attorney
4 about, because there may not be any disagreement; we just
5 wanted to confer with him to ensure we have that right.

6 I think there was one remaining topic that defense
7 counsel preferred to raise as it arises during the course of 8 cross-examination. That's what I meant by at sidebar.

9 Apologies.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So is there anything we can discuss
11 now at the sidebar or no?

12 MS. MENNINGER: There's two of the three we can
13 discuss at sidebar. I'm happy -- if the witness's counsel
14 wants to join us at the sidebar and weigh in on what counsel
15 thinks is identifying or not as we discuss it.

16 THE COURT: My preference would be for you to confer
17 first and then let me know.

18 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor, that's what we would 19 propose.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. MOE: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 Anything else we can take up now?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

25 I conferred with the government. We have prepared,

LC1VMAX1

1 similar to the government and similar to what Mr. Everdell did
2 yesterday, 18 binders that have potentially admissible sealed
3 exhibits in them we would like to place under the jurors'
4 chairs, consistent with the practice on prior witnesses, to 5 only have them directed to a particular tab when and if the 6 Court admits a particular document that has identifying
7 information contained in it, if that's okay with your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, is that fine with you?

9 MS. MOE: Your Honor, may I have just one moment?

10 (Counsel conferred)

11 MS. MOE: No, your Honor. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Fine. Okay. So you can place the 13 binders. Anything else we can take up now, Ms. Menninger?

14 MS. MENNINGER: No, your Honor. I'm just going to 15 approach the witness stand at some point and re-place the 16 binder on the witness stand.

17 THE COURT: You may do that.

18 Ms. Moe, anything we can take up now?

19 MS. MOE: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. I will step down.

21 I appreciate counsel conferring on the anonymity
22 issues and working through as much as you could. I greatly
23 appreciate that. I will see you in a few minutes.

24 (Recess)

25 THE COURT: All right. We have our jury.

LC1VMAX1

1 Anything to take up?

2 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

3 I just wanted to report to the Court, we had a chance
4 to confer about those two issues. We've narrowed the scope of 5 disagreement to just one issue after conferring with the
6 witness's counsel, which we'd like to raise at sidebar. I
7 don't know how soon that will come up, so I defer to defense
8 counsel whether to do that now or whether it would be more
9 efficient to bring the jury out and deal with that at a break.

10 There's a second issue to flag, but let me just pause
11 there on that to see.

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 Is it anytime soon, Ms. Menninger?

14 MS. MENNINGER: I don't think so, but I don't have it
15 all memorized.

16 THE COURT: Understand. Let's hope we get to the 17 break and then we'll take it.

18 What else?

19 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

20 Defense counsel provided the government with a number
21 of exhibits, and we appreciated the chance to review those in 22 order to raise issues in advance. We just wanted to flag that
23 for two of those we anticipate there being a Rule 408
24 objection. Again, I don't know how quickly that will arise, so
25 I just wanted to alert that to the Court. We can take that up

LC1VMAX1

1 as it arises, but wanted to bring that to the Court's
2 attention.

3 In addition, defense counsel has notified the
4 government that they've provided binders of defense materials
5 for the jurors. It appears that -- we have not had a chance to 6 review those materials, but based on a sampling that defense
7 counsel has provided to the government, it appears a large
8 number of them are things like printouts from the internet and 9 otherwise. So we have concerns about jurors flipping through a
10 binder that would appear to contain a wide array of materials
11 that would not be admissible. And because we haven't examined
12 that binder, we have concerns about that.

13 I don't want to delay bringing the jury out, and so I
14 would just ask for an opportunity to be heard about that before
15 the jurors bring out any binders and begin flipping through 16 them.

17 MS. MENNINGER: I'm going to be asking them to look at 18 the binders at the outset at the beginning exhibits. I think
19 we've all come to believe --

20 THE COURT: We're going to keep doing what we've been 21 doing, which is before the jury turns to it, the defense will 22 tell us what it is. If you have an objection before they turn
23 to it, you'll raise it and we'll deal with it.

24 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Is there any general set of objections in

LC1VMAX1

1 that regard that we can --

2 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

3 I think materials like printouts from the internet,
4 things like tabloid articles, Wikipedia pages, we don't think
5 are appropriate as exhibits before the jury, and so we would
6 object to exhibits of that nature.

7 In addition, the samples that we've been provided
8 include --

9 THE COURT: Doesn't it depend what it's being used --
10 you have an internet objection, is that the -- what's the 11 grounds for a blanket objection to internet material?

12 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

13 I agree that we'll have to take these as they come.
14 Thinking ahead, we can't conceive of a basis for offering
15 things like Wikipedia articles with this witness or tabloid
16 articles with this witness, but we recognize the Court will
17 have to address that as it comes because we're not quite sure
18 what the defense argument would be. We mostly just wanted to 19 give the Court a preview of those issues that we anticipate 20 arising.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I feel like I'm trying to 23 give them stuff in advance so they can be prepared and we can
24 move this proceeding more quickly, but it will only come up
25 when and if it comes up.

LC1VMAX1

1 THE COURT: All right. Then we'll take it -- I'm
2 going to try to minimize sidebars, so we have to keep moving.

3 My request always is if there are things that you
4 think are likely to require a discussion to address
5 admissibility, that you do raise them in advance. Confer. If 6 you disagree, raise them.

7 I think at this point we'll bring out the jury. I'll
8 ask you to keep trying to do that as we go, so we use our time
9 efficiently. But it makes no sense to have the jury sitting 10 idly now.

11 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: We'll bring in the jury.

13 Can we bring in the witness.

14 (Witness present)

15 (Jury present)

16 THE COURT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the 17 jury. Nice to see you. Thank you so much for your punctuality
18 and attention and diligence. I greatly appreciate it. I hope
19 you had a good evening.

20 We will continue with Ms. Menninger's
21 cross-examination of the witness who's testifying under the 22 pseudonym "Jane."

23 I remind Jane that you are under oath.

24 I do remind the sketch artists that pursuant to my 25 order, please don't sketch exact likeness of the witness who is

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 testifying under a pseudonym.

2 With that, Ms. Menninger, you may continue.

3 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

4 JANE,

5 called as a witness by the Government,

6 having been previously duly sworn, testified as follows:

8 BY MS. MENNINGER:

9 Q. Good morning, Jane.

10 A. Good morning.

11 Q. I'd like to pick up again with your Interlochen
12 applications, all right? You don't need to open the binder
13 until we let you know. Thank you.

14 You are aware that Interlochen awards financial aid;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. You are aware that Interlochen awards scholarships;
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. You went there for three years in the summers?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Ages 13 to 17 -- 16?

23 A. 16, yes.

24 Q. No, 17; I think you turned 17 in your final summer.

25 THE COURT: Is that a question?

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Did you turn 17 in your final summer?

3 THE WITNESS: Sorry, I'm doing the math. 14, 15 --
4 no, 16.

5 Q. Your brothers went there as well?

6 A. Yes.

7 MS. MENNINGER: If we could turn to J-3, which has 8 already been admitted. And there is a little green flag for 9 you to get to the J exhibits more quickly.

10 And your Honor, because J-3 has been admitted, I would 11 ask at this time that the jurors be permitted to access the 12 smaller binder under their chairs which has J-3 in it.

13 THE COURT: Just one moment.

14 Without objection?

15 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Jurors, you may pick up the smaller
17 binder please and turn to J-3. Thank you.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Have you found J-3?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. I think as we discussed yesterday, that's your name on this
22 application; correct?

23 A. Yes, ma'am.

24 Q. And at the top line above your name, the question was 25 asked: Are you applying for scholarship/financial aid;

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And you checked off no; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. I want to ask you to turn to the second page of that
6 exhibit. And on the second page, you described what kind of 7 classes you wanted to apply for; correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. You wrote that: When asked about something difficult,
10 nothing has been difficult for me; correct?

11 A. I guess I did.

12 Q. You were involved in the school of the arts as we 13 discussed, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Costuming, acting, improvisation, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Plays, performances, movies, right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. This was at the age of 13, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And then just below that, it has the names of some 22 individuals who offered letters of recommendation for you,
23 right?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. When you were 13; correct?

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And then your signature is on that page, right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then the next page in this exhibit are some photographs
5 of yourself, right --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- that you submitted?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. These were all taken before you had turned 14, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All of them on the page?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. If we could turn to page -- well, actually,
14 yes, the next page, 4. That also has your address at the time;
15 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And one more page, page 6. That is one of the letters of 18 recommendation for you; correct?

19 THE COURT: Ms. Menninger, could I have a binder? I
20 don't think I have it. That's the government exhibits.

21 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor --

22 THE COURT: If you don't, that's okay.

23 MS. MENNINGER: No, no. I believe for this one we
24 gave you one yesterday, but I could be wrong about that. If I
25 could just check with Ms. Lundberg.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: I thought you did, too. I have just the
2 government exhibits.

3 MS. MENNINGER: Can she put it on the screen, your
4 Honor?

5 THE COURT: That would be fine. That is, I think,
6 what we were doing in part yesterday.

7 MS. MENNINGER: My apologies.

8 J-3, and we're on page 6.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Menninger.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. On page 6, we have a letter of recommendation for you. Do 12 you see that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Glowing letter of recommendation, right?

15 A. Yes, it looks like it.

16 Q. And the person that is referred to who performed or wrote
17 that letter of recommendation gave her qualifications, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Her credentials, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. She was then on the board of the Palm Beach School of the 22 Arts, right?

23 A. I didn't know that till I just saw it.

24 Q. Well, it's in your application, right? You solicited this 25 letter of recommendation from her; correct?

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And she was presently on the -- formerly, I'm sorry, a
3 director of the Professional Children's School; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And that's the school that you ultimately went to in New 6 York for senior year, right?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. And she was glowing in her support of your application to 9 go to Interlochen when you were 13 years old; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. I want to direct your attention to the last page in that 12 exhibit, page 11. If I could have you read the third full 13 paragraph; but, of course, omit your family name from that 14 reading. If you could read it out loud.

15 A. The third paragraph?

16 Q. Yes, that begins with "Each."

17 A. Each child has their own individual personality and talent,
18 but all three reflect the qualities of a strong, loving family
19 background. The arts have always been a common interest with 20 music as a binding love. The family organized and underwrote
21 an annual charity performance for our school. After attending
22 their Feastival of Lights, our school community has always felt
23 we had witnessed the rebirth of the von Trapp family.

24 Q. The von Trapp family, is that right?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. And this was a reference to you and your two brothers,
2 right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. I also believe, just in case it wasn't audible, it said
5 that you and your two brothers came from a strong and loving
6 family background; is that right?

7 A. That's what it says.

8 Q. I want to turn to -- and we could show for the Court --
9 what's been marked for identification as J-4. But you're 10 certainly welcome, Jane, to turn to that in paper form.

11 THE COURT: Not the jurors.

12 MS. MENNINGER: Not the jurors.

13 THE COURT: Please wait till I direct you. Please
14 wait till I direct you. You can close your binders.

15 Thank you.

16 MS. MENNINGER: It's going to come out again, I hope
17 soon.

18 BY MS. MENNINGER:

19 Q. Do you recognize this document?

20 A. I do not recognize the document per se.

21 Q. J-4?

22 A. But I recognize my signature.

23 Q. Okay. Do you believe that this is your application?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And to the same Interlochen Arts Camp?

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And do you see the date on the upper right-hand corner?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And that would have been an application for the next year,
5 for the next summer, is that fair?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right.

8 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, at this time I'm moving
9 for the admission of J-4, which I previously discussed with the 10 government.

11 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor. We would just ask
12 that it be under seal and that any identifying information not 13 be read into the record.

14 THE COURT: Okay. J-4 is admitted. It's admitted
15 under seal consistent with my ruling that this witness may 16 testify under pseudonym. And if any reference -- if any 17 reading of the document occurs, everyone is admonished not to 18 use the identifying information.

19 (Defendant's Exhibit J-4 received in evidence)

20 BY MS. MENNINGER:

21 Q. So if you need to turn on the second page, I think it has 22 your signature, just for reference sake. Do you see that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you believe this is your application?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. That was submitted in October of 1994?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And that would be for the summer of 1995?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Up again on the top line above your name there is a
6 question: Are you applying for financial aid?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Oh, the jurors can look at J-4 now, if 8 that's okay.

9 THE COURT: Without objection?

10 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: You may open your binder to J-4, please.

12 Thank you.

13 Q. So we see your name in the top portion of the application,
14 right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And then above that, are you applying for financial aid,
17 and you checked no; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. If you want to turn to page 2 of that exhibit, up on the 20 top line there are some references and one is your father's 21 name; is that right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then next to that was your teacher from Palm Beach
24 School of the Arts, right?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. And then below that, again, it gave a little summary of
2 where you were in your career in October of '94; correct? It
3 talked about you had done commercials, right?

4 A. A couple.

5 Q. Many performances singing, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Plays, skits, etc., right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You had been in the New York Broadway production of Joseph
10 and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat; correct?

11 A. I was not in the New York production.

12 Q. It was a local production?

13 A. It was -- it was the touring company in Florida.

14 Q. Okay.

15 MS. MOE: Your Honor, may I have just a moment to 16 confer with defense counsel?

17 THE COURT: You may.

18 (Counsel conferred)

19 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

20 Q. And again, you said: Nothing has been very difficult for 21 me. Correct?

22 A. I guess I did.

23 Q. On the next page you had submitted a letter asking to take 24 extra classes the next summer, right?

25 A. Yeah.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. And your address on this application for the summer of '95
2 is the same address as the one that was on your application for
3 the summer of '94; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 MS. MENNINGER: All right. And then if we could --
6 not the jurors, if the jurors could wait a minute, could we 7 have the witness identify what's been marked as J-5, which is 8 the next exhibit?

9 THE COURT: Jurors, close your binders please. And 10 keep them on your laps, but close them. Thank you.

11 Q. Do you see the exhibit at J-5?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that has your signature as well, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And there's a date on the upper left-hand corner, do you
16 see that date?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And do you believe this to be your application for the 19 summer of 1996?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right.

22 MS. MENNINGER: At this time I would move for the 23 admission of J-6.

24 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor. We'd ask that 25 this exhibit be received under seal for the same reasons.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: Okay. J-6 is admitted. It's admitted
2 under seal, consistent with my ruling --

3 MS. MENNINGER: I'm sorry, J-5 for 1996.

4 THE COURT: Oh, I apologize, J-5. J-5 is admitted
5 under seal consistent with my ruling that this witness may 6 testify under a pseudonym, and without objection from the 7 government.

8 (Defendant's Exhibit J-5 received in evidence)

9 THE COURT: I'll direct, Ms. Moe, the jury to look at 10 the binder, J-5.

11 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 Jurors, you may look at J-5 please.

14 BY MS. MENNINGER:

15 Q. So on J-5 we have your signature there again; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you were applying for the high school level, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you had a new address for this application for the 20 summer of 1996; correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. That address is the one we talked about yesterday that was 23 in the Bear Lake Estates gated community, right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. I want to show you, at the bottom of that page, it's the

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 same teacher who had supported you from the prior year's
2 application; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And then if we could turn the page to the next page, on
5 page 2 of J-5, in the second box down from the top, there's a
6 label "Financial Information." Do you see that box?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And in that box it asks: Are you applying for financial 9 aid? And you said no. Correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And then the next line says: Does the student applying
12 expect to be the recipient of any funds, scholarship, grant,
13 award, or prize from any country, state, organization, or 14 individual specifically for attendance at the Interlochen Arts
15 Camp. And you checked no. Correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And then on that same page there is a little newspaper
18 clip; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And I won't say the names of any performances, but it's 21 talking about some performances that you and your brothers had 22 performed in the area, right?

23 A. Yes.

24 MS. MENNINGER: And if I may have one second, your 25 Honor?

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: You may.

2 (Counsel conferred)

3 Q. And that you and your brothers had performed the last week
4 for a School of the Arts performance locally; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And then you were going to be performing in another city in
7 Florida in the upcoming days; is that right?

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. And then it said in April that you would be traveling to 10 Italy for a vocal competition; correct?

11 A. Correct, with my school.

12 Q. And so this was in -- this was dated in 1996, right?

13 A. Yes, ma'am.

14 Q. All right. And then if we could go to the last -- I'm 15 sorry, page 5 of that exhibit we touched on briefly yesterday.
16 On page 5 of that exhibit, it gives the camp fee structure for 17 Interlochen for you for that summer, right?

18 A. It looks like it, yeah.

19 Q. And it's $4,025 for the summer; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And you signed under that as well as your mother, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And on none of these three applications is there any 24 mention of Jeffrey Epstein; correct?

25 A. Correct.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. And there's no mention of Ghislaine Maxwell; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 MS. MENNINGER: All right. At this point, if we could
4 ask the jurors to close the binders, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Please do. Thank you.

6 Q. I want to talk about the first time that you say you met
7 Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell, okay?

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. And you claim that was in 1994 when you were 14, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You testified yesterday on direct examination that you were 12 sitting with friends at a picnic table, and a tall, thin woman
13 approached you with a dog. And you chitchatted with her, and 14 then a man came and joined her, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. You recalled a lot of details about that incident in 1994,
17 right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You remember that the man had a newspaper under his arm
20 which he put down on the table, right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. You remember that you were on a break from classes, right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. You were eating an ice cream cone and the man said, I think
25 I know your mom. That's what you testified to yesterday;

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 correct?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. You gave some statements about that meeting to 4 several people over the course of the last 20 years, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You spoke to your brother, your older brother Brian within 7 a few days of that meeting, right?

8 A. I'm sorry, can you -- a few days of the meeting back in 9 1994?

10 Q. Right.

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Well, isn't it true that you told your brother Brian that 13 you had been approached by Epstein?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. Isn't it true that you told your brother Brian that Epstein
16 said he knew your dad and admired him?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Isn't it true you told Brian nothing about Ghislaine
19 Maxwell being there at all; correct?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. Do you remember talking to your younger brother about it
22 over the last 20 years?

23 A. Over the last 20 years?

24 Q. Yes.

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Q. And when you spoke to your younger brother about this
2 initial meeting, you also told him that you only met Epstein;
3 correct?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. You didn't tell him anything about meeting a woman;
6 correct?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. And you also gave an interview to a news source about this 9 initial meeting; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And when you spoke to that news source, you told the news
12 person, journalist, that you were approached by Epstein;
13 correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. You said nothing about Ghislaine being there?

16 A. I don't remember what I said.

17 Q. All right. Could I have you -- and only you and not the 18 jurors -- take a look at J-13.

19 MS. MENNINGER: And for the Court and the witness we 20 could put it on the screen.

21 If I could direct the witness's attention to page 2 of 22 that document.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And on the fourth paragraph, you told the reporter that

LC1VMAX1

Jane - cross

1 Epstein approached you; correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. You didn't say anything to the reporter about Ghislaine
4 being there; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. You spoke to the government for the first time, as we
7 discussed yesterday, in September of 2019; correct?

8 A. I don't recall the exact date.

9 Q. Well, you were there in California with your lawyers and 10 Ms. Moe and some others; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And what happened when you spoke to them then is you were 13 asked about the first time that you met Ghislaine, right?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And what you told the government on that day with your 16 attorneys there is that Ghislaine walked by with her dog;
17 correct?

18 A. I don't recall my exact vernacular.

4 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

5 MS. MENNINGER: 3509-002, page 1.

6 THE COURT: Can I have it on the screen?

7 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor. 3509-002.

8 Q. What you told the government on September 19 of 2019 is 9 that Ghislaine walked by with her dog and Jeffrey Epstein came 10 up to meet you, correct?

11 A. I wouldn't have said that.

12 Q. So, the (inaudible) again.

13 (Reporter inquired)

14 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: You cut out. I think I heard the 16 question, but can you repeat the question?

17 Q. So the FBI got it wrong again?

18 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

20 A. Maybe they typed it up wrong.

21 Q. What you told the government is that -- well, what you
22 testified to yesterday is that both Ghislaine and Jeffrey told
23 you that they give scholarships, correct?

24 A. I don't remember which -- I know Jeffrey said it.
25 Ghislaine was standing there.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 Q. And that's right. Ghislaine didn't walk by?

2 A. No, she was right there.

3 Q. And Jeffrey said, can I give scholarships?

4 A. I cannot remember his exact verbiage this many years later.

5 Q. And Jeffrey said, can I have your mom's phone number?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Not Ghislaine asking for your mom's phone number?

8 A. No.

9 Q. You testified yesterday that you were sitting on a park
10 bench with your friends, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And when you filed your civil lawsuit in January of 2020
13 you said you were sitting alone on a bench between classes,
14 correct?

15 A. I don't recall what was written.

16 Q. I want to talk about the second meeting that you had with 17 Mr. Epstein. You went back home after camp that summer?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you started school for the school year, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You testified yesterday that a few days after you got back

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. That someone from Epstein's office was not Ghislaine

1 Maxwell, correct?

2 A. I don't know.

3 Q. Well, did the person invite you to Maxwell's house?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Invited you to Epstein's house, correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. With your mother, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And when you got to Epstein's house with your mother, it
10 was 15 or 20 minutes away from your house, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. It was in -- your house was in West Palm Beach, right?

13 A. No, not at this time. It was in Palm Beach.

14 Q. You didn't cross any state lines, did you?

15 A. No.

16 Q. When you got to Epstein's house for tea, you and your 17 mother sat by the pool?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You were the only people there?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Ghislaine was not there?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. Well, you spoke to the government in October of 2021, so
24 two months ago. Do you recall speaking with them two months
25 ago?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes. So I was sitting -- it was only the three of us
2 having tea, yes. I don't recall if Ghislaine was in the house.

3 Q. Well, what you said to the government in October of 2021 at 4 3509-28 in the handwritten notes is, it was just Epstein, mom
5 and you present, correct?

6 MS. MOE: Again, your Honor, I think we've been over
7 reading documents that are not in evidence.

8 THE COURT: That statement is not inconsistent, so
9 I'll sustain the objection with respect to that statement.

10 Q. At the first tea, the only people there were you and your 11 mom and Epstein, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You never reported to the government that Ms. Maxwell was 14 present for the tea, correct?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. During the conversation, Epstein told you he gives 17 scholarships and mentors people, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. He said he does that; not we do that, correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And he did not refer to Ms. Maxwell at all during your 22 initial meeting with him, correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Wasn't a part of the conversation?

25 A. No.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 Q. After this tea with your mother, you went back to Epstein's
2 house, correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Yesterday you testified that for the first few months when
5 you spent time with Epstein in Palm Beach, you were there by 6 yourself. Do you remember that testimony?

7 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat that?

8 Q. Yesterday you testified that for the first few months when
9 you spent time with Jeffrey Epstein in Palm Beach, you were 10 there by yourself?

11 A. By myself as in without my mother.

12 Q. Right. You said --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You were --

15 A. Yes, yes, without my mother.

16 Q. And then you clarified that your mother did not go back to 17 his house with you for meetings because she was "not invited."
18 That was your testimony yesterday, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. That is not what you told the government when you met with 21 them in September of 2019, is it?

22 A. I don't know.

23 Q. What you told the government in September of 2019,
24 including Ms. Moe, is "In the beginning, I would be with my 25 mother and brother"?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 MS. MOE: I object to just reading documents.

2 THE COURT: Let me see it. Let me see it before you
3 read, I'll see it, okay? And then you can make your objection,
4 Ms. Moe, and I'll rule.

5 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Let me have the passage first.

7 MS. MENNINGER: It's going to be in 3509-001 on the 8 second page, in the fourth paragraph beginning in the middle of 9 the paragraph.

10 THE COURT: Ms. Moe?

11 MS. MOE: Your Honor, if the question is whether she 12 made that statement, we have no objection.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you.

15 Q. What you said to Ms. Moe and the agents was, "In the 16 beginning, I would be with my mother and brothers at Epstein's
17 house," correct?

18 A. I don't recall that.

19 Q. You told the government nothing about your mother wasn't
20 invited back to Epstein's house, correct?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. And you talked thereafter about being driven repeatedly to 23 Epstein's house by a chauffeur who was a sweet Latin American 24 man, correct?

25 A. Correct.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 Q. And you said that that sweet Latin American man picked you
2 up every week or two while you were 14, 15 and 16 years old?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. So approximately a hundred times he picked you up over
5 three years every week or two. That's your testimony, correct?

6 A. I'm not good at math, but I wouldn't recall how many times.

7 Q. Well, you testified under oath yesterday --

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. -- that it was every week or two for three years, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. You were asked yesterday by the government how 12 these meetings at Epstein's house were typically arranged. Do
13 you remember that question?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you said yesterday it was Ghislaine calling the house
16 or Jeffrey's office calling the house like an assistant or 17 something. Do you remember that testimony?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. That's not what you told the government in November of 2019
20 when you met with them then. And if we could turn to 3509-003
21 at page 1, fourth paragraph?

22 MS. MOE: I'm sorry, I didn't hear the number.

23 Q. 3509-003, first page, fourth paragraph.

24 MS. MOE: Thank you.

25 Q. What you told the government on that occasion is you were

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 not sure if Maxwell ever called you to make appointments,
2 correct?

3 A. I don't recall. I don't know.

4 Q. And then on the next page in the same interview in the 5 first paragraph, same document, next page, you said, "When in 6 Florida, Epstein or his office would call your house," right?

7 A. I guess so.

8 Q. You didn't say Maxwell would call your house, right?

9 A. I guess -- I don't know. I guess so.

10 Q. And so two years later, now you remember that Ghislaine
11 called your home to make appointments, right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. That memory has come back to you in the last two years?

14 A. Well, memory is not linear.

15 Q. Do you remember that Mr. Epstein came to your house for 16 dinner?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. In Bear Lakes Estate?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Right? And he came to your house with your mother and your 21 brothers there, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Ghislaine was not there?

24 A. No.

25 Q. You recall that that did not happen right at the beginning

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 of your meeting with Mr. Epstein, right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And it was a year or two after meeting Epstein that he came
4 to your house for dinner, correct?

5 A. I don't know the timeline, but it was at the new house.

6 Q. Well, in February of 2020, you told the government -- this
7 is at 3509-008, page 12.

8 THE COURT: What paragraph?

9 Q. The fourth full paragraph beginning with the word "this."
10 At the end of that paragraph -- I'm sorry -- the middle of that 11 paragraph is that you said to the government, "They visited you
12 one to two times at your house in Florida. This was about a 13 year or two after meeting him," correct?

14 A. Correct, I guess.

15 Q. So then you remembered it was a year or two, but you don't 16 remember it today. Is that right?

17 A. Well, I'm trying to be very accurate, so I don't know. I
18 just know it's at the new house.

19 Q. And the dinner that you had at your house was prior to any 20 abuse?

21 A. That's not true.

22 Q. Well, in the same interview in February of 2020, at page
23 11 --

24 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I'd object to counsel testifying 25 about --

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 THE COURT: We're going to keep doing -- point to the 2 passage. You'll read it, Ms. Moe. You'll let me know if
3 there's an objection, okay?

4 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: So where are we reading?

6 Q. On page 11 of that same document in the last full
7 paragraph, second sentence.

8 THE COURT: Okay. No objection. You may proceed,
9 Ms. Menninger.

10 Q. What you told the government on that occasion is that at 11 some point Maxwell and Epstein came to your house prior to the 12 abuse, correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. You mentioned on direct examination that you felt Ghislaine
15 had kind of become your big sister, right?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And you have two older sisters as we discussed yesterday,
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. One is approximately ten years older than you, right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. One is approximately 15 years older than you, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. During the time you were in high school, you traveled to 25 see your sisters?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You traveled to Los Angeles to visit and stay with one of 3 them there, correct?

4 A. I don't recall what year, but, yes, at some point.

5 Q. You remember staying with her in Los Angeles, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Before you lived in Los Angeles?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So it was while you were still in high school, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you traveled to Boston to visit the other sister,
12 correct?

13 A. No, that's the same sister.

14 Q. Same sister, a different time?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. In high school, right?

17 A. Middle school -- no, middle school and then, okay, once in 18 high school.

19 Q. And your own sisters took you shopping on occasion,
20 correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. They took you to the movies, correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Over the years, they've talked to you about your 25 boyfriends, correct?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. No.

2 Q. You have not talked to your sisters about your boyfriends?

3 A. I never had any boyfriends.

4 Q. You've never had a boyfriend?

5 A. Not in high school, I didn't.

6 Q. Sorry. My question was had you ever over the years spoken
7 to your sisters about boyfriends?

8 A. Over the years, yes.

9 Q. Because yesterday you suggested that you hadn't had normal
10 relationships, right?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. But you have had boyfriends for multiple years at a time,
13 correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You talked a little bit about Ghislaine and Epstein taking 16 you to see the movies; you said that's something that you guys
17 did together, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You went to a movie theater in the area of Epstein's house
20 in Florida, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Which is a nice area, right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. They were normal movie theaters?

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 Q. Sometimes other girls went with you, right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And Epstein would direct who was supposed to sit where in 4 the movie theater, correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And he did not sit next to you in the movie theater,
7 correct?

8 A. I don't remember.

9 Q. Well, let's turn -- well, not you, but we'll look at 10 February 27 of 2020 when you spoke with the government,
11 3509-008 on page 3.

12 MS. MOE: Your Honor, could we have just a very brief
13 sidebar about this issue?

14 THE COURT: Can you tell me what paragraph I'm 15 reading? And then yes.

16 MS. MENNINGER: It's going to be on page 4 at the end
17 of the paragraph that began on the page 3, the last sentence.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 (At the sidebar)

2 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor. And I apologize for
3 asking for a sidebar, but I'm hoping this will streamline
4 things. The issue is at a number of times the witness has 5 testified that she doesn't recall, and instead of showing the 6 witness the document and asking if that refreshes her
7 recollection, which is the only thing that would be proper at 8 that juncture, I believe counsel is now just reading reports
9 into the record, which is not proper.

10 THE COURT: Well, the question was yesterday you
11 testified --

12 (Pause)

13 THE COURT: So, yes, she said she didn't remember if 14 Epstein directed where they sat.

15 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, under 613, I'm not 16 obligated to show the witness a prior statement before I ask
17 her about it. I have to give her an opportunity --

18 THE COURT: She said she didn't remember. What's the 19 inconsistency?

20 MS. MENNINGER: Well, your Honor, her not remembering 21 I don't have to refresh her recollection. Her memory is at 22 issue in this case. If she can't remember what she said a
23 month ago or two months ago or a year ago, that's relevant to 24 the jury's determination. Then we can put on evidence through 25 other witnesses that that is in fact what she said to the

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 government on that date.

2 THE COURT: Your theory is everything that she -- when
3 you ask her, "What did you say on this date to the government,"
4 she says, "I don't remember."

5 MS. MENNINGER: Her story has changed like a hundred
6 thousand times, and that is exactly what the problem is here,
7 your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Well, here's the problem: There is a way
9 you can get in her story has changed, but what you're doing and 10 what -- I don't know what the limits to this would be. You're 11 asking her very specific questions about multiple instances of 12 reporting, and when she said "I don't remember what I said in 13 that moment," you're then introducing the statements of what 14 she said.

15 MS. MENNINGER: I can say, isn't it true that you said
16 this? That's the other way to phrase it.

17 THE COURT: You could say "do you recall saying this 18 to the government"? If she says no, then you move on.

19 MS. MENNINGER: Right. That's all I've been doing.

20 THE COURT: Is that right?

21 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. I think we're talking 22 about two different scenarios. The first is, for example, if 23 Ms. Menninger asked the witness, "Did this meeting happen on a
24 particular date" or you know "were you living in the blue
25 house" for example. If the witness says, "I don't remember,"

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 then we're talking about refreshing her recollection with a
2 document. If the witness says something that Ms. Menninger
3 believes to be inconsistent with a prior statement, the 4 question then is instead, not a document, but do you recall --
5 like isn't it true that you told the government X? And if the 6 witness says, "I don't remember that," then that's the record.
7 If the witness says, "Yes, I said that," then that's the 8 impeachment.

9 The documents themselves are impeachment by collateral
10 material. The proper way to do this is to ask the witness
11 whether she said something or not. If she denies it, then the 12 way to do that is through the witnesses to that meeting, and 13 not by asking the witness to read a document that she didn't
14 prepare into the record, which is what's happening.

15 THE COURT: Well, what I understand you to be saying
16 is you want first her to show it to her and see if it refreshes
17 her recollection.

18 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor, if she says she doesn't 19 recall. If she denies the fact and the point is to impeach her
20 with a fact of a prior inconsistent statement --

21 THE COURT: Well, I think the window of disagreement
22 is not just an inconsistent statement but that she doesn't
23 recall -- no, I think you're right. So if she doesn't recall
24 what she said in a meeting, you can refresh her recollection as 25 to what she said. If she says, "I didn't say that" or "I don't

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 recall," you can say, "Didn't you say the following to the FBI
2 agent," and then --

3 MS. MENNINGER: So I believe that I do not have to
4 refresh for impeachment, but I can ask her --

5 THE COURT: You're claiming that because she doesn't
6 recall what she said, it's an inconsistent statement. There's 7 not an inconsistency there.

8 MS. MENNINGER: So, I can ask her, "Did you say this?"
9 She can say, "I don't recall." And then I can say, "Isn't it
10 true you said it on this date?" And she can say, "No, I
11 didn't" or "I still don't recall."

12 THE COURT: Every trial I've been to with these 13 materials I've presided over -- and there's been a lot in ten
14 years -- this precise thing happens. You testified X. Didn't 15 you tell the agent some variation of x or Y.

16 I don't remember way said to the agent.

17 You show them the 302. Does that refresh your 18 recollection, or didn't you -- and didn't you say if it doesn't 19 refresh your recollection and then you get to do precisely what 20 you're doing.

21 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, may I get the statute book
22 because it says right in 613.

23 THE COURT: Sure.

24 MS. MENNINGER: Yesterday I tried to show the witness
25 an exhibit and I was directing her to when the exhibit was made

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 and what the date of the interview was, and nobody liked that.
2 So today I tried --

3 THE COURT: I don't think I sustained an objection to 4 that.

5 MS. MENNINGER: Well, I said here's the date and then
6 there was an objection at the time. But in Rule 613(a), it
7 says: When showing or disposing the statement during 8 examination. When examining a witness about the witness' prior 9 statement, a party need not show it or disclose its contents to 10 the witness. But the party must on request show it or disclose
11 its contents to an adversary party's attorney.

12 And so because I don't believe I have to show it to 13 her. If I want to prove it later with extrinsic evidence, she 14 has to be given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement
15 and the adversary party is given an opportunity to examine the 16 witness about it. That's the way I read that rule.

17 THE COURT: So the extrinsic evidence of a witness'
18 prior inconsistent statement. My point is if she says she 19 doesn't remember, it's not an inconsistent statement. You have 20 to get to a point of inconsistency.

21 MS. MENNINGER: Here is the inconsistency.

22 THE COURT: When you're doing it based on what she 23 testified to yesterday, if there's a difference, yes.

24 MS. MENNINGER: That's what I've been trying to do.

25 THE COURT: Here you're saying on this date you said

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 Epstein told you where to sit. She says, "I don't remember."
2 It's not an inconsistent statement. That's the difference.
3 Then you can refresh her on what she said. But if what you're
4 doing is -- right? What's inconsistent about you saying, "You
5 said X to the agent," and she says, "I don't remember." Is 6 that an inconsistency?

7 MS. MENNINGER: The statement that she gave yesterday
8 versus what her statement to the agent that's what I'm trying.

9 THE COURT: I let you do that. I let you do that.
10 Just now the example that drew the objection you said Epstein
11 didn't -- you told the agent you didn't sit next to Epstein and 12 she said "I don't remember."

13 MS. MENNINGER: Okay. So I will show her for that 14 type of example --

15 THE COURT: But I agree with you if you have a prior 16 statement that is inconsistent with testimony, that's when 17 we're there.

18 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor and in that scenario, it's a
19 question: Did you say that to the agent on this date? If not,
20 showing the witness the document and asking her to read it into 21 the record. The question is, did you make that statement?

22 MS. MENNINGER: I just asked.

23 THE COURT: I agree. I think you did it right up
24 until this moment when we didn't have and inconsistent
25 statement? We're in vigorous disagreement.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

MS. STERNHEIM: Vigorously.

(In open court)

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 THE COURT: Ms. Menninger, you can take off your mask.

2 I want to pause. Counsel, one of the exhibits
3 referenced was not in one of the jurors' binders, so I want to 4 just correct that.

5 Ms. Williams, can you let counsel know what exhibit it
6 was?

7 MS. MENNINGER: My apologies, your Honor. We'll get
8 that fixed.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. And thank you to the juror for 10 alerting us.

11 MS. MENNINGER: If there is anyone else that has a
12 problem.

13 Thank you, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I apologize for that. I'm grateful to the 15 jurors. If anything like that happens, feel free to kind of 16 raise your hand in the moment and we'll have Ms. Williams as 17 she always does, make things right.

18 (Pause)

19 THE COURT: I think we're not in the binders at the 20 moment, so while Mr. Everdell is working on that, you'll 21 proceed.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

23 BY MS. MENNINGER:

24 Q. I believe we were talking about you going to the movies
25 with Epstein and Ghislaine. Do you remember that?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And isn't it true that you told the government that you did
3 not sit next to Epstein in the movie theaters?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. Okay. If I could have you look at 3509-008, page 4, in the 6 binder sorry. Just you.

7 A. Sorry, 35 what?

8 Q. It's in the first set.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. She'll show it to you, I apologize.

11 THE COURT: It's on the screen.

12 Q. 004 -- I'm sorry, page 4 of 008, and the top paragraph and 13 the last line of that top paragraph.

14 A. Okay.

15 Q. You told the agents that Epstein would decide where 16 everyone sat?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Correct?

19 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor. Same issue. The 20 question is whether that refreshes her recollection.

21 THE COURT: Go ahead.

22 Q. Does it refresh your recollection what you told the 23 government?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And what you told the government is that Epstein would

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 decide where everyone sat, correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. And you told them that you did not sit next to Epstein,
4 right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. But when you were in the movie theater, nothing sexual was 7 happening; you weren't sitting next to him, right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Yesterday you spoke about the first time that you saw
10 Ghislaine without her clothes on, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You said that happened shortly after the first incident in 13 the pool house, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And you described that you were just hanging out and all of 16 a sudden Epstein demanded that you follow him upstairs, right?

17 A. I'm sorry, can you clarify which --

18 Q. The first time that you saw Ghislaine without her clothes
19 on is what you claimed. Do you remember that?

20 A. The first time I saw her without a top on was by the pool.

21 Q. Yesterday Ms. Moe asked you about the first time you saw 22 Ghislaine without her clothes on. Do you recall that?

23 A. I -- I don't recall which question you were referring to or 24 I don't recall, sorry.

25 Q. You don't recall the first time you saw Ghislaine without

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 her clothes on?

2 A. Yes, I do recall, but to be specific, topless or completely
3 naked?

4 Q. The question from Ms. Moe was the first time you saw
5 Ghislaine with her clothes off, and you didn't have any 6 question about what she meant.

7 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

8 THE COURT: Sustained.

9 Q. Yesterday you were asked:

10 "Q. Did there ever come a time when you saw Ghislaine Maxwell 11 without her clothes on?"

12 Do you recall that question?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And you said yes?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You didn't say her top or not her top?

17 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 Q. Right?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And you described a whole scenario where you claim you and
22 Epstein and Ghislaine went upstairs and there was fondling in a
23 room. Do you recall relating that to this jury yesterday?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. When you spoke with the government in December of 2019, you

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 told them that you do not have a specific memory of the first
2 time with Ghislaine?

3 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 Q. Yesterday did you give a specific memory of the first time
6 that you recall being in a massage scenario with Ghislaine?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And when you spoke with the government in 9 December of 2019, you told them you do not have a specific 10 memory of the first time with Ghislaine.

11 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

12 THE COURT: That's not a question.

13 Q. Isn't it true that you told the government in December of 14 2019 that you do not have a specific memory of the first time
15 with Ghislaine?

16 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. You did not tell the government in December of 2019 about a
20 scenario of you following Ghislaine and Jeffrey upstairs and 21 the three of you were alone, correct?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. In fact, there was a period of time that you claim that it
24 was just you and Jeffrey alone, and you had not been present
25 with Ghislaine?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

2 THE COURT: Sustained. I don't understand the time
3 frame of that question.

4 Q. Yesterday you testified that it was shortly after the pool
5 house that you had this incident with Epstein and Ghislaine,
6 right?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. When you spoke with the government before, you said that 9 some period of time, months went by before you ever had an 10 incident with Ghislaine, correct?

11 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

12 THE COURT: I will sustain it. You've drawn on 13 different meetings with the government. You have to specify
14 which one you're talking about so that the witness can answer
15 whether she recalls or not.

16 Q. Previously you told the government you do not have a
17 specific memory of your first time with Ghislaine.

18 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

19 MS. MENNINGER: This is just foundational to the next
20 question.

21 THE COURT: But give a -- give what you are asking
22 about, give the date that you're asking about.

23 Q. In December of 2019, you told the government you do not
24 have a specific memory of your first time with Ghislaine.

25 Moving on from that, because you do not have a

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 specific --

2 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

3 MS. MENNINGER: That was just admitted. I'm just 4 laying the foundation for the next question. That was the last 5 thing.

6 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I'm not sure what the question
7 is.

8 THE COURT: You don't have a question yet. Go ahead.

9 BY MS. MENNINGER:

10 Q. Because you have no specific memory of your first time with 11 Ghislaine in December of 2019, you have come up with that 12 memory in the last two years, the one you gave yesterday,
13 correct?

14 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 A. I come up with -- I don't believe I've come up with a
17 memory, no.

18 Q. Well, you gave a memory to the jury yesterday that you
19 didn't have in December of 2019, right?

20 A. I don't recall.

21 Q. You then later met with the government in February of 2020,
22 right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. And what you told the government in February of 2020 is 25 that the first time you were involved with Ghislaine, there

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 were two other girls there as well, correct?

2 A. I don't recall.

3 Q. At 3509-008, page 4, first full paragraph, beginning in the 4 middle of the paragraph.

5 MS. MOE: And, your Honor, is the question whether
6 that refreshes the witness' recollection?

7 THE COURT: That will be the question. Go ahead.

8 Q. Does it refresh your recollection to read the sentence
9 beginning with the first time? Yes or no.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. It refreshes your recollection, it's true that you told the 12 government that the first time with Maxwell, there were two 13 other girls there as well, correct?

14 A. Correct, but the wording that was typed up on this isn't 15 correct, so I don't know how to --

16 Q. Another typo by the government?

17 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 Q. It's another typo?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So, yesterday you gave a story that is different from 22 December 2019 when you had no specific memory and is different
23 from February 2020 when there were two other girls there as 24 well, correct?

25 MS. MOE: Objection. Compound.

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 Q. Yesterday you testified that there were times when
3 Ghislaine was in the room with you and Epstein, correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And you remember those times, right?

6 A. Not all, but yes.

7 Q. When you spoke with the government at the February 2020
8 meeting, they asked you if there were times where it was just 9 you, Epstein and Ghislaine in the room, and you said you were 10 not sure, correct?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. You said you were not sure that ever happened, correct?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. You were not sure where it happened, correct?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. You only remembered being solely with Epstein and going
17 back to the group setting, correct?

18 A. I don't recall.

19 Q. It is true that you do not recall Ghislaine ever touching
20 you?

21 A. That's not true.

22 Q. When you spoke to the government in December of 2019 with 23 your lawyers there, and you told the government at that time
24 you are not sure whether Maxwell ever touched you during these 25 encounters, correct?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. I don't recall.

2 Q. You told the government that you're not sure that Maxwell
3 ever kissed you, correct?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never used sex toys
6 or vibrators on you, correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. You told the government that you don't recall Ghislaine
9 ever giving you a talk about how to massage Epstein, correct?

10 A. I don't recall.

11 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never saw you
12 perform oral sex on Epstein, correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never saw you
15 perform hand jobs on Epstein, to use your words, correct?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never saw you
18 involved in any masturbation with Epstein, correct?

19 A. I don't -- know or I don't recall.

20 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never saw you
21 engaged in sexual intercourse with Epstein, correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. You told the government you have no memory of Ghislaine
24 being present when you claim Epstein engaged in any sexual
25 contact with you, correct?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 A. I'm sorry, can you repeat that?

2 Q. You told the government you have no memory of Ghislaine
3 being present when you claim Epstein engaged in any sexual
4 contact with you, correct?

5 A. I don't recall.

6 Q. You told the government that Ghislaine never discussed any 7 sexual abuse with you, right?

8 A. Whether she discussed abuse with me?

9 Q. Right.

10 A. Right.

11 Q. It was very compartmentalized. It was never discussed.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. No one gave you any feedback afterwards. It was never 14 mentioned, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. No one asked you if Epstein had fun, right?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 MS. MENNINGER: Can I have one moment, your Honor?

19 THE COURT: You may.

20 (Pause)

21 Q. So if we could go back to your conversations with the 22 government in February of 2020, and if I could direct your 23 attention to 3509-008 at page 5, in the second paragraph, I'm 24 going to ask you if this refreshes your recollection?

25 MS. MOE: Your Honor, about what?

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MS. MENNINGER: Something that she earlier said she
3 doesn't recall.

4 THE COURT: Well, you will have to ask it again.

5 MS. MENNINGER: I will.

6 THE COURT: You will ask the question again.

7 Q. Before she does it, okay.

8 You said you don't recall whether or not you ever told
9 the government that you and Ghislaine and Jeffrey were alone
10 together in the room. You were not sure that ever happened.
11 Do you recall that testimony?

12 A. I don't recall that, no.

13 Q. If I could have you look at 3509-008, page five, the last 14 paragraph, the first sentence in that paragraph, if you could 15 read that to yourself, tell me whether that refreshes your
16 recollection?

17 A. It doesn't, but I read it, yeah.

18 Q. So, what you told the government on February 27, 2020 --

19 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 Q. -- is that when asked if there were times when it was only
22 you, Epstein and Ghislaine in the room, you said you were not 23 sure, correct?

24 A. That's what it says.

25 Q. You were not sure that ever happened in February of 2020,

LC1Qmax2

Jane - Cross

1 right?

2 MS. MOE: Your Honor, objection. Is the question
3 whether she made the statement, whether she remembers it,
4 whether she's reading it from a document it's very unclear.

5 THE COURT: You will rephrase, please.

6 Q. As you sit here today, you're not sure whether you were
7 ever in the room alone with Ghislaine and Epstein, correct?

8 A. No.

9 Q. I asked you if you recall telling the government that 10 Ghislaine never touched you?

11 A. I don't recall that.

12 Q. If I could have you take a look at 3509-005. That's going
13 to be difficult.

14 On page 3 of 3509-005, in the second full paragraph in 15 the middle of the paragraph there's a sentence that begins with 16 your name, and I would like you to read that and tell me if 17 that refreshes your recollection that you said that to the 18 government in December of 2019?

19 A. Which paragraph?

20 Q. The second full paragraph in the middle of the paragraph
21 beginning with your name.

22 A. Yes.

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Does that refresh your recollection that you told the
3 government you do not have a recollection and are not sure if
4 Ghislaine touched you during these encounters; correct?

5 A. I don't recall.

6 Q. Isn't it true that's what you told the government on that 7 date?

8 A. I don't remember, but it's written here.

9 Q. I want to turn back to your statement that you don't recall
10 whether you ever told the government that Ghislaine did not see 11 you performing oral sex on Epstein. Is that what you told the 12 government?

13 A. I don't remember.

14 Q. If I could have you look at 3509-008 at page 10. And I ask
15 you to look at the first full paragraph and the last sentence
16 of that paragraph. Does that refresh your recollection of 17 whether Ghislaine was ever present for instances of oral sex
18 between you and Epstein?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. It's true that you don't know whether Ghislaine was ever
21 present for you having oral sex in any way with Epstein;
22 correct?

23 A. I don't remember.

24 Q. That's what you told the government, didn't you?

25 A. I don't remember.

1 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, is now an appropriate time
2 for a break? I was about to start another area.

3 THE COURT: All right. We can take our morning break.
4 Members of the jury, we'll take about a ten-minute
5 break. Thank you.

6 (Jury not present)

7 THE COURT: Matters to take up, counsel?
8 Just a moment. You may step out, Jane. Thank you.
9 Everyone may be seated.

10 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

11 Just two --

12 THE COURT: Just a moment. Go ahead.

13 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

14 Two issues to raise.

15 The first is the issue that we raised earlier this 16 morning about the remaining anonymity issue. Happy to raise 17 that at this time, if it's appropriate. I don't know if it's 18 coming up soon in cross-examination.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. MOE: But we would prefer to raise that at sidebar
21 because it relates to anonymity.

22 The second issue is the Rule 408 issue I flagged this
23 morning relating to documents we received a few minutes before
24 the beginning of the court day. Happy to front that issue now
25 while we have a break if the Court would like to hear that

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 issue.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

3 MS. MOE: So with respect to the Rule 408 issue,
4 defense counsel has provided the government this morning just 5 before the Court day with a few documents they've marked as 6 exhibits.

7 THE COURT: One moment. Go ahead.

8 MS. MOE: Those two documents are correspondence
9 between Jane's attorney and the victim compensation fund, as 10 well as correspondence from Jane's attorney and Ms. Menninger's
11 law firm.

12 To the extent defense counsel intends to offer these 13 as exhibits, there's a Rule 408 issue here.

14 MS. MENNINGER: I don't, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. MOE: I just want to ensure any questions about 17 this are framed as Jane's knowledge about the litigation and 18 not asking for her to testify about documents that aren't in 19 evidence, that she may not have seen, that are prepared by 20 attorneys. In order to avoid confusion, we want to make sure 21 that any questions about civil litigation are about what she
22 knows or doesn't know. I want to avoid a scenario in which a
23 lay witness is shown legal documents and asked to read them
24 into the record or testify to them beyond the scope of her
25 knowledge.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: So that's not a 408 issue, it's a scope of
2 knowledge issue.

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

4 It's a 408 issue to the extent the questions are about
5 negotiations related to settlements which would only be 6 admissible in order to show bias under the second prong of the 7 rule. And that's where the scope of knowledge issue comes into
8 play, because facts along those lines would only be relevant
9 under Rule 408 if this witness were aware of them. So we just 10 wanted to make sure any examination was cabined along those 11 lines.

12 THE COURT: Ms. Menninger?

13 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, in those two documents,
14 the attorney in a civil matter for this witness demanded sums
15 of money. And there was one in the civil case. He was acting 16 in his capacity, and she was a party in that case, and he was 17 her lawyer. So his statements are adoptive admissions by the 18 party from that case that she was demanding the money that's 19 claimed in that letter. That's the first one.

20 THE COURT: And so what do you expect to do? You
21 expect to ask what?

22 MS. MENNINGER: You were demanding $25 million to 23 settle your civil law claim while Ms. Maxwell was pending in 24 this criminal case, I might add. That's the first one.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So the question is, Were you

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 demanding $25 million in civil litigation while this criminal
2 case was pending?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

6 As long as it's framed in terms of her knowledge; we 7 have no objection to what she knows about or was involved in.

8 What we want to avoid is a scenario where following a
9 question like that, a legal document exchanged between 10 attorneys was then shown to the witness to refresh her
11 recollection, and this witness was asked to read into the 12 record comments her attorney made, which would not be
13 admissible under Rule 408 if she doesn't know about them
14 because they can't speak to her bias if she is not aware of 15 those communications.

16 THE COURT: So just to spin out the question, Were you
17 demanding $25 million during -- in a civil lawsuit while this 18 criminal investigation was pending?

19 I suppose one response would be I don't know, one
20 response is yes, and one response is no.

21 So if the response is yes, you move on?

22 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.

23 THE COURT: If the response is I don't know, what do
24 you do?

25 MS. MENNINGER: Refresh her recollection with her own

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 attorney's letter to my law firm in which he's demanding that
2 and the date of the letter. If she wants to say she doesn't
3 know what her civil attorney is doing acting on her behalf, I
4 guess she could say that.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So if it doesn't refresh her
6 recollection, we move on. And then if the answer is no, what 7 then?

8 MS. MENNINGER: Well, your Honor, that leads to a
9 potential scenario with her attorney being a witness. But I
10 think we would cross that bridge on another day.

11 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

12 The question remains about her knowledge. And again,
13 if we're refreshing this witness's recollection with a document
14 she hasn't seen, I just want to make sure that the question is 15 very precisely framed. Because there have been a number of 16 times already this morning where the witness has been asked to 17 just read the document and has given answers like, I don't 18 know, but I guess that's what this says, which is beyond the 19 scope of refreshing a recollection. So I just want to ensure 20 we're not asking this witness to read into the record hearsay
21 statements of her attorney which she doesn't have knowledge.

22 THE COURT: If she says, I don't know, you can try to 23 refresh her recollection. The question is, Does this refresh
24 your recollection? If the answer is no, we move on. And then
25 you do --

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: We cross bridges that --

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 And if the answer is -- so she says no. And you show
4 it to her and ask if that refreshes her recollection. And if 5 the answer is no, we move on.

6 MS. MENNINGER: The second one, your Honor, is in the 7 victims' compensation program. As your Honor may have seen,
8 she was offered an award. And after that award was offered,
9 her lawyer -- the same lawyer in that proceeding -- wrote
10 basically a motion for reconsideration and said that the award
11 was not appropriate; that it should at least be an eight-figure 12 award. So that delayed the whole -- you know, her decision to 13 join in the -- or to accept the award. And I believe that is,
14 again, an adoptive admission or a statement because he was 15 acting in her capacity as her lawyer in a civil case while this 16 criminal case was pending.

17 THE COURT: So what's the question you'll ask.

18 MS. MENNINGER: They are the same, your Honor. It's 19 essentially, Didn't you get offered an award of $5 million and 20 felt that that was not sufficient? And your attorney, on your 21 behalf, went back to the claims program and asked for an 22 eight-figure settlement instead.

23 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

24 Again, the substance of that testimony would only be 25 relevant under Rule 408. If this witness knows about it and,

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 thus, it's offered about her particular bias --

2 THE COURT: Well, you heard the question.

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Do you object to the question?

5 MS. MOE: We do object to the question. If the 6 question is, Did you seek an increased amount in the settlement
7 award, I have no objection to that. If the question is, Isn't
8 it true your attorney made the following statement, that 9 question is objectionable.

10 THE COURT: Under 408.

11 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

12 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, it goes to bias, her
13 motive to testify in this case, and her bias against my client.

14 THE COURT: Let's start with a more basic issue which 15 no one has briefed, but Manko v. United States, are you
16 familiar?

17 MS. MOE: I'm not, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: 87 F.3d 50 (2d Cir. 1996).

19 I'll quote: "the policy that underlies Rule 408 does 20 not apply to criminal prosecutions. The policy favoring the 21 encouragement of civil settlements sufficient to bar their 22 admission in civil actions is insufficient, in our view, to
23 outweigh the need for accurate determinations in criminal cases
24 where the stakes are higher."

25 Is that good law?

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I'm not -- I take the Court at
2 its word. I'm not familiar --

3 THE COURT: I mean, that's what it says. I'll admit
4 there may be some complications, but I'd like to know the 5 government's position on that.

6 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. We'd be happy to take a
7 quick look into it.

8 THE COURT: It will probably take more than a quick
9 look. It's complicated. That case is in the context of the 10 defense seeking to introduce civil litigation settlement. Is 11 defense aware of this case? Anybody have knowledge? No.

12 Who reads Second Circuit cases?

13 In the context of the defense seeking to introduce,
14 the rule was subsequently amended, there's been no intervening
15 Second Circuit interpretation. The rule is amended because the 16 government wanted some ability to introduce in some context
17 civil settlement matters. So the rule has been changed now, by 18 its terms, at least, not in the case of motive and bias, it
19 does appear to apply in criminal settings. But I don't think
20 that the amendment, which was not -- I don't think that
21 amendment is sufficiently overruling of the Second Circuit
22 decision for me not to be bound by that Second Circuit
23 decision. But you'll, I'm sure, take a look at that issue.

24 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

25 And just to widen the aperture of the issue, what

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 we're talking about is impeachment. And so a statement or an
2 issue of bias that's being offered for impeachment, whether
3 we're talking about a Rule 408 issue or otherwise, is only
4 relevant and permissible if this witness knows about it.

5 THE COURT: I agree there are personal knowledge
6 questions in issue. I did ask you specifically if it was a 408
7 issue, and you said yes. You're on your feet, of course, now,
8 and have to respond to me quoting a Second Circuit decision at 9 you. And, of course, district courts are required to follow
10 Second Circuit precedent even if its intention was subsequent 11 changes in the law, unless and until the case is reconsidered
12 by the Second Circuit sitting en banc or its equivalent or is 13 rejected by a later Supreme Court decision.

14 So I do think there may be a question of the change in 15 the rule and what the scope of that was and whether it
16 overturns the Second Circuit decision such that I'm not bound
17 by it. I doubt it. Separate and apart from that is the 18 question of whether she has personal knowledge of what her
19 attorneys did, right.

20 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: It's not a 408 issue, it's a foundation
22 question, personal knowledge question.

23 Ms. Menninger made an argument that in the civil 24 litigation context, she could be assumed to have adopted the 25 position of her attorneys. I think we do get to that bridge,

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 if we need to cross it, so let's see if there's a memory -- if
2 there's an awareness or not. And if she doesn't know and the 3 answer is no, I think we'll move on until I hear from you as to 4 how it might come in.

5 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

6 And we'll look into the Rule 408 issue. If we have
7 that wrong, we'll certainly withdraw that objection. And I
8 appreciate the Court flagging that.

9 THE COURT: I assume that's why you hadn't raised 408
10 in your motion to quash. In any event, one of the parties
11 raised 408, so we looked at it and that was as far as we got.

12 Anything else?

13 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

14 There was just that brief anonymity.

15 THE COURT: Oh, yes. Let's do that at sidebar.

16 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

17 (Pages 491 to 495 SEALED)

2 THE COURT: Five minutes.

3 (Recess)

4 THE COURT: Matters to take up?

5 MS. MOE: Not from the government, your Honor.

6 MS. MENNINGER: No. Thank you, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: We can bring the witness.

8 And Ms. Williams can bring in the jury.

9 Mr. Everdell, did you get the binders squared away for 10 the jurors?

11 MR. EVERDELL: Your Honor, I did look, and the one
12 juror referenced the letter of recommendation. And those, I
13 think, would have been with the Interlochen applications. And 14 I looked at all of those in both binders, and they look to be 15 complete. I just think that he or she may have missed the 16 page.

17 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

18 So maybe we'll take -- really make sure we're taking 19 time to direct them --

20 (Jury present)

21 THE COURT: All right. We will resume, Ms. Menninger,
22 with your cross-examination of witness Jane.

23 And Jane, I remind you, you are under oath.

24 Go ahead, Ms. Menninger.

25 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

LC1VMAX3

1 BY MS. MENNINGER:

2 Q. Yesterday you testified about the first time you were
3 abused, you claim, by Epstein. Do you recall that testimony?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You said that it occurred in a pool house in Florida;
6 correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. His Palm Beach home; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. The Palm Beach home that you went to, you say, for all
11 three years; correct? Fourteen through 16.

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And the very first time that you were abused would be a
14 very important part of your story, you would agree; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. But when you talked to the government in December of 2019,
17 isn't it true that you told them that the first time you were 18 abused was in New York?

19 A. That is not correct.

20 Q. Isn't it true that you said you were in New York and you
21 were abused when you went up there to take headshots?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. If I could direct your attention to 3509-005 on the second
24 page. It's going to be the second paragraph up from the 25 bottom.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes. And with all due respect, I didn't write any of this
2 and I've never read this document because this is incorrect.

3 Q. So you're denying that you made the statement your first
4 experience of abuse was when you were 14 years old in New York,
5 you met Epstein to take headshots, and that is when he
6 masturbated?

7 A. Yeah, this is incorrect.

8 Q. When you first talked to the government in December of 2019
9 about traveling to New York, you told them that on your first
10 trip nothing inappropriate happened; correct?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. You told the government that your first trip was to just go
13 and have fun; correct?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. If I could direct your attention to your statement from 16 September of 2019, which is 001, at the second page.

17 MS. MOE: And I'd object to characterizing it as her
18 statement.

19 THE COURT: Sustained.

20 MS. MENNINGER: I'm sorry, what? I didn't hear it.

21 MS. MOE: I'd object to characterizing this as her
22 statement. I think the witness has been very clear these are 23 not her statements.

24 MS. MENNINGER: I didn't hear it. I apologize, your 25 Honor.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: I sustain.

2 Q. You spoke with the government in September of 2019;
3 correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 MS. MENNINGER: I apologize. I may be on the wrong
6 page. I'll find that in a minute. And I apologize.

7 Q. If I can direct your attention to a discussion you had with 8 the government in February of 2020, where you told them that 9 the first trip to New York was just to go and have fun. Is 10 that true?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. Okay. If I could have you take a look at 008 on page 8.
13 And it's going to be in the fourth full paragraph.

14 Does that refresh your recollection about what you
15 told the government in February 2020 about your first trip to 16 New York?

17 A. Like I said, with all due respect, I didn't write any of 18 this. I've never read this before. And I was never recorded.
19 This was just somebody jotting down notes, and so a lot of this 20 is out of sequence and incorrect.

21 Q. Does that refresh your recollection about what you told the 22 government about your first trip to New York?

23 A. No.

24 MS. MOE: Asked and answered, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: The answer is no.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 You may proceed.

2 Q. Isn't it true you told the government on that occasion that
3 your first trip to New York was just to go and have fun?

4 MS. MOE: Asked and answered, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Sustained.

6 A. No.

7 THE COURT: I sustained. If I sustain, pause. And 8 then if I overrule, you can answer.

9 Go ahead, Ms. Menninger.

10 BY MS. MENNINGER:

11 Q. And it was later when you were talking to the government in 12 April of 2020 that you said you only specifically recalled one
13 incident in New York where Ghislaine was present; correct?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. If I could have you take a look at 3509-004. Okay. I'm 16 sorry, 3509-003. Excuse me. And it's on the second page in 17 the second full paragraph. If you could look at that second
18 sentence in the second paragraph regarding how many incidents
19 in New York.

20 MS. MOE: And, your Honor, is the question whether 21 that refreshes her recollection or --

22 MS. MENNINGER: Right. I'm having her take a look at 23 it.

24 Q. And does that refresh your recollection?

25 A. What page is this?

LC1VMAX3

1 Q. On page 2. 3509-03, page 2.

2 A. What is the question?

3 Q. Do you recall -- does this refresh your recollection about
4 how many incidents in New York you recall with Ghislaine
5 present?

6 A. I don't think I have the correct page.

7 THE COURT: You're directing to the second full
8 paragraph, second sentence?

9 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor, the second full 10 paragraph on page 2. The paragraph begins with "Maxwell." The 11 second sentence of that paragraph.

12 MS. MOE: I also object as mischaracterizing.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 Q. Did you tell the government that you recall one incident in 15 New York where Maxwell was present?

16 MS. MOE: Same objection, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 A. Well, this one says --

19 THE COURT: Just a second. Go ahead.

20 Q. Did you tell the government you recalled at least one
21 incident in New York where Maxwell was present?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And that's what you relayed to them on that day; correct?

24 MS. MOE: Your Honor, again, I'd object to 25 mischaracterizing these documents. It's very confusing for the

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 witness.

2 THE COURT: You've asked already do you recall having
3 made that statement and the answer, I think, is yes?

4 THE WITNESS: Yeah, for at least --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 Q. You recall at least one incident in New York?

7 THE COURT: Are you asking that as a question of her
8 memory now or are you asking her if she remembers relaying that 9 to the FBI?

10 Q. Yes, do you remember that now?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay.

13 MS. MOE: Your Honor, which was that about, her memory
14 or whether it happened?

15 THE COURT: It was rephrased as about her memory now.

16 Next question, Ms. Menninger.

17 Q. That was a conversation you had in November of 2019 with 18 the government; correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And then by April of 2020, you reported to the government
21 that you were abused 90 percent of the time you traveled with 22 Epstein and Maxwell; correct?

23 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Overruled.

25 A. Correct.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 Q. So you went from nothing inappropriate happened to being
2 abused 90 percent of the time; correct?

3 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor. Mischaracterizes --

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 Q. Has your story changed about how many times you remember
6 abuse over the course of your discussions with the government?

7 A. No, and I didn't understand exactly the question.

8 Q. In September of 2019, when you first met with the 9 government, you told them that you flew with Ghislaine and 10 Epstein to New York to see The Lion King; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. You told them that you flew to New York for the first time
13 with them to see The Lion King; correct?

14 A. I said that, but I was incorrect in my timeline.

15 Q. You said that happened when you were 14, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And that's the trip where you said nothing inappropriate
18 happened; correct?

19 A. I don't recall.

20 Q. And you were, as we've seen, a student of theater and the 21 arts at the time; correct?

22 A. Correct.

23 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

24 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

25 A. Correct.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 Q. A student of the arts would be pretty excited about their
2 first trip to see a Broadway show; correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Especially The Lion King when it came out; correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And it would also be memorable to a young person to have
7 their first trip on a private jet; correct?

8 A. Correct. But, once again, my timeline was wrong.

9 Q. Well, you told them that in September of 2019, right, when 10 you first met with them?

11 A. I did say that, yes.

12 Q. You repeated that same story in December of 2019; correct?

13 A. I don't recall.

14 Q. You repeated that story in February of 2020; correct?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. All right. I'll have you take a look at 3509-005 at 6 to 17 7. I apologize. 001 at page 2.

18 THE COURT: What paragraph?

19 MS. MENNINGER: I'm having a little trouble with my 20 glasses. Just a moment, your Honor. I apologize.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. MENNINGER: Third paragraph, your Honor. Sorry.

23 THE COURT: Third full paragraph?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I apologize. I'm confused.

2 I think the question was about a number of different
3 meetings, but we're now looking at the same notes. I think
4 there's a confusing suggestion that we're talking about --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 BY MS. MENNINGER:

7 Q. The first time that you met with the government, you told
8 them that you were flown to New York by Epstein and Maxwell to 9 see The Lion King, right?

10 MS. MOE: Objection. Asked and answered.

11 THE COURT: Just a moment.

12 Do you need a break?

13 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 (Jury not present)

16 THE COURT: You can be seated.

17 Let me find out what's happening.

18 (Recess)

19 THE COURT: Just to be clear, it looked like a witness
20 was having a coughing issue or sickness or something. That a
21 juror, apologize.

22 (Pause)

23 THE COURT: Happy to report she's fine. She felt like
24 something was stuck in her throat. She's getting some water
25 and a cough drop and we'll resume. The juror, to be clear.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: I've been provided a light by 2 Ms. Sternheim to see.

3 THE COURT: Oh, great. These courtrooms are dark.

4 (Jury present)

5 THE COURT: All right. Everyone please be seated.

6 Okay. Everybody is okay. I know it's always alarming
7 to know you have to travel in a group always, but do let us
8 know if you need anything. Thank you, everyone.

9 Ms. Menninger, you may continue with your cross.

10 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

11 BY MS. MENNINGER:

12 Q. So I think we were talking about in September of 2019 you
13 agreed that you had told the government about flying to New 14 York with Maxwell and Epstein to see The Lion King; correct?

15 A. I did not say that. Incorrect.

16 Q. Okay. If I can show you 3509-001, page 2, third paragraph.

17 A. Yes, I see that. And it's incorrect. This is not a
18 transcript of mine. Nobody ever recorded me saying any of my 19 statements. And I'm reading it right now and a lot of these 20 are not correct.

21 Q. So you did not tell the government in September of 2019
22 that when you were 14 years old, you flew with Epstein and 23 Maxwell to New York City to see The Lion King?

24 A. I flew with them to New York City and I had mistaken that 25 we were going to see The Lion King, but that was a different

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 trip.

2 Q. But you did say it, but you learned later you were wrong;
3 correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. So let's turn to when you learned that you were
6 wrong. Your attorney -- you repeated it a few times though, I
7 guess that's my point?

8 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

9 Q. That was the only time you told the government that you
10 flew to New York to see The Lion King with Epstein and Maxwell?

11 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor, to form. It's an 12 argument, not a question.

13 THE COURT: Overruled.

14 A. No, it's not the only time.

15 Q. You told it to them a couple times before you found out you
16 were wrong, right?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay. Well, let's go to your conversation in February of 19 2020, 008, page 8. And at that time you told the government
20 your first trip to New York was to just go and have fun. It
21 may have been the trip that you went to see The Lion King,
22 right?

23 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor. It's not
24 inconsistent and, again, this is misleading.

25 THE COURT: You can --

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: Refresh?

2 THE COURT: Yes, you can ask if it refreshes.

3 Q. Does reading the second sentence of the fourth paragraph
4 refresh your recollection about what you told the government in
5 February of 2020?

6 A. No.

7 Q. You don't remember saying it then?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Isn't it true what you said to the government in February
10 2020 is that your first trip to New York was to just go and 11 have fun, this may have been the trip to see The Lion King?

12 MS. MOE: Objection. Asked and answered.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 Q. After this meeting in February 2020, your email -- your 15 lawyer was Mr. Glassman at the time; correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Mr. Glassman got an email from a prosecutor,
18 Mr. Rossmiller; correct?

19 MS. MOE: Objection to foundation, your Honor.

20 MS. MENNINGER: I'm not asking the contents.

21 THE COURT: Do you know?

22 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 Q. At some point did your attorney, Mr. Glassman, come to you
25 with a question?

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MOE: Objection. Privileged.

2 THE COURT: Sustained.

3 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, it was communicated to the 4 government, so the privilege had been waived.

5 MS. MOE: Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: He didn't ask -- I sustained.

7 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: The question as phrased, sustained.

9 Q. Do you know whether your attorney ever communicated to the 10 government an answer regarding The Lion King and Broadway?

11 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Good.

13 MS. MENNINGER: I know Ms. Moe would like to come do
14 this for me, but --

15 MS. MOE: I do object to that, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Everybody calm down. The 17 question is not objected to nor objectionable. You may state
18 it again, Ms. Menninger.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. Do you know whether your attorney communicated to the 21 government -- communicated with the government about your 22 experience with The Lion King and going to New York?

23 A. No, I don't know.

24 Q. Could looking at 3509-10 refresh your recollection?

25 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I object.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 The witness testified that she doesn't know, not that
2 she doesn't remember.

3 THE COURT: Overruled.

4 You can ask if this refreshes. This is precisely what
5 we talked through. You can ask if it refreshes her
6 recollection.

7 A. What is the question? Sorry.

8 Q. Does this refresh your recollection about your attorney
9 communicating with the government about The Lion King and 10 Broadway?

11 A. Yes, but it doesn't reference the timeline, if that was the 12 original question. I'm sorry. I'm confused.

13 Q. Is it true that your lawyer communicated to the government
14 your recollection that, in fact, you had seen The Lion King
15 Broadway show and not the movie?

16 A. Oh, yes, I -- we did see the show.

17 Q. And you recalled seeing the Broadway show; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And you recalled sitting in the mezzanine seats; correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And you recalled that Epstein bragged about getting those 22 seats because he knew the director; correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And your attorney communicated all of that to the 25 government; correct?

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And that was in response to a question from the government
3 to you through your attorney; correct?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. That's because the government communicated to you through
6 your attorney that The Lion King didn't come out until 1997;
7 correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. So although you had told the government twice previously
10 that you flew to New York with Maxwell and Epstein when you
11 were 14, you learned that the Broadway show didn't come out
12 until you were 17; correct?

13 A. That's right. But that wasn't the first time that we'd 14 flown.

15 Q. The government suggested to you that perhaps you meant to 16 say The Lion King movie through your attorney to you; correct?

17 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 Q. Did Mr. Glassman share with you the email that he got from 20 the government?

21 MS. MOE: Objection.

22 THE COURT: Sustained.

23 Q. You knew at the time you communicated the information to 24 Mr. Glassman that he intended to share it with the government;
25 correct?

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Sustained.

3 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, that's how we establish a
4 waiver of the privilege.

5 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Sustained.

7 Q. When you first talked to the government about traveling to 8 New Mexico, you told them that you were ignored on that trip;
9 correct?

10 A. I don't recall.

11 Q. You recall telling the government that the first time you
12 went on a private plane to New Mexico, you were not doing much
13 and just sitting around; correct?

14 A. I don't recall.

15 Q. Okay. Look at 3509-008 at page 6, and the second full
16 paragraph, in the middle of the paragraph. Do you recall
17 telling the government that the first time you went to New 18 Mexico on Epstein's plane you were somewhat ignored?

19 A. No, I don't recall.

20 Q. Do you recall that you were told to go hiking?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. Do you recall saying you were not impressed?

23 THE COURT: I need you to clarify. You're again
24 switching between asking if it's a memory now or whether she 25 remembers having said that to the government.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 Q. As you sit here today, do you remember not being impressed
2 when you went to New Mexico for the first time on the private
3 plane?

4 A. I don't recall saying that.

5 Q. No. Do you recall as you sit here today that you were not
6 impressed when you first went to New Mexico on a private plane?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You do not recall any abuse happening when you first went 9 to New Mexico; correct?

10 A. That's not correct, no.

11 Q. That's what you told the government in February of 2020;
12 correct?

13 A. No, that's not correct. Like I said, this is not a 14 transcript of mine. This is the first time I'm reading it and 15 it's not correct.

16 Q. All right. I'm going to direct your attention to 3509-008,
17 page 7, the last full paragraph. Does that refresh your 18 recollection about what you told the government about your 19 first trip to New Mexico?

20 A. No, it doesn't.

21 Q. And isn't it true you told the government in February of 22 2020 that on your first trip to New Mexico, you recalled going
23 hiking, remembered not doing too much, just sitting around 24 mostly, and did not recall specific abuse that may have 25 occurred?

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 A. I don't recall this.

2 Q. Then I would like to direct your attention to the last
3 sentence on that same page, where you were asked again if you
4 recalled any specific abuse that occurred in New Mexico, and
5 then turning to the next page, you stated you were not sure.

6 THE COURT: Do you have a question?

7 Q. Does that refresh your recollection now that you've seen
8 that on the page?

9 A. No, it does not.

10 Q. Isn't it true that's what you said to the government?

11 A. I don't recall saying this.

12 Q. And you also told the government that your memory of the 13 details of that location were not good; correct?

14 A. I don't recall saying that.

15 Q. Okay. If you could look at the top of the second page --
16 I'm sorry, of page 8. Does that refresh your recollection?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Isn't it true you told the government regarding New Mexico
19 the place was dark and you do not recall many of the details of 20 this location? If there was abuse that occurred there, it
21 wouldn't have been a group thing, but she cannot recall -- you
22 cannot recall anything specific?

23 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: What's the question?

25 MS. MENNINGER: Well, I asked her if it refreshed her

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 recollection, she said it did not. Now I'm asking her if she
2 made the statement, and we haven't heard her answer yet.

3 THE COURT: So the question is did you make the
4 statement?

5 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You may answer that.

7 A. No, I don't recall making these statements.

8 Q. Then you were asked the same question by the government in 9 the same interview a third time; correct?

10 A. I don't know.

11 Q. I'm going to ask you to take a look at page 11, the top
12 paragraph, the first sentence. Does that refresh your 13 recollection about you being asked a third time in the same
14 interview about abuse occurring in New Mexico?

15 A. No, it does not.

16 Q. Isn't it true what you told the government a third time was 17 that you were asked about the New Mexico trips you took and if 18 you recalled any specific abuse that occurred there, to which 19 you answered you did not remember; correct?

20 MS. MOE: Objection.

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 Q. It didn't refresh your recollection --

23 THE COURT: You said isn't it true that you told the 24 government a third time that you were asked about the New 25 Mexico trips. I think you lost the thread.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: Okay.

2 Q. Isn't it true you told the government you do not remember
3 any specific abuse that occurred in New Mexico on the trips
4 that you took there?

5 A. I don't recall.

6 Q. And yesterday you testified about an incident in New Mexico
7 that you now specifically remember two years later.

8 A. That's right.

9 Q. Today you remember it; in 2020 you did not.

10 A. I don't recall saying any of what's written here.

11 Q. I'm going to ask you about the homes that you testified you
12 visited for Epstein in the mid 1990s, okay, between the ages of 13 14 and 16.

14 You recall in Palm Beach that you went to a pool
15 house; correct?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And you only went to one house for Epstein in Palm Beach
18 ever; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You remember the whole house in Florida was light-colored 21 and beachy; correct?

22 A. I think so; correct.

23 Q. You remember a winding staircase with pictures on the wall;
24 correct?

25 A. Correct.

LC1VMAX3

Jane - cross

1 Q. You recall a massage room that was attached to the 2 bathroom; correct?

3 A. That's my memory, yes.

4 Q. And that's the description that you gave the government;
5 correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. In New York, you described an eight-story mansion on the 8 Upper East Side; correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You started staying there when you were 14; correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. That's the only home in New York that you visited of 13 Epstein's; correct?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You stayed in some apartments where he did not live;
16 correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you also remember this Latin American driver for

11 A. No, Emmy wasn't around then.

12 Q. Well, you told the government that you do recall Emmy
13 calling your home phone in Florida, right?

14 A. No, I never said that.

15 Q. Let's look at 3509-001 at page 2, in the second full
16 paragraph.

17 A. Yeah, but that's not correct.

18 Q. So it says that you recall Emmy calling your house phone,
19 correct?

20 MS. MOE: Objection.

21 THE COURT: Just a moment. Just a moment. Sustained.

22 Q. Did you tell the -- you're saying that it says it, but it's

24 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. This timeline is not correct. I did not know Emmy or

3 Q. You did not live in a house in New York, correct?

4 A. No.

5 Q. You lived in an apartment, right?

9 did for sure.

10 Q. There was staff present at Mr. Epstein's eight-story
11 mansion, right?

12 A. Yes.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And a driver?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And so all of those people saw you staying in this mansion
20 by yourself as a 14 year old, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You said that Epstein gave you money almost every time that 23 you saw him, right?

6 time, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And your brothers never mentioned anything weird about you

14 Q. You gave the hundreds of dollars to your mother?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Every time?

8 Q. The plaid pants and the Ralph Lauren sweater, right?

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. You claimed that there was a photo of you that Epstein kept

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You don't know whether that photograph was ever found,
14 correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Do you have any records of when you went to the Lion King,
17 like a program?

18 A. No, I don't have really anything from that time of my life.

19 Q. You said that Epstein paid for your acting lessons, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. At a particular studio?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you said that he paid a particular voice coach for you?

24 A. Yes.

8 A. What do you mean by preparations?

9 Q. Trial prep sessions?

10 A. Yes.

16 Q. Where you practiced answering questions like we are now?

17 A. Not practicing, no.

18 Q. Did you rehearse your direct testimony?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. You continued to travel on Mr. Epstein's dime after you
21 escaped in 1999, correct?

22 A. That is not true.

23 Q. Well, you took flights on his private jet after 1999,
24 right?

25 A. Only one.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. Do you remember taking commercial flights that he paid for?

2 A. No.

3 Q. I will have you look at Exhibit J-37 and see if this
4 refreshes your recollection. And the J numbers are behind the 5 green flag.

6 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I think it's going to make
7 more sense for me to come back to this.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 Q. You do recall sending a photograph of yourself to Epstein
10 after you moved to LA, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. That was Government Exhibit 245, right?

13 Where you wrote "Thanks for rocking my world"?

14 A. Yes. Embarrassing.

15 Q. And you wrote that when you were 19?

16 A. 19, yes.

17 Q. You testified yesterday that your mom made you send that to 18 him, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So your mom could clearly corroborate that, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And there were no dates on those photographs, right?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. So it's your recollection about the age you were in those 25 photographs, right?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Right.

2 Q. There's nothing on the photographs themselves?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. And you testified yesterday that Epstein just kept calling
5 you and calling you in the 2000s until you stopped answering
6 his phone calls, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. So there would be phone records of all those calls, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. It took you quite some time to report this to law
11 enforcement, right? We talked about that at the beginning
12 yesterday?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. In the meantime, you got a job on a soap opera, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. You received an income from that job?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You had an agent?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You had a number of family members that lived nearby in the 21 2000s, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And once you had established yourself as an actress with 24 income, you didn't call up the police to let them know what you
25 claimed had happened to you, right?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Right.

2 Q. In the late 2000s, 2007, 2008, you saw on the news that
3 Epstein had been arrested, right?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And charged, right?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. And so you knew the authorities were investigating
8 Mr. Epstein in 2007, 2008, right?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. You didn't pick up the phone then and call the people that 11 you knew were investigating him then, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. You knew how do that, right?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. You knew how to get a lawyer?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. You chose not do that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you started to see some press that mentioned yourself?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And so you did hire a lawyer, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And a lot of the press that you saw mentioned about
24 yourself was false, correct?

25 A. I don't remember what the exact press was.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. Were there allegations that you were a Yugoslavian sex
2 slave that you saw on the internet?

3 MS. MOE: Objection to relevance, your Honor.

4 MS. MENNINGER: I'm asking if she saw the press?

5 THE COURT: I'll allow it.

6 A. I don't remember reading that.

7 Q. You wanted to stop the press about you, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So you hired an attorney?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And that was around 2015?

12 A. Yes, I think so.

13 Q. You hired a litigator, a tough litigator, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You paid her a lot of money?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Quarter of a million dollars?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Do you recall speaking with the government in December of 20 2019?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I'm sorry, got that date wrong. September 2 of 2021, so a
23 few months ago?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. At that time, you said you gave this litigator a quarter of

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 a million dollars?

2 A. No, that is incorrect.

3 Q. Why?

4 A. First of all, I don't have that much money to give away,
5 and it was $25,000. So maybe it's a typo?

6 Q. I'm going to have you look at 3509-023.

7 A. Yeah, I see it.

8 Q. In the last full paragraph in the middle of the paragraph.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Does that refresh your recollection that you told the 11 government you did not know you would need a $250,000 retainer?

12 A. That's not correct because I never said that. I would not 13 be able to afford to pay anybody that much money for anything.

14 Q. Well, you paid her some amount of money?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. $25,000?

17 A. $25,000.

18 Q. And you did that to help her stop the media about you?

19 A. Stop people from harassing me and bullying me into trying
20 to give some sort of interview or statement.

21 Q. Well, you were being approached by lawyers?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Lawyers for Virginia Roberts, for example?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You spoke to them?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You were being approached by the media, right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. The media was wanting you to give statements, right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And you could have directed your lawyer to call the 7 government and report this crime you're claiming now, right?

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. You didn't hire her for that purpose, right?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You could have, right?

12 A. I guess I could have, yeah.

13 Q. In 2019, before Epstein was arrested, you were contacted by 14 Agent Amanda Young, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. She gave you a call?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. She asked to speak with you, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And you said you were just not interested in getting 21 involved, right?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. And then thereafter, you hired a different attorney, right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You hired Mr. Glassman?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Mr. Glassman is a personal injury lawyer, right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Mr. Glassman, touts the very large verdicts that he has
5 received on his web page, correct?

6 MS. MOE: Objection.

7 THE COURT: Grounds.

8 MS. MOE: Hearsay.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 Q. Are you aware of Mr. Glassman's advertising?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you ever look at his website?

13 A. No. He's a friend of a friend.

14 Q. You hired him on September 3 of 2019, correct?

15 A. I don't know the exact date, but --

16 Q. Okay. Let's take a look at J-14. Do you recognize that 17 document?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And what is that document?

20 A. Attorney-client contingent fee contract.

21 Q. That's between you and Mr. Glassman, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. If you could look at the last page, does that refresh your 24 recollection about when you hired Mr. Glassman?

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. When did you hire Mr. Glassman?

2 A. September 3, 2019.

3 Q. That was two weeks before you met with the government for 4 the first time, right?

5 A. I don't know those dates.

6 Q. I want to look back at 3509-001, at the date. Does looking
7 at the left-hand corner of 001 refresh your recollection about
8 the date that you first met with the government?

9 A. It doesn't, but if that's what it says, then --

10 Q. September 19, 2019 seems about right, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. You hired Mr. Glassman before this meeting with the 13 government, right?

14 A. Right.

15 Q. Mr. Glassman was at the first meeting with the government,
16 right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. As well as Mr. Werksman, the second lawyer, right?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. And those were both personal injury lawyers that you had 21 selected?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. You didn't hire a lawyer that specializes in victims'
24 rights, correct?

25 A. I hired a lawyer based on advice from my husband's friend,

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 their friends.

2 Q. He's not a specialist in criminal law, for example?

3 A. I guess not.

4 Q. And you had Mr. Glassman and Mr. Werksman in the first
5 meeting with the government, right?

6 A. Right.

7 MS. MENNINGER: May I have one moment, your Honor?

8 THE COURT: You may.

9 (Pause)

10 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, would this be a good
11 stopping point?

12 THE COURT: We were having a little issue with the 13 jurors' lunch, so not quite yet.

14 MS. MENNINGER: Okay. I'm just trying to find
15 something I can do on a short notice -- a short section.

16 THE COURT: You can just start another section and 17 we'll break, that's fine.

18 MS. MENNINGER: I appreciate that.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. In the period of time between '99 and 2019, there has been
21 a lot of things that have happened, right?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. You have read the press, including stories about yourself,
24 correct?

25 A. Correct.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. You've read the press about Epstein?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. You've talked about the press about Epstein with other
4 people?

5 A. What's that question?

6 Q. You've talked about the press about Epstein with other
7 people?

8 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

9 Q. Well, you had discussions --

10 MS. MENNINGER: I'll rephrase, your Honor. Maybe that 11 will help.

12 Q. You've spoken with your ex-boyfriend you were calling Matt
13 about Epstein, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you and he watched news reports together, correct?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you pieced some things together, correct?

18 A. I pieced things? What's the question? Sorry.

19 Q. You and Matt pieced things together based on your review of 20 press about Epstein, correct?

21 MS. MOE: Objection to form.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 A. I don't understand what pieced together means.

24 Q. You talked to Virginia Roberts' lawyer, Brad Edwards,
25 right?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You talked to Stan Pottinger?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You know they represent other Epstein accusers, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Your lawyer has spoken to other lawyers?

7 MS. MOE: Objection.

8 THE COURT: I suppose you can ask if she knows that.

9 Q. Do you know whether your lawyer has spoken to other lawyers
10 who represent Epstein accusers?

11 A. I wouldn't know that.

12 Q. You've talked to your family members, right?

13 A. Some of them.

14 Q. You've talked to your ex-boyfriend, Matt, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And during that period of time, all of the pieces of 17 information and conversations that you've had are part of what 18 you now know about the Epstein case, correct?

19 MS. MOE: Objection.

20 THE COURT: Just a moment.

21 One word. Grounds.

22 MS. MOE: Form. Vague and confusing.

23 THE COURT: Overruled. You can state the question
24 again.

25 Q. All of the conversations that you've had and the press that

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 you've read and the people that you've talked to, all of those
2 pieces of information go into what you know about the Epstein
3 case as you sit here today, correct?

4 A. I wouldn't say it like that, no.

5 Q. You don't remember all of the things that you've talked
6 about, right?

7 A. No, I don't remember all the things I talked about.

8 Q. You don't remember all the things that you read, correct?

9 A. No.

10 Q. You don't know all of the websites that you've seen, right?

11 A. No, I try to avoid those.

12 Q. But you've read them enough to hire a lawyer to stop some,
13 right?

14 A. No, that's based more on people calling me, harassing me,
15 calling my husband, harassing him, calling my work, calling my 16 friends. And I wanted these people to stop calling me and go
17 away. It's not based on tabloids. I've been in enough online
18 tabloids. Being an actor, you read all kinds of stuff about 19 yourself.

20 Q. You're aware of the media out there about yourself, right?

21 A. Some of it, yeah.

22 Q. During your teenage years, you traveled quite frequently,
23 correct?

24 A. I guess it's all relative, but yeah, I guess.

25 Q. You traveled back and forth to a country in northern

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Europe?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. You did that over the holidays?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. With your family?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. You were 15 when you went on one of those trips?

8 A. I don't remember, but --

9 Q. I will have you take a look at J-6. I assume you have not 10 seen this document before?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Do you recognize your name on it?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And do you see certain dates and --

15 MS. MOE: I'm sorry, your Honor, I don't believe I
16 have J-6.

17 MS. MENNINGER: I thought you did. I'm really sorry.

18 MS. MOE: I'm sorry, I do. Apologies.

19 Q. You recognize your name and date of birth on this document?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And does -- I realize that some of these dates are old, but 22 does looking at this, particularly page 2 towards the bottom,
23 refresh your recollection about trips that you may have taken
24 outside of the country?

25 A. Do I remember these flights? Is that the question?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. Yes, do you remember taking these trips?

2 A. I don't remember these in particular. These are old. I
3 don't know.

4 Q. Let me direct your attention to the second from the bottom
5 one.

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. Do you recognize those airport codes or the dates of travel
8 indicated there?

9 A. I don't know what those airport codes are. If somebody
10 could translate them for me.

11 Q. Let me ask you this: In April of 1996, did you take a trip
12 abroad?

13 A. I don't remember.

14 Q. How old were you in April of 1996?

15 A. 15.

16 Q. And do you remember going abroad when you were 15?

17 A. I don't remember.

18 Q. Did you ever attend a vocal competition in Italy?

19 A. Oh, yes.

20 Q. And that was in April of 1996?

21 A. I guess it was.

22 Q. Was it? I'm asking you.

23 A. I don't remember. I was 15.

24 Q. Okay. And then there was another trip that you took, maybe
25 you'll recall, in June of 1997. How old were you in June of

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 1997?

2 A. 16.

3 Q. Do you remember a trip that you took in June of 1997?

4 A. I think I may remember what trip this was for, something
5 having to do with a sibling.

6 Q. None of these trips involved Ghislaine Maxwell, right?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You didn't travel abroad with her?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And Epstein as well, you didn't travel abroad with him?

11 A. No.

12 Q. So, you may have taken a trip related to a sibling in June
13 of 1997 --

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. -- when you were 16?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then in January of 1998, how old were you?

18 A. 167.

19 Q. And you took a trip perhaps abroad then. Do you recall
20 that?

21 A. January 199 -- maybe a family thing? I don't remember.
22 I'm sorry.

23 Q. And then the last one I'll ask about is April of 1998. Do
24 you remember taking a trip then?

25 A. No, I don't remember what the trip was.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. And how old were you in April of 1998?

2 A. 17.

3 Q. You continued to travel throughout the 2000s abroad. Is 4 that right?

5 A. That's right.

6 Q. When you were in your -- in the mid-1990s, you participated
7 in a beauty pageant, correct?

8 A. Embarrassingly enough, so, yes.

9 Q. A Miss Teen pageant?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. The big one, right?

12 A. Mmm, fairly big.

13 Q. And it was associated with Mr. Trump, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that was in a state that you were in in that time
16 frame, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You were given $2,000 by Epstein for a dress?

19 A. I don't recall that.

20 Q. Do you recall being devastated that Epstein only gave you
21 $2,000 for a dress?

22 A. No, I don't recall that.

23 Q. Or crying because he only gave you $2,000 for a dress?

24 A. No, that's ridiculous. I wouldn't do that.

25 Q. You performed on a reality show, correct?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. In the 2000s?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. With your ex-boyfriend, Matt?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And you had cameras in your home, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You had some conflict with your mother during that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you had other friends who were also on the show?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And the cameras followed you around, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. In that show, you talked about roughing it for you would be 15 going to the Four Seasons, something like that?

16 A. Well, reality shows aren't really reality, so most of it is 17 produced by producers.

18 Q. And you were paid for that reality show, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In the last few decades, you have supported your family,
21 right?

22 A. Not all of them, but a few of them, yes.

23 Q. You have had some of your brothers that have had to live
24 with you?

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. Your sister?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Has never needed financial support from you?

4 A. No.

5 Q. You had your mother living with you, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And she had some financial difficulties, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you needed to help her with her finances, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. I think at one point you claim that you were putting a roof
12 over your family's head, right?

13 A. I don't know if I used that -- those words, but they lived
14 in my house, yes.

15 Q. You told that to Matt?

16 A. Oh, well...

17 Q. Right?

18 A. I don't recall if those are the words I told him, but yes,
19 they were living in my house.

20 Q. And once you hired Mr. Glassman in September of 2019, he 21 talked to you about your decision to cooperate in the criminal
22 case, correct?

23 MS. MOE: Objection.

24 THE COURT: Sustained.

25 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, he shared this with the

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 government. May we have a sidebar?

2 THE COURT: No. If you want to try to get around
3 privilege, you'll raise it in advance, as I've made clear.

4 Sustained.

5 BY MS. MENNINGER:

6 Q. When you decided finally to file a civil lawsuit, that was 7 in January of 2020, right?

8 A. I don't recall the exact date.

9 Q. And you filed that under a pseudonym?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Jane, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you did that with the help of Mr. Glassman?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you sued Ghislaine, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. You sued Epstein's estate, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You also made a claim in the Virgin Islands against 20 Epstein's estate, correct?

21 A. I don't know.

22 Q. At some point you made a demand for Ghislaine to pay you
23 money, correct?

24 A. I don't know what a demand means.

25 Q. Well, your lawyer sent a letter demanding that she pay you

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 money?

2 MS. MOE: Objection to foundation.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 Q. Do you know whether your lawyer sent Ghislaine a letter
5 demanding money?

6 A. I don't know that.

7 Q. You knew at the time you had that civil complaint going,
8 that Ghislaine was charged in this case, correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. You also participated in the Epstein Victims' Compensation
11 Program, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And with your lawyer's assistance, you filled out the claim
14 form for that, right?

15 MS. MOE: Objection.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 Q. Did you fill out the claim form?

18 A. Did I personally? No.

19 Q. Did you sign the claim form?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you notarize your signature for the claim form?

22 A. I don't remember.

23 Q. Did you attest that everything in the claim form that you
24 submitted was true and accurate?

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 Q. In that claim form that you attested was accurate, you were
2 asked whether or not you were participating in the prosecution
3 of any case related to Epstein, right?

4 A. I don't remember what's in the form.

5 Q. If I could have you look at Exhibit J-18 on page 6. And if 6 you need to look at the last page to see your signature, just 7 let us know.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. Do you see question 11?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And it asks you: Have you filed litigation against Epstein
12 or the Estate of Epstein, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Or any related entities or individuals, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. You said yes?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you listed your civil case, correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. But you also said "refer to the attachment"?

21 A. Well, I didn't write this, but --

22 Q. You signed it?

23 A. I signed it, yeah.

24 Q. And then the next question, question 12, you were asked
25 whether or not you'd ever been trafficked to and sexually

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 abused by any individuals other than Epstein, correct?

2 MS. MOE: Your Honor, we're now reading a document
3 that is not in evidence.

4 THE COURT: Sustained.

5 Q. Do you recall answering or telling the claims program that
6 you were making a claim against Ms. Maxwell?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you were ultimately made an offer by the claims
9 program, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you were told what that offer was?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What was that initial offer?

14 A. $5 million.

15 Q. Do you know whether your attorney went back and asked for 16 more money?

17 A. I don't know that.

18 Q. This year you were wired the money, right, $5 million?

19 A. Well, not the entirety, no.

20 Q. I would like to ask you to take a look at Exhibit J-40. Do
21 you recognize this document?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And do you recognize the date of the document?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you recognize your name on the document?

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And on the last page, do you recognize your signature?

3 A. Yes.

4 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, at this time I would move
5 for the admission of this under seal because it has identifying
6 information as Exhibit J-40.

7 MS. MOE: Your Honor, may we take up this issue during
8 the lunch break? We object.

9 THE COURT: Okay. We'll break for lunch, members of 10 the jury. We almost have all your lunches in hand. I'm hoping 11 by the time you get back, everything will be set. So we'll 12 break about 45 minutes for lunch. Enjoy your lunch. Thank 13 you.

14 (Jurors not present)

15 THE COURT: Everyone may be seated. Can I have J-40
16 back up so we can discuss?

17 Grounds.

18 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

19 We have a 401 and 403 objection to this document.
20 This is a multipage document containing legal terms relating to 21 a civil settlement.

22 To the extent the defense intends to impeach this
23 witness about the fact that she settled a claim and received a
24 sum of money, that's already in the record.

25 This document contains additional and, frankly,

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 complicated legal terms about a settlement agreement between
2 this witness and an estate that's not a party to this case. We
3 think this document is confusing to the jury and don't 4 understand any potential impeachment relevance of the 5 particular terms of the settlement.

6 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, it's a representative --
7 it's a documentary representative of the amount of money that
8 she received in the settlement. I don't know what's confusing
9 about that. I am not going to spend a lot of time arguing some 10 legal clauses or anything like that, but I think our jury is 11 sophisticated enough to know what a settlement agreement looks
12 like and the amount of money that she received. She's 13 contesting that that's the amount of money she received, but I
14 don't think that precluding us from putting in a document
15 because it has legal language in it is an appropriate --

16 THE COURT: That's the 403 argument, that it's legal 17 language?

18 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: The government puts in cooperation
20 agreements all the time. Those are not the models of clarity.

21 MS. MOE: Of course, your Honor, and that's certainly 22 true --

23 THE COURT: This is comparable legal language, isn't
24 it?

25 MS. MOE: No, your Honor. I think the difference

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 here, and it's an important one is, as a proponent of the 2 evidence, the defense has the burden of establishing its
3 relevance. At this point what they've articulated is that they
4 want the exact figure that was disbursed, which this witness
5 has already testified to and --

6 THE COURT: It's just a document of that agreement.
7 I'm going to overrule this objection.

8 Anything else?

9 MS. MOE: Your Honor, in our view, this sort of opens
10 the door to a lot of legal issues related to the settlement
11 funds that are not proper before the jury. It's cumulative of 12 the testimony about this particular figure and would be 13 confusing about its particular terms.

14 THE COURT: Yes, that's what I just overruled.

15 MS. MOE: Understood, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Anything else to take up? We'll break for 17 lunch for 45 minutes. Thank you.

18 And, Ms. Menninger, if you have an argument that 19 you're going to pierce attorney-client privilege --

20 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor. Can we take that up
21 right after lunch in a sidebar? I believe I have grounds.

22 THE COURT: You have to speak into the microphone. It
23 should have been briefed. I think that would be clear, but,
24 yes, I'll meet with you in 40 minutes. You'll confer in 25 advance.

LC1Qmax4

Jane - Cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.

2 THE COURT: As to what the contention is, what the
3 proffer is, and then I'll hear from you. 40 minutes.

A F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N

1:50 P.M.

THE COURT: All right. Matters to take up?

MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

May I approach?

THE COURT: Microphone.

MS. MENNINGER: I have one exhibit that relates to the testimony I'd like to --

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Would you come to the --

MS. MENNINGER: Oh, yes.

THE COURT: Take your mask off, if you'd like.

MS. MENNINGER: As with some of the evidence, your Honor, I understand that, when questioned, the witness might deny knowledge about this communication to the government by her attorney, but I would like to ask her if she has knowledge of this communication.

THE COURT: What exact question would you ask?

MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I would ask her did she have a communication from her attorney about why she should cooperate and testify at this criminal trial.

THE COURT: Did she have a communication from her attorney about why she should cooperate and testify at this trial.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: I mean, I could start with the
2 question of does she know whether her attorney shared that with
3 someone else, which is the waiver question, in my mind, anyway.
4 But the ultimate question I would like to get to is her
5 attorney told her that.

6 THE COURT: Right. So you want to get to a
7 communication between attorney and client. It's privileged,
8 right? And you're arguing that it's been waived or what are 9 you arguing?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, I'm arguing that it's been waived
11 because it was communicated to the government.

12 THE COURT: Ms. Moe.

13 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

14 I think that question is a few moves down the 15 chessboard.

16 THE COURT: Could you pull up the microphone, please.

17 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

18 I think there would be no issue with a question about 19 this witness's understanding of whether the outcome of this 20 case would help in a civil case or whether at the time she 21 decided to cooperate with the government and be interviewed she 22 thought that would help her get money in a civil case. That 23 would be just a question about whether she had bias and motive;
24 that wouldn't go to issues of attorney-client privilege about 25 her general understanding. I think the question becomes, if

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 she says no, if a privileged communication with her attorney
2 would be a proper basis for impeachment.

3 On that score, if we get to that scenario, this
4 witness's counsel is in the courtroom. I've conferred with him
5 about the privilege issue. My understanding is his view is 6 this is privileged and he'd like to confer with his client
7 about that. But I think he'd like to be heard on the question
8 of privilege and waiver. It's not the government's privilege
9 to hold or waive or speak to; and so we'd ask for him to be 10 heard on that question.

11 THE COURT: Well, I guess it still depends what we're 12 talking about. What is the "this" in that sentence?

13 MS. MOE: It sounds like, your Honor, if defense
14 counsel plans to impeach this witness about bias by offering a
15 statement of her attorney to the government, that that 16 implicates a privilege question. If separately defense counsel
17 plans to ask this witness just generally --

18 THE COURT: The statement from the attorney to the 19 government is not privileged. This is not privileged. The 20 question goes to her communication with her attorney, that's 21 where the privilege is.

22 MS. MOE: Exactly, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: I'm not yet seeing the connection between 24 what I -- I don't know what the basis of admissibility would be 25 with respect to this email that's been handed up, which is a

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 nonprivileged communication, right, between the attorney and
2 the witness's attorney and the government.

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. That is my note to file
4 about a conversation with Mr. Glassman. In our view, my notes
5 about a conversation with someone who's not this witness can't
6 be an exhibit at the trial. There are separate questions about
7 her conversations with her attorneys that implicates other
8 privilege issues.

9 THE COURT: You don't have any objection to 10 Ms. Menninger asking the witness if she has any awareness of 11 her participation in this criminal proceeding impacting -- what 12 is the underlying question? Let me just get the underlying 13 question before we get -- Ms. Menninger.

14 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, the underlying question is 15 she expected to get a higher payout in her civil case if she 16 testified in and cooperated in this criminal case. That's the 17 ultimate underlying issue.

18 THE COURT: Did she have any basis to believe that by 19 testifying in this criminal case, it would aid the payment she 20 would get in the -- with respect to the fund or the civil case?

21 MS. MENNINGER: Well, they ultimately became as one.
22 But at the time her initial advice from Mr. Glassman came in,
23 there was not a victims' compensation fund. That arose during 24 the course of her civil case. And so --

25 THE COURT: And the line you're interested in is that

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 he mentioned he told her it would help her case?

2 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor. Because prior to
3 that line, he's disclosing that he discussed whether 4 cooperating with the case and then ultimately gets to the 5 question of testifying in the case, he says, were the morally
6 right thing to do. And they had discussed how testifying at 7 trial was the right thing to do. He also mentioned that he had
8 told her it would help her case. It is slightly ambiguous. I
9 don't know if it refers back to the entirety of the things said
10 before it, but that's what the email or the note says.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So you want to ask her if she had 12 any basis to conclude that her participation as a witness here
13 would help her civil litigation recovery prospects.

14 MS. MENNINGER: Right, your Honor. If it were a
15 cooperation agreement and a witness had cooperated and someone 16 had promised that they would get a lesser sentence if they 17 cooperated, I can see that also being admissible. So maybe 18 just the --

19 THE COURT: The attorney's advice to the client about 20 whether they should take a plea and what assistance that might 21 get them and all of that obviously is privileged.

22 MS. MENNINGER: It is, until you disclose it to the 23 government. I totally agree with that, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So then the question is if she 25 answers yes to that question, I had some reason to believe that

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 it would -- it might have some impact -- my participating would
2 have some impact on the civil litigation, do you have 3 additional questions?

4 MS. MENNINGER: May I confer, your Honor?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 (Counsel conferred)

7 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I suppose that there might 8 be additional question -- you know that your lawyer told the 9 government that.

10 THE COURT: So however she answers that, I suppose you
11 want to ask, Do you know that your lawyer told the government
12 that?

13 MS. MENNINGER: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Do you have an objection to the "Do you 15 know that your lawyer told the government that"?

16 MS. MOE: I'm sorry, your Honor. I'm trying to follow
17 the logic of trying to impeach a witness by her knowledge of an 18 attorney's statement to the government about a client's
19 intention. I don't think that tracks the logic of impeachment
20 by bias or by a prior inconsistent statement. I'm not sure how 21 that establishes impeachment under the rule.

22 THE COURT: The fact that she knows her lawyer told
23 the government that.

24 MS. MOE: Your Honor, that appears to be an end-run
25 around getting in her conversations with her attorney. Because

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 the question is, Are you aware that your attorney made a
2 statement to the government about his conversation with you
3 about your expected outcome in the case.

4 THE COURT: Well, okay. At the first step, you agree
5 they can ask if she had any basis to believe that her
6 participation as a witness here would have any impact on her
7 potential compensation in civil litigation. You don't object
8 to that question?

9 MS. MOE: No, your Honor, no objection.

10 THE COURT: So then we have what if she says yes and 11 what if she says no. So if she says yes, their follow-up
12 question is, Are you aware that your attorney told the 13 government that?

14 I think I agree with you. I don't know what the 15 relevance of that is. And it is an attorney-client
16 communication.

17 What's the relevance of whether she knows her attorney
18 told the government that?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I think it gets into her
20 expectations that she -- that the government knows that she 21 knows. And so at that point she's testifying with an 22 expectation that -- you know, if the government doesn't -- is 23 unaware of her attorney's advice, then it's just a secret
24 between her and her attorney. But if the government who is 25 calling her to testify is aware of her plan, intent to get more

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 money by testifying in the criminal case, that can affect, you
2 know, whether or not it's an appropriate -- you know, whether 3 the witness has an expectation that is somewhat colored by the 4 government's plan or putting them on the stand, you know,
5 knowing that. It's an issue of whether the witness is coming
6 and testifying knowing that the person who's calling them to 7 the stand is aware of this whole plan to get more money from 8 the civil case by testifying here.

9 THE COURT: What does that tell us at all about her
10 motivation? The two pieces aren't linking up. There's does 11 she have in her mind that testifying might help her in the 12 civil case. The answer to that is yes. I don't see -- it
13 seems to me it's potentially -- it's attorney-client privilege
14 issues because it's about what her attorney communicated to 15 her. And it's hard to see any additional relevance that comes 16 from whether the fact -- whether the government knew -- whether 17 she knew that the government knew that she believed that -- or 18 testifying would help her civil case, because it doesn't link
19 up to the benefit part.

20 So I think the first question would be fine. If the 21 answer is yes, my inclination is not to allow the second 22 question on both privilege, 401/403 grounds. So then the 23 question is if the answer is no, then what do you propose?

24 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, as with some of the other 25 issues in this case, if she says no, I think that there is

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 evidence that could be put on extrinsically, specifically, her
2 attorney's testimony.

3 THE COURT: So you want to then call her attorney and 4 ask her attorney if he told her, advised her that if she 5 participated in this case, she would -- it would help her in 6 the civil case.

7 MS. MENNINGER: Right. Because that is the only
8 portion that was waived. That's what he -- whatever he 9 communicated to the government is what was waived. I don't
10 think he's waived -- I'm not arguing for subject matter waiver,
11 for example.

12 THE COURT: So, first of all, as I've said before, you
13 have to brief that. This is not enough. I haven't looked at 14 any law on that question. You've put none before me. I made
15 very clear you'd have to brief it. So we're not doing that 16 today.

17 MS. MENNINGER: No, I understand, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, what's your response to the 19 waiver question?

20 MS. MOE: Your Honor, having not had an opportunity to 21 research it or consider it or confer with Mr. Glassman, who --
22 it's not my privilege to hold, so I can't speak to its waiver
23 without researching the issue and conferring with Mr. Glassman.

24 THE COURT: The government not infrequently objects to 25 privilege grounds to questions during trial. So the government

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 certainly has a position, I'm sure.

2 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

3 I would just want to make sure I was conferring with 4 her counsel about that issue and being mindful.

5 Broadly speaking, your Honor, to the extent this
6 evidence is offered for the purpose of impeaching the
7 credibility of the prosecutors in this case, which is what I
8 think what Ms. Menninger was suggesting, I think that would be 9 entirely improper.

10 THE COURT: I think that's, in part, like the 11 mysterious implication of the second question that I said I
12 wouldn't allow.

13 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Because it just doesn't match up to 15 anything in motivating her.

16 So we know where the branch of the tree ends. If the 17 question is yes, that's the end of it. If the question is no,
18 then it sounds like we're done with this witness with that
19 question. And then you're going to brief calling her lawyer
20 only on the question of whether he told the government that her
21 participating -- testifying would help her civil case.

22 MS. MENNINGER: He told her that. No, he told Jane
23 that.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 MS. MENNINGER: Yes. And, your Honor, that would be

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 something to -- I mean would be --

2 THE COURT: It would be waiver argument. You're going
3 to brief waiver as to that on the basis that he told that to
4 the government.

5 MS. MENNINGER: Exactly. The waiver was the telling
6 to the government. The question for him on the stand would be 7 what he told his client. But the briefing would be on the 8 waiver question.

9 THE COURT: Well, right. But whether he waived --
10 whether the privilege -- it's the client's to waive, I think.
11 That will be part of the briefing, I suppose.

12 Okay. But if the answer is no, you don't have 13 anything further for this witness?

14 MS. MENNINGER: I understand, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: That was a question.

16 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, that's right. I understood your
17 Honor to say there is no other question, so I --

18 THE COURT: Well, no, it was a question. If she says
19 no, do you have other questions for her?

20 MS. MENNINGER: On this topic, no.

21 On other topics, yes.

22 THE COURT: Yes, of course.

23 MS. MENNINGER: Okay.

24 THE COURT: I think Ms. Moe had something.

25 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 Just to facilitate clarity with respect to the
2 threshold question here about the witness, about her
3 understanding if the question is phrased as her understanding
4 about testifying at trial today and the effect of a civil case,
5 I think the answer to that question has to be no because there
6 is no civil case, there is no pending claim, it's all been 7 resolved.

8 And so I just wanted to clarify whether the question
9 is at the time she started meeting with the government was that 10 her understanding, while the case was active, or whether the 11 question will be about her testimony here at trial.

12 Jane has testified on direct that her understanding is 13 she has no financial stake in the outcome of this case. The 14 civil matter is resolved and the verdict in this case won't
15 affect what she's received from those settlements. And so I
16 just wanted to clarify in terms of how that question is phrased
17 and what we're getting at about the issue about testifying at 18 trial or her initial decision to cooperate with the government.

19 THE COURT: Fair enough.

20 MS. MENNINGER: That's fair.

21 In the paragraph itself it refers to cooperating with 22 the case and it refers to testifying. So I think any reason to 23 believe either one of those --

24 THE COURT: Can you just give us the specific 25 question.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 MS. MENNINGER: Do you have any basis to believe --
2 any reason to believe that your cooperation would help with
3 this case, would help you with your civil case, that's one
4 question.

5 The other is do you have any reason --

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I don't think that
7 clarifies -- I think it's unclarifying on two points that
8 Ms. Moe has raised.

9 MS. MENNINGER: Okay.

10 THE COURT: One, cooperating in this case, meaning by 11 testifying or more broadly. And two, since she no longer has a
12 pending civil case, I think she'd probably be left wondering
13 what you're referring to.

14 Can you clarify the question -- I think what you're 15 asking is at any point during your -- at any point in your 16 cooperation with the government -- "cooperation" is loaded
17 because it's not like there's a cooperation agreement or 18 something. But for lack of a better term, cooperating with the 19 government with respect to this criminal case, did you ever
20 have an understanding that it might benefit you in what was 21 then a pending civil litigation?

22 Ms. Moe, is that getting at what you're suggesting?

23 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. I just wanted to make sure
24 it was clear for the witness.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 MS. MOE: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Menninger, is that getting at what you
3 are suggesting?

4 MS. MENNINGER: It is. I believe that he also
5 communicated that testifying would benefit her in the criminal
6 case.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MS. MENNINGER: And so I'm not privy to whether, you
9 know, at what point in time --

10 THE COURT: How about did you ever have an 11 understanding that any cooperation with the government,
12 including testifying in this trial, would aid you in any way in 13 your efforts to recover in the then-pending civil litigation?
14 Does that get at it, Ms. Menninger? I'm not disputing that you
15 should ask the question. I agree with Ms. Moe there's points
16 for confusion, so let's just --

17 MS. MENNINGER: I think it does, your Honor.

18 I would have to kind of -- I would like to just write
19 out the question so I understand. But I do think, as I
20 mentioned a little bit earlier, because the civil litigation
21 morphed into the victims' comp fund, there may be a similar 22 question with respect to the comp fund. But I think I can 23 draft this language and we could -- I can tell your Honor what 24 it is in just a minute.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 (Pause)

2 THE COURT: What else do we need to take up?

3 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I'm not quite sure about the 4 timing for the length of cross, but I did want to just remind
5 the Court that the next witness raises the prior consistent
6 statements issues we discussed at the conclusion of the Court
7 day yesterday.

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry, that what?

9 MS. MOE: That the next witness we anticipate calling
10 would be the witness identified as Matt. And so just wanted to 11 tee up any issues relating to prior consistent statements.

12 THE COURT: I think where we left it was that, as 13 Ms. Sternheim said, we'll evaluate when you seek to introduce a
14 prior consistent statement whether, in fact, it's consistent
15 and whether they have attacked the veracity of that and, if 16 not, you won't object.

17 MS. STERNHEIM: Right.

18 THE COURT: And if they do object, I'll decide.

19 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

20 I just wanted to clear that in advance.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Okay. What do you have, Ms. Menninger?

23 MS. MENNINGER: Under the authority of Rule 611(c), I
24 have redrafted it into a leading question, if that's 25 permissible, your Honor. And what I would ask is --

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 THE COURT: It's cross, so --

2 MS. MENNINGER: Right. Why not?

3 -- you knew that cooperating with the government,
4 including testifying, would benefit you in your civil
5 litigation against the Estate of Epstein and Ms. Maxwell? And 6 then the same question with respect to the victims'
7 compensation fund.

8 THE COURT: I'll never win this argument with a
9 lawyer, but I always think it's a better question just to ask
10 them did you know. But you do you.

11 Okay. Any objection to that question?

12 MS. MOE: No, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And the same formed question with respect
14 to the victim compensation fund?

15 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Good.

17 Anything else we can take up? And if not --

18 MS. MOE: Your Honor, if possible, it would be helpful
19 to have a sense of timing for the duration of cross for timing
20 of next witnesses.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Menninger?

22 You took your foot off the gas for about the last half
23 an hour there. Was that because you were looking forward to 24 have some time during lunch or --

25 MS. MENNINGER: No, your Honor. I have low blood

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 sugar. Sorry. I did revive myself with a Diet Coke.

2 Your Honor, I think I would estimate about 45 minutes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And then, Ms. Moe, do you
4 anticipate substantial redirect?

5 MS. MOE: I do anticipate redirect, but I don't 6 anticipate it being lengthy.

7 THE COURT: Okay. We have a plan.

8 I think we can get the jury.

9 And we can bring the witness back up please.

10 (Witness present)

11 (Jury present)

12 THE COURT: Thank you for your patience, members of 13 the jury. I hope you had a nice lunch. And we will continue
14 with the cross-examination of Witness Jane.

15 Jane, I remind you you are under oath.

16 Ms. Menninger, you may continue.

17 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

18 JANE, resumed.

19 BY MS. MENNINGER:

20 Q. I want to go back to something I needed to skip earlier. I
21 was asking you about whether or not you had traveled on Jeffrey
22 Epstein's expense commercially after you moved to Los Angeles.
23 And I started to show you Exhibit J-37, so I'd like to do that
24 and go to page 13, about three-quarters of the way down.

25 See if you recognize your name.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the date associated with your name?

3 A. 4/17/2000.

4 Q. And the amount?

5 A. $343.

6 Q. Does that refresh your recollection that you were -- a trip
7 was paid for you in April of 2000 for $343?

8 A. No, it doesn't.

9 Q. Do you think that looking at other pages of your travel
10 would refresh your recollection?

11 MS. MOE: Objection.

12 MS. MENNINGER: If the answer is no, I'm planning on 13 moving on, your Honor. I can show other ones.

14 THE COURT: Is there anything that would refresh your 15 recollection?

16 THE WITNESS: No.

17 Q. We were talking a little bit earlier about your decision to 18 testify in this case and cooperate with this case. You met
19 with the government, I think we established, ten or more times
20 over the last couple of years. Is that fair?

21 A. Something like that.

22 Q. And in each of those meetings, you had your attorney with 23 you or the vast majority of those meetings?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Your attorneys are Mr. Glassman and Mr. Werksman, right?

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. Mr. Glassman.

2 Q. At any point during your cooperation with the government,
3 including testifying, you knew that your cooperation with the 4 government, including testifying, would benefit you in your
5 civil litigation against the Epstein estate and Ms. Maxwell;
6 correct?

7 A. No, I don't know that.

8 Q. You knew that cooperation with the government, including
9 testifying, would benefit you in your claim for the victims'
10 compensation fund; correct?

11 A. No, I don't know that.

12 Q. Yesterday, you testified a bit about your inability to 13 speak with your mother about what happened -- you say happened
14 between you and Epstein; correct?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. You testified that you and your mother did not have that 17 kind of relationship, right?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. You testified that you were raised in a household where you
20 would be in trouble if you said something, right?

21 A. Said something about what? Can you clarify?

22 Q. Something personal.

23 A. Something, yeah, that personal, yes.

24 Q. And the effect on you is you felt you could not tell your 25 mother about Epstein, right?

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You told the jury about an incident with your guidance
3 counsellor, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Where you got in trouble --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- for telling the guidance counsellor that your mother was 8 unavailable and unsupportive, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So when you were in high school and you were mine, you
11 didn't feel like your mother would get your back if you told 12 her about Epstein's misconduct, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And your mother would not want you to report that to 15 others, right?

16 A. Right.

17 Q. I want to ask you about another incident that happened when 18 you were at the Palm Beach School of the Arts. Do you remember
19 a time when you claim a teacher pulled your hair?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. You recall telling your mother about the teacher pulling
22 your hair?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You recall your mother hiring a lawyer for you?

25 A. I don't know that.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 Q. You recall you and your mother filing a lawsuit against
2 your teacher?

3 A. I didn't know that.

4 Q. I'd like to show you a couple of exhibits. They've been
5 marked for identification purposes as J-7 and J-9.

6 I'd like to show you what's been marked for 7 identification purposes, this J-7, second page. Does that 8 refresh your recollection that you sued your teacher for 9 pulling your hair on one occasion?

10 A. No, I had no idea my mother did this.

11 Q. I'm going to show you Exhibit J-10 -- I apologize, J-9.

12 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, we have the original of 13 this document present in the courtroom. This one is redacted
14 for the name, but, if it's necessary, may I approach the 15 witness?

16 THE COURT: Show it to the government.

17 Ms. Menninger.

18 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, what we have is an
19 original of a document that was certified. It's been marked --
20 those two pieces have been marked J-8 and J-9. But they are 21 combined as originals from the Court; it is one document.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MS. MENNINGER: So I wanted the record to be clear
24 what I would be showing the witness.

25 THE COURT: You're showing her a combination of J-8

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 and J-9.

2 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor, that are unredacted.

3 THE COURT: Yes. Without objection, Ms. Moe?

4 MS. MOE: No objection, your Honor.

5 THE WITNESS: Okay.

6 BY MS. MENNINGER:

7 Q. Does looking at that document refresh your recollection
8 about a lawsuit that you and your mother filed against your 9 teacher?

10 A. No, I literally had no idea she did this.

11 Q. You recognize the name of the teacher --

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. -- as the same person who was on your Interlochen
14 application we looked at earlier; correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. MOE: Objection, your Honor. We're now testifying
17 about documents not in evidence.

18 THE COURT: That's true.

19 I'll allow that question and then you're not going to 20 do more. You asked if it refreshed her recollection. The 21 answer is clearly -- is no. She's answered the same way.

22 So let's go.

23 MS. MENNINGER: I'm a little unclear, your Honor. And 24 I don't know if we need a sidebar, because there are two other
25 names that -- without my saying them out loud to ask her if she

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 remembers who those persons are.

2 THE COURT: Well, so you want to point her somewhere
3 in the document and say, Do you recognize a name?

4 MS. MENNINGER: If I could -- I'll try to do it
5 without naming the names because I don't know if that's a
6 problem.

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MS. MENNINGER: But on J-7, on the second page, they 9 are in the first paragraph. And I'm just going to direct the 10 witness to that line so that we can see the names.

11 BY MS. MENNINGER:

12 Q. Do you recognize the names of the persons in that first
13 paragraph?

14 A. I remember my teacher, I remember the principal. I don't 15 remember the guidance counsellor.

16 Q. And do you know whether you and your mother sued the 17 principal of your high school?

18 A. No, I don't. And we're friends on Facebook, so I had no
19 idea that we even had an issue.

20 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, at this time I would offer
21 into evidence the originals of the document that is a combined
22 document of Exhibits J-8 and J-9. I think the Court can take 23 judicial notice. They are certified copies.

24 THE COURT: You're moving J-8 and J-9?

25 MS. MENNINGER: Well, in the combined original exhibit

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MS. MOE: I object, your Honor, both on relevance and 4 foundation grounds.

5 THE COURT: I'll take a look at the document and then
6 we'll move on.

7 MS. MENNINGER: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Can I have the witness's copy?

9 Go ahead.

10 MS. MENNINGER: Thank you, your Honor.

12 Q. You consider yourself an actor?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. An actor plays the role of a fictional character --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. -- for a living?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. An actor endeavors to effectively communicate the character
19 they are playing to an audience?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Using their voice, body, actions, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. An actor takes lines borrowed from a writer and uses those 24 lines to convincingly portray someone else in front of an 25 audience; correct?

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Been an actor for a very long time?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Since middle school?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You performed numerous times as a teenager?

7 A. More singing than acting, but yes.

8 Q. You traveled away from school to perform?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You performed around the state?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You competed internationally?

13 A. This was all singing though, but yes.

14 Q. What?

15 A. This was all singing, but yes.

16 Q. You performed at a number of different venues?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You received coverage in the local newspapers; correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Before you began your senior year of high school, you had a
21 professional agent?

22 A. Somewhere in the senior year, yes.

23 Q. Before your senior year.

24 A. I don't recall if it was before or during.

25 MS. MENNINGER: If we could show the witness

LC1VMAX5

2 THE COURT: It's been admitted?

3 MS. MENNINGER: Not yet, your Honor. I was just going
4 to use it to refresh. I believe there's a witness coming
5 today.

6 Q. Do you recognize that document?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You do?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what is it?

11 A. Well, I actually don't -- can you go back to the first 12 page? I recognize that I wrote this. I don't know what the 13 document is.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. Okay. Yes.

16 Q. And you see the date on there?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And that was before you were a senior?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And then if you go to page 4, you listed your agent;
21 correct?

22 A. Actually, that was a manager, that's why it was -- I didn't
23 remember. I had a manager, not an agent.

24 Q. But you got an agent in your senior year?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 Q. You got a manager and an agent by your senior year?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. And you moved to New York for the purpose of 4 going to that high school here; correct?

5 A. Not to go to that high school. The high school wasn't a
6 performing arts school; it just was a private school.

7 Q. Professional Children's School?

8 A. Yes. It was for kids who were seeking professions in --
9 entertainment professions. And if they booked a job, then the 10 school would work with them of sending them homework, but we 11 didn't do any arts in that school.

12 Q. I see. Thank you for that clarification.

13 And you did have work in your senior year; correct?

14 A. I did not, actually, not till after I graduated.

15 Q. Okay. You don't remember any school notes in which they 16 commented that you had been missing a lot of school because of 17 your work in your first quarter at that school?

18 A. They might have written those notes that I was working, but 19 I was not working.

20 Q. That you were working, but you weren't?

21 A. No, I was skipping school.

22 Q. Later in your -- after your senior year, you got this job
23 in Los Angeles, right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you moved to Los Angeles to work on the soap opera?

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you recently commemorated 20 --

3 A. -- something years, yes.

4 Q. Twenty-something years on that show.

5 A soap opera is characterized by tangled interpersonal
6 situations, fair enough?

7 A. It's a very eloquent way to put it, I guess.

8 Q. And melodramatic are sentimental treatment of those
9 interpersonal situations, right?

10 A. Hopefully, not melodramatic, just dramatic.

11 Q. Your character has been involved in a number of different
12 plot lines over those 20-something years, fair?

13 A. Naturally, yes.

14 Q. You've played a protective mom?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You've been bullied?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You've battled cancer?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You've played a car crash victim?

21 A. I forgot about that one, but yes.

22 Q. Mental health issues?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You've been stalked by serial killers?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX5

1 Q. You played a prostitute?

2 A. Not my favorite storyline.

3 Q. You ran a restaurant?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You took down a Mexican drug cartel?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Essentially, there's no melodramatic role that you haven't
8 played?

9 A. If you want to call it melodramatic. I just say dramatic,
10 but yeah.

11 Q. It involves a significant amount of drama; correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You're able to cry on command?

14 A. No, not always. It's not really how it works.

15 Q. You express pain through your characters?

16 A. Yeah, of course.

17 Q. Vulnerability?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. The job you've trained for for a long time, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You've been hired to work on other TV shows and series,
22 right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. A feature-length movie?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX5

1 Q. Christmas specials, a wide range, right?

2 A. No Christmas special yet, I don't think, but yeah.

3 Q. You had a reality show we talked about a little while ago?

4 A. Unfortunately, yes.

5 Q. Which was not real?

6 A. No, it's not real.

7 Q. Your accusations in this case depend significantly on 8 you -- your memory that you were 14 when you met Epstein;
9 correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. You repeated it a number of times on the stand, right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Well, actually, when you first met with the government, you
14 told them that you were 13 when you met Epstein, right?

15 A. No, I said I might have been 13 going on 14; because my 16 birthday is in August, and I believe I met them earlier in the 17 summer. So it was just a small technicality, I guess.

18 Q. Well, in your civil complaint in the first paragraph, you
19 said it all started in 1994, when 13-year-old Jane met Epstein
20 and Maxwell; correct?

21 A. Correct. I was 13 in June and July.

22 Q. You didn't say "13, going on 14."

23 A. I don't know. I don't know.

24 Q. Okay. Do you want to take a look at 3509-007, paragraph 1.

25 A. Okay.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 Q. And there you just said you were 13, right?

2 A. It says there that I'm 13, yeah.

3 Q. And that was what was filed by your attorney in court?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you told the government 13, but later they refreshed
6 your memory that maybe you were 14, right?

7 A. No, I always from the beginning said 13, but I turned 14
8 that summer.

9 Q. Okay. I'll have you take a look at 3509-008, page 11. And 10 looking at that, do you recall the government asking you --

11 THE COURT: Where?

12 MS. MENNINGER: I apologize. The second from the --
13 second full paragraph from the bottom up.

14 Q. Does that refresh your recollection about a conversation
15 you had with the government?

16 A. No, because I didn't write any of this. The second half of 17 that makes sense, which is I was probably 13. And it says here
18 that I turned 14 that summer.

19 Q. So you were not asked if it was possible that you met
20 Epstein after you turned 14?

21 A. I don't remember.

22 Q. But I understand now you're saying you believe you were 14
23 because it was later in the summer, right?

24 A. What was later in the summer?

25 Q. When you met Epstein.

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. No, I said it was earlier in the summer.

2 Q. Okay. So you thought you met him earlier in the summer?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And then we talked about The Lion King, where you thought
5 you were 14 when you saw the Broadway show, but then realized
6 you were not; correct?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. It actually came out when you were 17; correct?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Now, you recall meeting Mike Wallace of 60 Minutes fame in 11 New York, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you believed that you were 15 when you met him?

14 A. I don't remember.

15 Q. You met him with Epstein, I should clarify, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And your first meeting with the government -- I'll have you
18 look at 3509-001 on page 5 in the middle of the page.

19 A. I see it.

20 Q. And you told the government about meeting Mike Wallace?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And that was Mike Wallace's 80th birthday party; correct?

23 A. I think so.

24 Q. And you came in and said happy birthday to Mr. Wallace;
25 correct?

LC1VMAX5

Jane - cross

1 A. I sang Happy Birthday, yes.

2 Q. And that's when you were 15?

3 A. I'm not sure. That's why it says approximately. I
4 couldn't remember, and I don't know how old Mike Wallace was 5 when --

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. -- is now or he's passed away.

8 Q. He has passed away.

9 A. Passed away.

10 Q. You recall it being his 80th birthday party though;
11 correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you don't know what his birthday is, I think you
14 just said; correct?

15 A. No, I don't know.

16 Q. If I can have you take a look at J-33, on the right side.
17 Do you have any reason to believe that that birthday is 18 incorrect?

19 MS. MOE: Objection.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 Q. Does it refresh your recollection?

22 MS. MOE: Objection.

23 THE COURT: Sustained. No basis for refreshing.

24 Q. It's true that Mike Wallace's birthday party, 80th birthday
25 party, was in May of 1998; correct?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. You moved to New York in or around 1998, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you went to your senior year here from '98 to '99?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What you put in your civil complaint is that you moved to 12 New York in 1996 to go to school here; correct?

13 A. I don't remember saying that.

14 Q. Let's go back to 3509-007, paragraph 20. And in your civil 15 complaint, you alleged that you moved to New York in 1996 when 16 you were 16; correct?

17 A. No, I don't think I said that, because I didn't move to New 18 York then.

19 Q. Do you want to look at the first page of this?

20 A. No, I -- I know. I know what it is.

21 Q. You know your lawyer signed it?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Do you recall answering any questions under oath?

2 A. I don't see a date.

6 interrogatories, right?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. And interrogatory number nine, if I could have you turn to

17 MS. MOE: Objection.

18 THE COURT: Are you moving this?

19 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor, this interrogatory.

20 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I think the record is that this

10 Q. Since we were just talking about Defendant's Exhibits J-15,
11 I just want to be clear, do you recognize this document?

12 A. I don't have a document in front of me. Which one, this 13 last one?

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. No.

16 Q. Did you write this?

17 A. No.

18 MS. MOE: Your Honor, may I proceed?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MS. MOE: Thank you.

21 Q. Jane, you were asked questions on cross-examination about
22 your meetings with the government. Do you remember being asked
23 about that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And you were asked about your meetings with me. Do you

LC1Qmax6

1 remember being asked about that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you were asked about whether in your meetings with the 4 government you were asked about the questions that I was going
5 to ask you on direct examination. Do you remember being asked
6 about that?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Did I or any other prosecutor ever tell you what to say on 9 the witness stand at this trial?

10 A. No.

11 Q. What did we tell you to do?

12 A. Just tell the truth.

13 Q. Has anyone told you what to say at this trial?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You were asked some questions on cross-examination about 16 notes of meetings with the government. Do you remember being 17 asked about that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. I want to ask you about your meetings with the government.
20 When you met with the FBI and the government, did you cover
21 every detail of your entire relationship with Maxwell and
22 Epstein in every meeting with the government, or did you talk
23 about different topics at different times at different
24 meetings?

25 A. Different topics, different times, different meetings.

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 Q. Did you take any notes during the meetings?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Who took the notes?

4 A. I don't know.

5 Q. Did you have any opportunity to review any notes or reports
6 of any meetings for accuracy?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And before Ms. Menninger showed you some notes during your 9 cross-examination, had you ever seen any of that before?

10 A. No.

11 Q. In your conversations with prosecutors, were there times
12 when we asked you about additional details of your experiences
13 in followup meetings?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did we discuss every topic at every meeting?

16 A. No.

17 Q. I want to back up and ask you about your first meetings
18 with the government.

19 Can you explain for the jury, was it difficult to talk
20 to the government in your first meetings?

21 A. Yes, absolutely.

22 Q. Why was that difficult?

23 A. Because I was sitting in a room full of strangers and 24 telling them the most shameful, deepest secrets that I'd been 25 carrying around with me my whole life.

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 Q. In those first meetings, were you able to share with the
2 government all of the details of what had happened to you?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Why was that?

5 A. Because it was too difficult, too difficult emotionally,
6 too difficult on every level.

7 Q. Over time, did you become more comfortable sharing the 8 details about what happened to you with the government?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Why was that?

11 A. Because I guess I became more familiar with the people
12 sitting in front of me, and starting to feel like I could trust
13 them, and it didn't feel quite as embarrassing.

14 Q. Did there come a point in your meetings with the government
15 where fewer people were in the room?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And did you have an understanding at the time about why in 18 your meetings with the government there started to be fewer 19 people in the room?

20 A. I believe it was to make me more comfortable.

21 Q. And how did you feel once you started having meetings with 22 the government with fewer people in the room?

23 A. It started feeling easier.

24 Q. I want to ask you about your last few meetings with the 25 government leading up to the trial. During those meetings in

LC1Qmax6

1 the last few months, was your attorney present?

2 A. No.

3 Q. In general, who was in the room?

4 A. Just me and you guys.

5 Q. You were asked some questions on cross-examination about
6 your living situation when you were in middle school and high
7 school living in Palm Beach. Do you remember those questions?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. So I just want to ask you about where you were living at 10 the time. In the summer of 1994, when you first met Maxwell
11 and Epstein, where were you living?

12 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Leading, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

14 A. That summer we were still living on Palma Way at my 15 mother's friend, Joan, in her pool house in her back yard, and 16 we -- when we came home from camp that summer, we were still 17 living in that place.

18 Q. Did your family struggle financially during the years that 19 you were in high school?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Was there ever a time when you and your brothers had a hard
22 time paying for lunch at school?

23 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, your Honor. 403.

24 THE COURT: Overruled. You may answer.

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax6

1 Q. Can you tell the jury what you remember about that?

2 A. I mean, I remember my mother never had any money. She
3 didn't work, so she didn't have money to really pay for 4 anything. We had food stamps that she refused to use because
5 her pride was too big, and she would sort of, you know,
6 scrounge for quarters, and sometimes I would give my brothers
7 my lunch money and pretend like I had some so that they could 8 eat.

9 Q. Did your family's financial circumstances improve after you
10 met Maxwell and Epstein?

11 A. But -- no.

12 Q. Did Jeffrey Epstein help your family financially?

13 A. In some ways, yes.

14 Q. Can you describe for the jury the ways that Jeffrey Epstein
15 helped your family financially?

16 A. Well, he -- he handed me cash. He gave us a computer. He 17 paid for some school stuff. He -- he paid for Interlochen Arts
18 Camp for the next two summers. He paid for my younger
19 brother's Interlochen Arts Academy his entire year at boarding
20 school. Gave us gifts. And, you know, so on and so forth.

21 Q. Did there come a time when your family moved out of the 22 pool house?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And where did you move to?

25 A. That's when we moved to that second house that was first

LC1Qmax6

1 discussed, that three-bedroom house. My sister was the one who
2 rented it for us.

3 Q. Approximately when did you move out of the pool house and
4 into the three-bedroom house?

5 A. We moved out of the pool house in, I think, spring of '96.
6 Wait. Sorry. I'm tired. The spring of '95. Sorry.

7 Q. Do you recall being asked some questions on 8 cross-examination about whether you traveled internationally
9 when you were in high school?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Just to be clear, did those trips have anything to do with 12 Maxwell and Epstein?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Without discussing any specifics about your family members,
15 do you have some family members who live abroad?

16 A. Yes, that's -- the country that we would travel to, that's 17 where we were from, and any time those dates that were 18 discussed earlier, that would be a family trip home.

19 Q. Do you recall being asked on cross-examination questions
20 about whether you had ever talked to a reporter?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you were asked about whether you made a statement to a
23 tabloid about what had happened to you with Jeffrey Epstein.

24 Do you remember being asked about that?

25 A. Yes.

LC1Qmax6

6 MS. MOE: I'm happy to rephrase, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 Q. When you had that conversation with the reporter, did you
9 want to have that conversation?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Why did you agree to speak to that reporter?

12 A. Because he basically blackmailed me.

13 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, your Honor. Hearsay.

14 THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

15 A. He said that he -- that court documents with my name on it
16 were unredacted, and that the Epstein's little black book was 17 out, and my name was in it, and he was going to print --

18 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, your Honor. Hearsay.

19 THE COURT: We'll limit what the witness has testified
20 to as not being offered for the truth of what was stated by 21 someone else but the effect on the listener.

22 And let's re-narrow the question.

23 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. May I ask a leading 24 question to navigate through this?

25 THE COURT: Let me hear the question.

1 Q. When you spoke with that reporter, did that reporter
2 threaten to reveal your identity publicly if you wouldn't speak
3 with him?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Is that why you spoke with the reporter?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Did you make an agreement with the reporter in order to 8 make sure your identity wasn't revealed?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And what was that agreement?

11 A. The agreement was to briefly discuss only how I had met
12 Jeffrey Epstein.

13 Q. And in exchange for doing that, what did the reporter agree
14 to do?

15 A. He promised to keep my name anonymous.

16 Q. Did the reporter keep your name anonymous?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Was that important to you at the time?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Why was that so important to you?

21 A. It was important because I was -- I was scared. I was 22 embarrassed, ashamed. I didn't want anybody to know any of 23 this about me. I wanted to stay out of it. I -- I'm working 24 on a TV show, and I didn't want everybody to know that that was 25 me and associate me with any of this, and so I desperately did

1 whatever I had to do to make sure that he didn't reveal my
2 name.

3 Q. What were you scared of?

4 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, your Honor. Asked and 5 answered.

6 THE COURT: Sustained.

7 Q. Approximately how long was that conversation with the 8 reporter?

9 A. I don't remember.

10 Q. Was it in person?

11 A. No. It was in my car on the side of the road with my phone
12 plugged in.

13 Q. Was that a phone conversation or an in-person conversation
14 in your car?

15 A. Just a phone conversation.

16 Q. Was it a detailed conversation?

17 A. I tried to make it not so detailed.

18 Q. You were asked some questions on cross-examination about 19 your attorney, Robert Glassman. Do you remember those 20 questions?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Can you just explain for the jury without getting into any 23 privileged conversations, how did you find this attorney?

24 A. He was a referral. Actually, he's friends with my 25 husband's best friend, and I met with him, and I just liked

LC1Qmax6

1 him.

2 Q. You were asked some questions on cross-examination about
3 your applications for admission to Interlochen. Do you
4 remember those questions?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. I'd like to just ask you a few questions about those 7 particular applications.

8 A. Okay.

9 MS. MOE: If I could just have a moment, I'm going to 10 grab a copy of them.

11 Your Honor, I'd ask for permission for the witness and 12 the jurors to view Defendant's Exhibit J-3 which I believe is in 13 evidence under seal.

14 THE COURT: Let me just verify. Yes.

15 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor. May the jurors turn
16 to that in their binders?

17 Ms. Menninger, without objection?

18 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Jurors, you may pick up your binder and 20 turn to J-3, correct?

21 Q. Jane, do you have that up in front of you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Just to be clear, what we're talking about is Defendant's
24 Exhibit J-3, your application for admission to Interlochen for 25 the summer of 1994?

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. How old were you when you applied to go to Interlochen in 3 1994?

4 A. 13.

5 Q. I want to ask you about a few things on this application.
6 But when I do, I just want to be careful we are not reading
7 anything into the record that's identifying about you.

8 If we could turn to the second page of that
9 application, and directing your attention to the second section
10 towards the bottom, do you remember Ms. Menninger asking you
11 questions about whether you told Interlochen you were having 12 any difficulties?

13 A. I don't remember.

14 Q. Let me just be clear about this portion of the application.
15 I want to direct your attention to the portion of the middle 16 section that says: List two difficult works performed in 17 orchestra, band or ensemble within the past year. Do you see
18 that question?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that the question you answered: Nothing has been 21 difficult for me?

22 A. I guess I did.

23 Q. And what did you mean when you said that?

24 A. I have no idea.

25 Q. At the time, were you fairly talented?

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 A. Yes, and very cocky, apparently.

2 Q. Just to be clear, nowhere in this application did you say
3 you weren't having any difficulties at home, right?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Were you having difficulties at home during this time?

6 A. Absolutely, yes.

7 Q. You were asked some questions about the recommendation
8 letters in your applications to Interlochen. Do you remember
9 those questions?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you were asked about whether your recommenders talked 12 about your family in a favorable light. Do you remember those 13 questions?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The people who you asked to recommend you for Interlochen,
16 did they know what was going on in your house at home?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Why was that?

19 A. Because we were very good at hiding what was going on at 20 home, and these recommendation letters are basically just from 21 our school teachers.

22 Q. I want to ask you one last question about this application.
23 If you could turn back to the first page of Defendant's Exhibit
24 J-3. And I want to focus your attention at the top section
25 with applicant information. You see a few lines down, there's

4 Defendant's Exhibit J-3 in the top header, the very first top
5 of the document under applicant information, do you see about
6 five lines down underneath the names of your siblings, the line
7 there?

8 A. Yes. Yes. Sorry.

9 Q. In your application, did you have to list your height and 10 weight?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And how tall were you when you were going to summer camp
13 that summer?

14 A. Five-two.

15 Q. How many pounds did you weigh?

16 A. 90.

17 Q. What grade were you in?

18 A. Seventh grade.

19 Q. I want to ask you about the next year you went to 20 Interlochen. If you could turn to --

21 MS. MOE: I'd ask for permission for the jurors to 22 turn to Defendant's Exhibit J-4 which is in evidence under 23 seal.

24 THE COURT: Without objection, you may.

25 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

6 section about the applicant information?

7 A. Mmm-hmm.

8 Q. Directing your attention to that same line, by the next
9 year in 1995, how tall were you by then?

10 A. It says I was five-four.

11 MS. MENNINGER: Objection, your Honor. It misstates
12 the date on the document. The date on the document is not what 13 was just represented by counsel.

14 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, go ahead.

15 BY MS. MOE:

16 Q. In your application for the next year at summer camp, how

18 A. It says I was five-four.

19 Q. You'd grown two inches?

20 A. I don't know, I may have been fibbing.

21 Q. What grade were you in by then?

22 A. Eighth grade.

6 Q. And did you recognize that document as your application to 7 the Professional Children's School?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you recognize the handwriting on that document?

10 A. Is it here? Can I see it or --

11 Q. That's all right. I can move on.

12 A. Okay.

13 Q. You were asked some questions on cross-examination about 14 your career as an actor. Do you remember being asked about 15 that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Do you know the difference between acting on television and 18 testifying in court?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. What's the difference?

21 A. Acting on television is not real, and testifying in court
22 is real, is the truth.

23 Q. Are you acting here today?

24 A. No.

25 Q. What are you here to do?

5 happen and to hopefully find some peace and healing some day.

6 Q. I want to ask you a few more questions about the summer of 7 1994. About how many weeks were you at summer camp that 8 summer?

9 A. Eight weeks.

10 Q. Were there weeks when you were at summer camp that summer
11 when you were 13?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Were there weeks when you were in summer camp that summer
14 when you were 14?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is your birthday in the summer?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you remember which week of summer camp you met Ghislaine
19 Maxwell and Jeffrey Epstein?

20 A. No.

21 Q. How strong is your memory of meeting Ghislaine Maxwell and
22 Jeffrey Epstein at summer camp in 1994?

23 A. Pretty strong.

24 Q. Why is that memory pretty strong?

25 A. Because it was the beginning of when my life would change

6 penis?

7 A. 14.

8 Q. Can you describe for the jury how you touched his penis
9 when you were 14?

10 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, this exceeds the scope of 11 cross. I didn't ask this question.

12 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I believe there were questions
13 on cross-examination about whether she remembers details how 14 strong those memories are.

15 THE COURT: Overruled.

16 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: You may answer.

18 A. I mean, how do you touch a penis, you put your hand around
19 it?

20 Q. And what would you do when you touched his penis when you

1 A. Well, the first time was Ghislaine.

2 Q. Why does that stand out to you in your memory?

4 like fun, casual relationship I had with her just changed.

5 Q. When you say the first time, when you talk about first
6 times, what do you mean by that?

7 A. Meaning that the first time I was ever like unclothed with 8 just the both of them.

9 Q. You were asked a lot of questions on cross-examination
10 about first and first times. Do you remember those questions?

11 A. I think so.

12 Q. Fair to say there were a lot of firsts for you when you
13 were 14 and 15 and 16 with Maxwell and Epstein?

14 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Leading, your Honor.

24 remember being asked on cross-examination about that?

25 A. Yes.

5 Q. Jane, in your own words, can you tell the jury what that
6 money meant to you?

7 A. Sorry.

8 Q. It's all right. Take your time.

9 A. I mean, it -- oh, I wish I would have never received that 10 money in the first place because of what happened. You know,
11 when you're seeking some sort of closure, and I guess in, you
12 know, laws in this country, compensation is the only thing you
13 can get to try to move on with your life and for the, you know,
14 pain and abuse and suffering that I received, and all the 15 out-of-pocket money I paid to try to make this go away and to 16 try to fix myself.

17 MS. MENNINGER: Objection. Narrative, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 A. So, you know, hopefully this just puts it all to an end,
20 and I can move on with my life.

21 Q. Do you have any financial stake in the outcome of this
22 trial?

24 MS. MOE: Nothing further, your Honor.

6 mid-afternoon break. Your snacks are here. We will break for 7 about 15 minutes. Thank you.

8 (Jurors not present)

9 THE COURT: You may be seated.

10 Matters to take up before the break?

11 MS. MOE: Not from the government, your Honor.

12 MS. STERNHEIM: I have a matter, Judge. I believe the 13 next witness is Matt, whose issue was teed up yesterday. In 14 advance of his testimony, just to make sure that it is 15 compliant with the Federal Rules of Evidence, I would request
16 that the government give a proffer of what he is going to say,
17 as there are things in his 3500 material that did not come out
18 on direct examination, and it would be improper for him to be 19 able to testify as to things that are not prior consistent
20 statements.

21 THE COURT: There are things in his 3500 material that 22 the previous witness said to him --

23 MS. STERNHEIM: Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- that were not asked about of the 25 witness.

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 MS. STERNHEIM: Right.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Can you confer?

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: During the break?

5 MS. STERNHEIM: Of course.

6 THE COURT: Great. I appreciate you raising it, and
7 let me know if there's disagreement. Thank you.

8 MS. STERNHEIM: Will do.

9 THE COURT: We'll break for ten.

10 (Recess)

11 (Jurors not present)

12 THE COURT: Matters to take up?

13 MS. MOE: Not from the government your Honor.

14 MS. STERNHEIM: Just very briefly, Judge. I did have 15 an opportunity to confer with Ms. Moe. I just want to state
16 for the record, with regard to the introduction of prior
17 consistent statements, it is my understanding that there needs
18 to be a similar exactitude as one would have with prior
19 inconsistent statements, and I understand that the government
20 is offering their next witness, Matt, to establish the fact
21 that there was some colloquy discussion between Matt and Jane
22 at an earlier time before this. I have no problem with that.

23 The issue is that, at least in the 3500 material, the 24 statements that Matt made are not -- they don't dovetail
25 entirely with what went on on the direct examination. One

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 example would be, his 3500 material is that she said that
2 Ms. Maxwell brought girls. There was no testimony to that.

3 There was testimony that there were women, but not
4 that she brought them. There was testimony of her presence,
5 but not necessarily that she told the group that everything
6 would be okay.

7 That's the kind of statements that are in the 3500
8 material. And I have addressed this with Ms. Moe. We're not 9 entirely sure how it will come out, but it isn't a prior 10 consistent statement. There is a prior conversation or 11 discussion, but the statements themselves are not consistent.

12 THE COURT: Ms. Moe.

13 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I believe the Court's ruling on 14 this is that we would evaluate the statements as they come out
15 through the witness. And as a preview, after conferring with 16 Ms. Sternheim on this issue, we did confer with Matt and asked
17 him about what he recalls, specifically about the woman he 18 recalls Jane telling him. Again, it's always difficult to 19 predict the precise testimony of a lay witness, but my general
20 expectation is that he would explain that in conversations with 21 Jane, she explained that there was a woman at the house who
22 made her feel comfortable; that sometimes there was that woman
23 at the house, sometimes there were girls; and so that made her
24 feel comfortable in the house.

25 I don't expect that the testimony would go beyond

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 that, but again, we're talking about a number of conversations
2 during this time period. That's my current expectation. But I
3 think with respect to I think some of the granular issues, the 4 difference between woman and girls, I think, especially in this
5 context is not so different that it would not be a prior
6 consistent statement. And beyond that, your Honor, we think
7 this tracks the rule.

8 MS. STERNHEIM: Judge, I disagree. The distinction
9 between a girl and a woman is precisely what this case is 10 about, and she was very clear that she felt like she was the 11 only one. The other people were women.

12 THE COURT: She said she didn't know what their ages
13 were.

14 MS. STERNHEIM: She didn't know their ages, but she 15 did not refer to them as girls.

16 THE COURT: But wasn't the recent testimony, I think 17 it was on cross, which was: Were there underage girls. And 18 she said, "I wouldn't know the ages."

19 MS. STERNHEIM: That's fine, but to call them girls
20 connotes that they are minors, and that parlays right into the 21 government's theory of the case, and they're bringing it out
22 through a witness whose sole purpose is substantiated prior 23 consistent statement, and that is not consistent with the 24 testimony that we've heard.

25 If he wants to say there were prior women, I can't

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 make objection to that, but I do object to the term girls, and
2 I do object to other aspects of his 3500 material insofar as 3 there was no testimony, and this witness should not be used to 4 supplant what the primary witness did not testify about.

5 THE COURT: I agree with you on that distinction.
6 This witness can't testify as a prior consistent statement that
7 Jane told him that there were -- I mean, there's ambiguity in 8 the term, but I think since the witness couldn't testify if 9 they were underage or not, I can't allow the witness to make
10 that as an implication since that implication wouldn't be 11 consistent with the testimony.

12 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. I think on this point, to 13 be clear, the government doesn't intend to argue in closing
14 that the jury must infer from the evidence that there were 15 underage girls in the room because of Matt's testimony. I
16 think it is, unfortunately, common that often women above the 17 age of 18 are referred to as girls. That's how he remembers
18 it.

19 I would be happy to lead him through that testimony,
20 if the Court would prefer, and use the term females. It's not 21 our intention to elicit the testimony to suggest anything in 22 particular about the ages of those folks, but that's how he 23 remembers it, and that's the word he uses.

24 THE COURT: Why don't you -- I'll let you lead, but 25 why don't you just say other people, or something like that.

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 MS. MOE: If I ask him about that, I do expect he
2 would say, yes, other girls. And so I think unless it's a
3 leading question, I just want to front that in order to avoid
4 creating an issue there.

5 THE COURT: Yes. Well, lead, and that way I don't 6 have to strike the testimony as not a prior consistent
7 statement.

8 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. If the Court authorizes us
9 to lead, I think we can navigate through this area.

10 THE COURT: Ms. Sternheim, okay if she leads through 11 this portion?

12 MS. STERNHEIM: I have no problem with that, Judge,
13 but if the witness on his own sua sponte says girls, I will be 14 objecting to that. I cannot rely on what they are going to do
15 or not do in closing.

16 THE COURT: I agree with that. That's why I said --

17 MS. STERNHEIM: That's fine.

18 THE COURT: -- I will let Ms. Moe lead so I don't have 19 to strike that testimony. I think we are in agreement that if 20 he were to testify that she told her that there were girls, the 21 implication would be underage; that implication wouldn't be a
22 prior consistent statement, and so I wouldn't allow that 23 implication to stay with the jury.

24 MS. STERNHEIM: I understand, and I thank you for 25 that. But the other part would be there was no testimony on

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 direct that Ms. Maxwell brought women. There were women there
2 but not that she brought them, and I think that Ms. Menninger
3 cleared that up on cross-examination as well.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. MOE: Your Honor, particularly, if I'm permitted
6 to ask leading questions, I wouldn't expect to ask that
7 particular question.

8 THE COURT: Okay. You won't ask it, it sounds like.

9 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

10 MS. STERNHEIM: Thank you Judge.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anything else?

12 MS. MOE: Your Honor, very briefly, I just wanted to 13 clarify because I believe in briefing the subject of prior 14 consistent statements, defense counsel had raised the prospect
15 of recall of the witness. So I just wanted to make sure in 16 terms of our contacts with Jane, we had clarity on that status.

17 THE COURT: Yes. And I didn't hear it from anyone on 18 the 615 issue on the timing that I said, so I assumed you
19 worked that out, correct?

20 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes, your Honor. Our understanding is 21 that none of the witnesses who are testifying as victims are 22 intending to observe any of the trial until at least both sides
23 have rested, which we've conveyed to the defense, and we 24 understand there would be no objection to that.

25 THE COURT: So then the open question is might there

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 be recall that would prohibit the government from conferring
2 with a witness who's completed their testimony?

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor. We just wanted to navigate
4 that, otherwise I think we would make arrangements for Jane to 5 travel home to her family today. And so if we wanted to make 6 those arrangements, we will need to be in touch with her to 7 make those arrangements, otherwise not planning to have
8 substantive communications, but I wanted to be very transparent
9 and candid about those contacts and just the state-of-play on 10 this issue.

11 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, my recollection is that 12 there was a second witness who was going to be offering prior
13 consistent statements for Jane.

14 MS. MOE: That's correct, your Honor. I think our 15 preference would be for Jane to be permitted to leave the 16 district, but if we can be in touch with her about the 17 possibility of a need for recall after today, if there are 18 additional prior consistent statements, we can navigate it that 19 way. Otherwise, Jane would have to remain in the district for 20 I think potentially a long time.

21 MS. MENNINGER: I have no objection to that, your 22 Honor. I do have one clarifying question, which is, while not 23 observing the trial in the courtroom, there is certainly
24 substantial coverage of the trial including relaying witnesses'
25 testimony. So I don't know whether that has been clarified

LC1Qmax6

Jane - Redirect

1 with the witness that not just sitting in the overflow room,
2 but we're not reading media about it either.

3 THE COURT: I'm sure you all discussed this when I
4 raised the 615 issue weeks ago, right? Maybe it surprised you
5 there's media coverage.

6 Why don't you talk -- I am going to bring in the jury,
7 so you'll talk about it and let me know if you disagree.

8 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Bring in the jury.

10 I'm sorry. Two administrative matters before we bring
11 in the jury. I admitted J-8 and 9.

12 MS. MENNINGER: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And to be clear, that needs to be admitted
14 under seal because it has specific identifying information of a
15 witness whom I've permitted to testify under a pseudonym.

16 Tell me if that's true for J-15 as well.

17 MS. MENNINGER: Your Honor, I believe that was a
18 pleading that was filed under a pseudonym. I can check it
19 certainly to be sure and confer with the government. We'll 20 check it one more time, your Honor --

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. MENNINGER: -- and confer.

23 And then as for 8 and 9, we were going to put 8 and 9
24 on the sticker, make copies to replace in the binder.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So confer and let me know if J-15

1 needs to be admitted under seal.

2 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor. We'll review the 3 transcript from today and confer about exhibits and their
4 status under seal.

5 THE COURT: And then, to be clear, the next witness
6 I'm permitting to testify under a pseudonym to protect the 7 identity of the prior witness.

8 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And so I guess consistent with that,
10 sketch artists should not draw an exact likeness of the next
11 witness who will also be testifying under a pseudonym.

12 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Now we can bring in the jury.

14 (Jury present)

15 THE COURT: Please take your seats as you come in.
16 Everyone may be seated. Thank you, members of the jury.

17 Ms. Moe the government may call its next witness.

18 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor. The government calls
19 a witness identified as Matt.

20 THE COURT: The witness identified as Matt may come
21 forward.

22 MATT,

23 called as a witness by the Government,
24 having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

25 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, you may begin your direct

2 MS. MOE: Thank you your Honor is the Court's order

4 THE COURT: It is.

5 MS. MOE: Thank you.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. MOE:

8 Q. Good afternoon.

9 A. Good afternoon.

10 Q. Are you testifying under the name Matt today?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Are you using a pseudonym in order to protect the privacy
13 of the person you are going to be testifying about today?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. I'd like you to just take a look at the witness stand.
16 There's a folder in front of you. Would you mind just taking a
17 look at that document. And that is what's marked for 18 identification as Government Exhibit 17?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Without saying what's on the document, do you recognize
21 that?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. What is that?

24 A. It's my driver's license.

25 Q. Is that your true name?

LC1Qmax6

Matt - Direct

1 A. Yes, it is.

2 MS. MOE: Your Honor, the government offers Government
3 Exhibit 12 under seal.

4 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

5 THE COURT: Without objection, GX-12 is admitted under 6 seal to protect the identity of the witness who I permitted to 7 testify under a pseudonym.

8 MS. MOE: Apologies, your Honor. My colleagues just 9 alerted me it's Government Exhibit 17, not 12. I misspoke.

10 THE COURT: Or I did. GX-17. Thank you.

11 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

12 (Government's Exhibit 17 received in evidence under 13 seal)

14 MS. MOE: May the jurors now view that exhibit in 15 their binders?

16 THE COURT: Without objection, Ms. Sternheim.

17 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Jurors may pick up your binders and look
19 at Exhibit GX-17, please. Large binder, GX-17. Thank you.

20 BY MS. MOE:

21 Q. Now that the jurors are there, just to be clear, on 22 Government Exhibit 17, is that your true name?

23 A. Yes, that is.

24 Q. Is that your driver's license?

25 A. Yes, that is.

LC1Qmax6

Matt - Direct

1 Q. For today's purposes --

2 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, can you come closer to the mic?

3 Q. For today's purposes, we'll be referring to you as Matt.

4 Is that okay?

5 A. Yes, that's okay.

6 Q. All right. If the jurors could keep their binders for a
7 moment up, we'll turn to another exhibit in a moment. Let me
8 pause here and just ask you, Matt, how far did you go in 9 school?

10 A. High school.

11 Q. What kind of work do you do now?

12 A. I'm an actor.

13 Q. Do you work on a television show?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Are you employed full time as an actor in a television
16 show?

17 A. Yes, I am.

18 Q. For how many years have you been employed full time as an 19 actor?

20 A. I'd say on and off for the last 15 years.

21 Q. And if you could please take a look at the binder in front
22 of you, and take a look at Government Exhibit 12, which is in 23 evidence and under seal. Do you have Government Exhibit 12 in 24 that folder?

25 A. Yes, I do.

LC1Qmax6

Matt - Direct

1 Q. I would ask that the jurors please turn to Government
2 Exhibits 12 in their binder, which is in evidence and under
3 seal.

4 THE COURT: Without objection, Ms. Sternheim?

5 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

6 THE COURT: You may look at GX-12, please.

7 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor.

8 Q. Focusing on Government Exhibit 12, I want to direct your 9 attention to the top left corner of that document. Without 10 saying her name, do you recognize the person listed on that 11 birth certificate?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. For today's purposes, we're going to refer to that person
14 as Jane. Will you do that?

15 A. Yes.

16 MS. MOE: Thank you, your Honor. I think that's all
17 we need for the binders today?

18 THE COURT: Okay. Put the binders away.

19 Q. Now that we know who we're talking about, I want to ask you
20 some questions about Jane. How do you know Jane?

21 A. She's my ex-girlfriend.

22 Q. Approximately what year did you first meet Jane?

23 A. First time was 2002 and the second time was 2006.

2 Q. Did there come a time when you were in a romantic
3 relationship with Jane?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. During approximately what years were you in a romantic
6 relationship with Jane?

7 A. 2006 till 2014, approximately.

8 Q. During those years, did you live together?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. What years did you live together?

11 A. 2007 till 2014.

12 Q. Did you keep in touch with Jane after you broke up?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What's the nature of your current relationship with Jane?

15 A. We're friends.

16 Q. Have you had a professional relationship with Jane?

17 A. Yes, I have.

18 Q. What's the nature of your professional relationship with 19 Jane?

20 A. Jane and I, we work on the same TV show.

21 Q. During the years that you lived with Jane, did you get to 22 know some of her family members?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. Were there times when Jane would talk to you about what her
25 home life was like when she was growing up?

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Let me just take a step back and ask you some questions
3 about how that topic came up. In general, how would the topic
4 of Jane's home life come up during the course of your 5 relationship?

6 A. There's different aspects of the home life, but just most 7 likely, I would say, getting to know her family and getting to 8 know the relationships between her and her siblings and her
9 mother and the struggles that she went through.

10 Q. During the years that you were dating Jane, did she tell
11 you about what her home life was like when she was a kid?

12 A. Yes, she did.

13 Q. What did she tell you about that?

14 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

15 THE COURT: Do you want a more specific question?

16 MS. STERNHEIM: Well, that is hearsay. That is not 17 the basis of this witness's testimony.

18 MS. MOE: Your Honor, it's both the foundation for a
19 prior consistent statement and a prior consistent statement
20 itself.

21 THE COURT: In light of cross, I think that's right,
22 but I'll hear you if --

23 MS. STERNHEIM: If I may be heard briefly.

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 (Continued on next page)

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 (At sidebar)

2 THE COURT: We discussed this yesterday, didn't we?

3 MS. STERNHEIM: Judge, the witness is going to talk
4 about home life. It's not the subject matter of his testimony,
5 it's whether she revealed to him at a time earlier than meeting
6 with the government allegations concerning Ms. Maxwell.

7 THE COURT: Well, but Ms. Menninger crossed on the 8 veracity of her poverty and financial situation growing up and 9 the relationship with her mother, and I assume that's where 10 we're going.

11 MS. STERNHEIM: I think the government -- I don't
12 think that's the issue here. The issue is whether she stated
13 at sometime earlier that she was abused.

14 THE COURT: Well, that's true. But you've put in 15 issue her credibility about everything. Why did you cross her
16 on whether she grew up poor?

17 MS. STERNHEIM: Because they raised it. They raised
18 the fact that she lived in a pool house. The witness testified
19 under oath that she lost her home after her father died. I
20 don't think that's the issue --

21 THE COURT: So you've attacked her credibility on 22 that. You said her credibility on everything is an issue. You
23 specifically attacked her credibility on that. Why can't it
24 come in as a prior consistent -- you're saying this witness can 25 only testify about --

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 MS. STERNHEIM: Judge, if that was the case, then
2 anytime a witness is on the stand who spoke about their home
3 life, you could bring a witness in? I've never seen that
4 before. I understand the subject matter with regard to the 5 allegations in this case.

6 THE COURT: Right. For sure.

7 MS. STERNHEIM: But prior consistent, my father died,
8 I don't think that we're contesting that her father died.

9 THE COURT: Right. But you contested whether she grew
10 up poor, whether she had a relationship with her mother that 11 wouldn't allow her to -- you put all of those things at issue;
12 made a strong point that every inconsistency is an issue
13 because her credibility is central. Good for the goose, good
14 for the gander.

15 MS. STERNHEIM: No, that would mean they could pull
16 anyone she was involved with to support the fact that she had a
17 difficult --

18 THE COURT: What is the nature of your objection? So
19 that this witness -- I mean, either it's a prior consistent
20 statement or it's not. I don't understand -- so under the Rule
21 801(b)(3), right, that's the evidentiary objection. You
22 attacked her credibility on what she testified about her home
23 life. What is the evidentiary objection? Relevance? 403?
24 Tell me.

25 MS. STERNHEIM: Judge, it seems like we're going to

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 have a witness here who's just going to testify about
2 everything he knew about her because he was in a relationship
3 with her and --

4 THE COURT: No, I won't allow everything that he knew
5 about her. I will allow issues that you specifically spent
6 time on cross-examination.

7 MS. STERNHEIM: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Attacking her credibility.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Moe, I'll ask you to rephrase, to 3 narrow the question.

4 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

5 BY MS. MOE:

6 Q. Matt, were there times when Jane would talk to you about
7 her family's financial circumstances when she was growing up?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What did she tell you about that?

10 A. She told me that when her father got sick, that her mother
11 spent basically all of the money that they had for his 12 treatments, and obviously hoping that he would survive. And he 13 didn't. And basically she -- that she was the one who left
14 them broke.

15 Q. And did Jane tell you what her family's financial 16 circumstances were like after her father passed away?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What did she tell you about that?

19 A. That they basically had no money. The mother was working a 20 small job. And I think she said at one point the three of 21 the -- that her and her two brothers were sleeping in the same
22 bed at one point because they were living in such a small
23 place, and the three of them had to sleep in the same bed.

24 Q. Did there come a time when Jane told you how she was able 25 to pay for things when she was a kid?

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 A. Yes, she did.

2 Q. Approximately what year was it when this conversation came
3 up?

4 A. It's probably 2006, 2007, when we -- when we first started
5 dating, just getting to know each other.

6 Q. What did Jane tell you during that conversation about how
7 she was able to pay for things when she was a kid?

8 A. She said her mom had a job that paid basically nothing; and 9 that she had it -- it was like a godfather, an uncle, a family
10 friend type person that basically helped her mom pay the bills.

11 Q. Is this something Jane discussed with you once or more than 12 once during the course of your relationship?

13 A. More than once.

14 Q. During the conversations with Jane about this godfather
15 figure, did you come to learn the name of the uncle figure or 16 godfather figure?

17 A. Yes, I did.

18 Q. What did she tell you his name was?

19 A. His name is Jeffrey Epstein.

20 Q. In general, when Jane would talk with you about her
21 experiences with Jeffrey Epstein, how would that topic come up?

22 A. First it was purely that he was -- you know, that he was a
23 godfather and, you know, he was looking out for her family.

24 And then the topic came up when she came to me when --
25 I think it was in two thousand -- like 2009, she was contacted,

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 I think, by the FBI to see if she would tell her story, if she
2 had a story.

3 And she came to me and she said, I need to tell you
4 something.

5 And I said, Yeah.

6 And she said, You know the godfather that I told you
7 about, the person that was helping my family?

8 And I said, Yes, I do.

9 And she said, I need you to know that this is who it
10 is.

11 And it was public news.

12 And that's when I said, That guy is your godfather?
13 That's the guy that was helping you pay your bills and your 14 family's bills?

15 And she said, Yes.

16 Q. Did Jane tell you when she met Jeffrey Epstein?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What did Jane tell you about when she met Jeffrey Epstein?

19 A. She told me she met him shortly after --

20 THE COURT: Just a minute. Just a minute.

21 THE WITNESS: Sorry.

22 THE COURT: More specific question.

23 MS. MOE: Your Honor, I can lay some additional 24 foundation for that and return to it later, if that's 25 acceptable.

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 THE COURT: Okay. And then you'll ask it as a more
2 specific question.

3 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 BY MS. MOE:

6 Q. Did there ever come a time when Jane explained to you why
7 it was that she received financial help from Jeffrey Epstein?

8 A. Yes, she did.

9 Q. Approximately when did she tell you about that?

10 A. When -- when the -- when she told me who it was, when she 11 told me the name of the person and --

12 Q. What did Jane tell you about why it was that she received
13 this money from Jeffrey Epstein?

14 A. Well, once -- once I learned who it was, I asked her if she 15 was one of the girls, and she said that she was.

16 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

17 THE COURT: I'll sustain the objection.

18 The jury will disregard the last statement of the 19 witness. And you'll ask a specific question, Ms. Moe.

20 BY MS. MOE:

21 Q. Did Jane tell you what happened between her and Jeffrey
22 Epstein during the years that she knew him?

23 A. Not specifically.

24 Q. Did there come a time when she told you why it was that
25 Jeffrey Epstein gave her money?

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. What did she tell you about that?

3 A. Well, I was the one that asked her, based on after finding
4 out who it was, I asked her if she was doing that for the 5 money.

6 Q. What did she tell you she was doing for the money?

7 A. She said it wasn't --

8 THE COURT: Just a minute. Just a minute.

9 Sustained.

10 Q. In your conversations with Jane about Jeffrey Epstein, did
11 there come a time when she told you that she had to do things
12 she didn't want to do?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What did she tell you about that?

15 A. She never went into detail; she just said it wasn't free.

16 Q. Did she ever use any particular words to describe the 17 things that she had to do with Jeffrey Epstein?

18 A. Nothing specific. No specific words.

19 Q. In your conversations with her, did she ever use the word
20 "massage"?

21 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection. Leading.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 I'll allow it. You may answer.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What did she tell you about that?

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 A. I think it was only because of the fact that it was public
2 knowledge, and that was as far as she would ever let me go into
3 the -- into the -- what happened, what she did.

4 Q. Okay. But focusing on her statements to you, what did she
5 tell you about massage?

6 A. Just that was it, that -- basically, that was it.

7 Q. Did Jane ever tell you how old she was when she had to do
8 things with Jeffrey Epstein?

9 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

10 A. Yes.

11 THE COURT: Overruled.

12 Q. And what did Jane tell you about how old she was when she 13 had to do things with Jeffrey Epstein?

14 A. She said that it started at 14, when she met him.

15 Q. Did she tell you where she met him?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What did she tell you about that?

18 A. She said it was a camp.

19 Q. In these conversations with Jane, did she ever tell you
20 that someone else was present during a massage?

21 A. No.

22 Q. In your conversations with Jane, did you ever have any 23 conversations with her about a woman?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. In your conversations with Jane about Jeffrey Epstein, did

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 she tell you that there was a woman present at his house?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did she tell you that the woman in the house made her feel
4 comfortable?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Why did you ask her about the woman in the house?

7 A. I asked her because I couldn't understand why her mother
8 would let her go with a man without anybody else present. And 9 then she told me sometimes there were other girls present.

10 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

11 THE COURT: Sustained.

12 The jury will disregard the witness's last statement.

13 Ms. Moe, you'll lead.

14 MS. MOE: Yes, your Honor.

15 Q. In your conversations with Jane -- withdrawn.

16 Approximately what year was it that Jane told you
17 about this woman who made her feel comfortable?

18 A. It was when I found out about Jeffrey, approximately 2009.

19 Q. And in your conversations with Jane about her interactions
20 with Jeffrey Epstein, did she tell you that this woman would 21 tell her that it was okay?

22 A. Not specifically that. She didn't use those words.

23 Q. Okay. What words did she use?

24 A. She just said that having a woman there made her feel --
25 made her feel more comfortable.

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 Q. At the time when you were having these conversations with
2 Jane about this woman, did she tell you what the woman's name
3 was?

4 A. No, she didn't.

5 Q. In general, when Jane would tell you about what had
6 happened with her and Jeffrey Epstein, what was her demeanor
7 like?

8 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

9 THE COURT: Grounds.

10 MS. STERNHEIM: Relevance.

11 MS. MOE: Your Honor, it's --

12 THE COURT: Overruled.

13 Go ahead. You may answer.

14 A. What was the question again?

15 Q. I'm happy to repeat it.

16 Matt, when you would have these conversations with 17 Jane about her interactions with Jeffrey Epstein, what was her
18 demeanor like when she would tell you about that?

19 A. Ashamed, embarrassed, horrified.

20 Q. Without telling me what she said, did you ask her about the 21 details about what had happened with her and Jeffrey Epstein?

22 A. Yes, I did.

23 Q. In those interactions, did she provide you with details
24 about those interactions?

25 A. No, she didn't.

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 Q. What was her reaction when you asked her for details about
2 those interactions?

3 A. She would just say to me, Matt, the money wasn't fucking
4 free.

5 Q. Did she go beyond that?

6 A. No, she didn't.

7 Q. I believe you testified that you met Jane's family members
8 when you were dating; is that right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Based on your observations during the years that you dated
11 Jane, what was her relationship like with her mother?

12 A. It was rough. It was brutal.

13 Q. Did there ever come a time when you saw Jane confront her
14 mother about Jeffrey Epstein?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. Approximately when was that?

17 A. I think it was approximately 2011.

18 Q. Where were you when that happened?

19 A. I was at a house.

20 Q. Who was in the room when you had that conversation?

21 A. It was just --

22 MS. STERNHEIM: Objection.

23 Sidebar please.

24 THE COURT: One word, grounds.

25 MS. STERNHEIM: First time we are hearing this.

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 (At sidebar)

3 THE COURT: What do you expect the witness to say?

4 MS. MOE: That he recalls being present when Jane and
5 her mother were in a room. He recalls Jane saying to her
6 mother, How could you not know the money wasn't for free? How 7 could you not know?

8 THE COURT: Is that in 3500 material?

9 MS. MOE: Yes, I'm happy to pull it up.

10 MS. STERNHEIM: There's been no testimony by Jane
11 about confrontation with her mother at this time. She 12 testified that her mother was irate regarding a guidance
13 counsellor, but she didn't go toe-to-toe with her mother about
14 Jeffrey Epstein.

15 THE COURT: So it's in the 3500 material; it's not the 16 first time you're hearing it.

17 MS. STERNHEIM: I don't recall if it's this witness or 18 her brother.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. STERNHEIM: But even if it is in the 3500
21 material, if it is not on the direct of Jane, why can it be 22 offered as a prior consistent statement when it never was 23 offered at all?

24 MS. MOE: This is a statement from Jane to her mother
25 essentially acknowledging she was abused, expressing

LC1VMAX7

Matt - direct

1 frustration about that. That is entirely consistent with her
2 testimony that she was, in fact, abused.

3 MS. STERNHEIM: But not with regard to her mother
4 having a confrontation.

5 THE COURT: Well, it's a prior consistent statement
6 that he heard related to the abuse which you've repeatedly 7 called into question in your opening and your direct and in 8 your cross-examination.

9 MS. STERNHEIM: Judge, I understand that. But we're
10 talking about prior consistent statements.

11 THE COURT: Right. The prior consistent statement is 12 that she was abused by Jeffrey Epstein.

13 MS. STERNHEIM: But they are bringing out a
14 conversation. If she wants to say, Did you know or learn that 15 she was abused? Yes. But a conversation that she had with her
16 mother is hearsay.

17 MS. MOE: Your Honor, it's not hearsay because it's a
18 prior consistent statement of Jane about her experiencing
19 sexual abuse.

20 THE COURT: Yes. Overruled.

5 mother about Jeffrey Epstein?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Approximately when was that conversation?

8 A. 2011.

9 Q. Who was present for that conversation?

10 A. It was just me, her, and her mom.

11 Q. What do you remember Jane saying to her mother during that 12 conversation?

13 A. She told her mother that the money was not free, and 14 confronted her mother about it. And her mother said, crying --

15 THE COURT: Just a minute.

16 Q. Just focusing on just what Jane said and not what her
17 mother said, can you explain to the jury what did Jane say to 18 her mother?

19 A. How do you think I got the money, mom?

20 Q. Did she ask her mother whether her mother knew?

21 A. She told her mother that she knew. She accused her of it.

22 Q. What do you remember about the exact words that she used?

23 A. That Jane used, right?

24 Q. Yes. Can you just explain for the jury, what did Jane say
25 to her mother?

LC1VMAX7

3 that it wasn't free.

4 Q. Did there come a time when you learned that a woman named
5 Ghislaine Maxwell was arrested?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Was that in 2020?

12 Q. When you learned that Maxwell had been arrested, did you
13 contact Jane?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What did you ask her?

16 A. I just said, Is this the woman that you were referring to 17 when you told me? And she said yes.

18 Q. Just to be clear, during your relationship with Jane, did
19 she tell you that there was a woman at Jeffrey Epstein's house
20 who made her feel comfortable?

21 A. Yes.

1 DIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. ROHRBACH:

3 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Besselsen.

4 A. Good afternoon.

5 Q. Mr. Besselsen, where do you work?

6 A. I work at Interlochen Center for the Arts.

7 Q. What is Interlochen Center for the Arts?

8 A. Interlochen is a nonprofit organization focused on arts
9 education. We have our two largest programs, a arts camp in 10 the summer, and a boarding high school during September through 11 May. And we're focused on arts education, as I mentioned. So
12 we have visual arts, music, creative writing, dance, theater,
13 creative writing types of programming.

14 Q. Where is Interlochen located?

15 A. We're located in Interlochen, Michigan.

16 Q. Where is Interlochen, Michigan?

17 A. It's northern Michigan; it's about 20 minutes southwest of 18 Traverse City, Michigan, which is the largest town in northern 19 Michigan.

20 Q. How long have you worked there?

21 A. I've worked there 16 years.

22 Q. What's your title?

23 A. My title is assistant vice president of finance.

24 Q. And what are your responsibilities as an assistant vice 25 president of finance?

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 A. I oversee the finance department, including accounts
2 payable, accounts receivable, our purchasing, payroll. I'm
3 involved in overseeing director of campus safety and security,
4 as well as the director of dining services. And I'm involved
5 with the auditors, the banks, the investment companies, as well
6 as external audits.

7 Q. And in that capacity, are you familiar with the normal
8 business practices of Interlochen?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. In particular, are you familiar with the business practices
11 regarding communications with donors?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Does Interlochen maintain records of its communications
14 with donors?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What sorts of records?

17 A. For our major donors or prospects, we keep all
18 correspondence with donors, whether it might be a letter, email
19 correspondence, records of phone conversations, notes from 20 visits with donors, things like that.

21 Q. Let's talk about letters in particular. How are letters
22 that are written to donors created?

23 A. The letters are created by an individual in our advancement
24 department who's charged with managing that particular donor
25 relationship. And so they would be the ones that would write a

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 letter to a donor or to a foundation.

2 Q. Is there any relationship between the level of donation
3 given and the person writing the letter to the donor?

4 A. Yes. Yup. For example, our vice president of advancement
5 or even our president would handle a higher-end donor that
6 might be capable of donating half a million dollars or more,
7 for example. And we would have major gift officers that would
8 be below that vice president of advancement that would handle
9 folks with capacity to give $100,000, $200,000, something like
10 that.

11 Q. When these letters are written to donors, does Interlochen
12 put them in any sort of file?

13 A. Yes, yup. We keep track of all correspondence with donors.
14 Nowadays, it's all electronic within Salesforce, which is the 15 software we use to track fundraising and donations.
16 Historically, we have hard copy letters, for example. Prior to 17 using Salesforce, we've got manila folders or files that we 18 kept for each donor that includes all of the correspondence
19 over time with that donor.

20 Q. How long are those records kept?

21 A. They are kept forever.

22 Q. And are they kept by Interlochen in the ordinary course of 23 business?

24 A. Yes.

25 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, would you please display

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 for the witness, Court, and counsel what's been marked for
2 identification as Government Exhibit 741.

3 Q. Do you recognize this, Mr. Besselsen?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What is it?

6 A. This is a letter from Interlochen's vice president of 7 advancement to Mr. Epstein providing some information to him on
8 the concept of building a scholarship lodge on Interlochen's
9 campus and the level of donation that would be required to 10 build a lodge.

11 Q. Mr. Besselsen, will you pick up the binder next to you. It
12 has another copy of Government Exhibit 741.

13 Have you reviewed this exhibit before today?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And what is this exhibit?

16 A. This exhibit are all of the letters or a portion of the 17 letters that were included in Mr. Epstein's file that we've 18 stored away in the filing cabinet in the basement of the 19 McWhorter dorm locked away.

20 Q. How do you know these letters come from the Epstein file at 21 Interlochen?

22 A. I myself went in and pulled it recently and saw these.

23 Q. Thank you.

24 MR. ROHRBACH: The government offers Government
25 Exhibit 741.

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 THE COURT: 741 is how many pages?

2 MR. ROHRBACH: It is -- I believe it's eight pages,
3 your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes, it's eight pages.

6 MS. STERNHEIM: May I confer with the government for a
7 moment?

8 THE COURT: You may.

9 (Counsel conferred)

10 MS. STERNHEIM: Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: So it's eight pages.

12 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Without objection, GX-741 is 14 admitted.

15 (Government's Exhibit 741 received in evidence)

16 BY MR. ROHRBACH:

17 Q. Mr. Besselsen, are you familiar with Interlochen's business
18 practices regarding student records?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Does Interlochen keep a file on each student?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how is that file maintained?

23 A. The file is maintained in a locked room in the lower level
24 of the Maddy Administration Building. Once again, it's manila
25 files or folders for each student, and includes information

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 from the student, on a student.

2 Q. And what sort of information is contained in student
3 records, in student files?

4 A. So the files include comments from faculty that were
5 involved with that student's time on a camp -- academy
6 programming or camp programming, as well as cabin life,
7 comments from the counsellors during the camp programming, as 8 well as applications, paper applications, if you go back in 9 time, if we're talking about a camper or academy student.

10 Q. And are those records regularly put into the student file?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And does Interlochen regularly maintain those records?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. How long are student records kept?

15 A. Records are kept for 99 years per Interlochen's record
16 retention policy.

17 Q. In your binder, would you turn to what's been marked for
18 identification as Government Exhibit 743.

19 Without saying any names, do you recognize this?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What is it?

22 A. This is an application for admission to our summer camp in 23 1994.

24 Q. Did you review this prior to today?

25 A. I did.

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 Q. And turning to page 3 of that exhibit, is that photo part
2 of the application?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. How do you know?

5 A. Once again, this is something that I went in and tracked
6 down and pulled this particular camper's file myself. And this 7 was -- and these documents were in it, and this was attached to 8 this particular application.

9 MR. ROHRBACH: The government offers Government
10 Exhibit 743 under seal.

11 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

12 THE COURT: GX-743 is admitted under seal, consistent
13 with my ruling allowing the individual listed to testify under
14 a pseudonym.

15 (Government's Exhibit 743 received in evidence)

16 Q. Mr. Besselsen, does Interlochen keep records that a student
17 completes a program?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Who makes those records?

20 A. Those records would be made or input by our admissions
21 office.

22 Q. And how are those records maintained?

23 A. When a student is accepted and enrolls in a program, that
24 is when those records are created in our software.

25 Q. And to be clear, are those records kept in the ordinary

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 course of business?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. In your binder, would you turn to what's been marked for
4 identification as Government Exhibit 744.

5 Do you recognize this?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Without saying any names, what is it?

8 A. This is a report out of Salesforce, which is our software
9 that we use not only for fundraising, but also for student
10 records, that I generated. And it's a report on education
11 records, specifically pulling the completion year, first name,
12 last name, and education type, with a filter on the last name.

13 Q. And just so the record is clear, you personally generated
14 this spreadsheet?

15 A. I did, yes.

16 MR. ROHRBACH: The government offers Government
17 Exhibit 744 under seal.

18 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

19 THE COURT: GX-744 is admitted under seal consistent
20 with my ruling allowing the individual listed to testify under
21 a pseudonym.

22 (Government's Exhibit 744 received in evidence)

23 Q. Mr. Besselsen, I'd like to walk briefly through some of the 24 exhibits we were just looking at.

25 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, would you please publish

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 Government Exhibit 741 for the Court, counsel, the witness, and
2 the jury.

3 Q. Mr. Besselsen, what is this document?

4 A. This is a letter from Interlochen's vice president of
5 advancement to Mr. Epstein providing him with additional
6 information on the scholarship lodge, building a scholarship
7 lodge on Interlochen's campus, and what it would take to -- in 8 regards to donating for that project.

9 Q. You mentioned a scholarship lodge. What is a scholarship
10 lodge?

11 A. A scholarship lodge is a rental lodge, a small home on our 12 campus where parents of campers or academy students can come
13 stay on campus, be close to the performance venues and things
14 like that. So parents or guests of Interlochen or even the 15 general public who come stay in this rental lodge and pay a --
16 like a fee, like a hotel room to stay in.

17 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, would you turn to page 2
18 of this document.

19 Q. What is this document? What are we looking at,
20 Mr. Besselsen?

21 A. This is a letter, again, from Interlochen's vice president
22 of advancement to Mr. Epstein thanking him for his donation of 23 $200,000 for a new scholarship lodge on our campus, and the 24 different updates provided in the letter about construction
25 timelines and things like that.

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 Q. Mr. Besselsen, what is the date of this letter?

2 A. February 9, 1994.

3 MR. ROHRBACH: And turning now to the next page,
4 Ms. Drescher.

5 Q. Who is this letter from, Mr. Besselsen?

6 A. The letter is from Tim Ambrose, vice president of 7 advancement.

8 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, turn to page 5 of this
9 document.

10 Q. Mr. Besselsen, what is this document?

11 A. This is a letter from Interlochen's vice president of 12 advancement to Ms. Maxwell enclosing an envelope that was found
13 when Interlochen's custodial staff was cleaning the Epstein
14 scholarship lodge, returning the lost envelope to Ms. Maxwell,
15 as well as the next page of this provides a listing of items.

16 Q. Mr. Besselsen, we'll get to the next page in a moment, but 17 would you read this letter for us?

18 A. Yes.

19 Dear Ghislaine, enclosed is the envelope we recently
20 found in cleaning the Epstein Lodge. Apparently it lodged
21 between the wall and the dresser. It was not discovered until 22 the unit was moved for cleaning.

23 As we discussed, the final week of camp is August 14
24 through the 20th. I've reserved the lodge for Jeffrey's use.
25 In addition, he has one more week that he can reserve for

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 himself or guests. He may wish to have use it.

2 Attached is a list of the dry goods that are in
3 storage as part of Jeffrey's personal inventory. Please advise
4 if we are missing any items you are aware of being sent here.
5 Please convey to Jeffrey how pleased we are to have such a
6 facility on our campus. In fact, the president-elect will be
7 staying in the lodge until his family's furniture arrives. It
8 is a remarkable place. We are grateful.

9 Best wishes for a wonderful holiday season.

10 Q. Thank you, Mr. Besselsen.

11 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, will you turn to the next
12 page.

13 Q. A moment ago you mentioned an attached list. Is this the 14 attached list?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what sorts of items are on this list, Mr. Besselsen?

17 A. Different types of linens, pillows, blankets, towels,
18 sheets, shams.

19 Q. Mr. Besselsen, while you've been at Interlochen have you
20 been familiar with the Epstein Scholarship Lodge?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Does it have any other names?

23 A. Yes, it does.

24 Q. What are the names?

25 A. The name is Green Lake Lodge.

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 Q. And what is this lodge, the Green Lake Lodge?

2 A. It's a two-bedroom home, formerly known as the Jeffrey
3 Epstein Scholarship Lodge.

4 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, would you display for the 5 witness, the Court, and counsel what's been marked for
6 identification as Government Exhibit 745.

7 Q. Mr. Besselsen, what is this?

8 A. This is the Green Lake Lodge, formerly known as the Jeffrey
9 E. Epstein Scholarship Lodge.

10 Q. Is this a fair and accurate photo of the lodge?

11 A. Yes.

12 MR. ROHRBACH: The government offers 745.

13 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

14 THE COURT: GX-745 is admitted.

15 (Government's Exhibit 745 received in evidence)

16 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, will you publish this,
17 with the Court's permission.

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 MR. ROHRBACH: Ms. Drescher, you can take it down.

20 I'd now like to turn to Government Exhibit 744, which
21 I believe is in the heavier of the juror binders. So if I
22 could ask the Court to permit the jury to take out the binder?

23 THE COURT: It's already admitted?

24 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Without objection,

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 Ms. Sternheim?

2 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

3 THE COURT: And you said 744?

4 MR. ROHRBACH: 744.

5 THE COURT: You may look at in the large binder,
6 GX-744, please.

7 BY MR. ROHRBACH:

8 Q. Mr. Besselsen, you testified earlier that you generated
9 this record from Interlochen's database?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. How did you do that?

12 A. I logged into Salesforce and went to the reports section in 13 Salesforce and modified the filters. This is a report that -- 14 the title of the report is MJS Report. Went to that report and 15 created these filters that you see at the top, the last name.

16 Q. Just to be clear, without saying the last name, is that the 17 filter you ran to generate this report?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Thank you, Mr. Besselsen.

20 What does this report show about people with this last
21 name's attendance at Interlochen?

22 A. It shows which -- which years that they came to either the 23 arts camp, which is the education type, the far right column.
24 And that would be the summer then, if it relates to arts camp.
25 So the summer of '94, '95, and '96. And then the arts academy

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - direct

1 would be -- the completion would be the May of that year, so
2 May of 1999 and May of 2000.

3 MR. ROHRBACH: With the Court's permission, I'd like
4 to turn the jury's attention to Government Exhibit 743, which
5 is also in evidence.

6 THE COURT: Ms. Sternheim?

7 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

8 THE COURT: The jury may turn to 743 in the same
9 binder.

10 Q. So, Mr. Besselsen, again, without saying any names or other
11 information, I would just ask you to take note of the address
12 in the third section on the first page. Do you see this 13 address?

14 A. Yup.

15 Q. All right.

16 MR. ROHRBACH: Then with the Court's permission, I'd 17 ask the jury to turn to Defense Exhibit J-4 in the defense
18 binder which is in evidence.

19 And Mr. Besselsen, that is in the binder next to you.

20 THE COURT: Ms. Sternheim, without objection?

21 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection to whatever is admitted.

22 THE COURT: All right. And that's -- the jury is 23 looking at J-4; correct?

24 MR. ROHRBACH: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: In the smaller binder. J-4 in the smaller

LC1VMAX7

2 BY MR. ROHRBACH:

3 Q. Mr. Besselsen, do you note the address on page 1 of that
4 document?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Is it the same address as the address on the prior
7 document?

8 A. Yes, it is.

9 Q. And just to be clear, what is the document we're looking at 10 right now?

11 A. This is an application for admission to our summer arts
12 camp, which would be the summer of 1995.

13 Q. And the document we just looked at, Government Exhibit 743,
14 what is that document? Again, without saying any names.

15 A. That's an application for admission to our arts camp,
16 summer of 1994, previous summer.

17 Q. And then, Mr. Besselsen, and with the Court's permission,
18 the jury, I would ask you to turn to Defense Exhibit J-5, which
19 is also in evidence.

20 THE COURT: Ms. Sternheim.

21 MS. STERNHEIM: No objection.

22 THE COURT: You may turn to J-5 in the same small
23 binder, please.

24 Q. Mr. Besselsen, do you recognize this document?

25 A. Yes.

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - cross

1 Q. What is it, without saying any names?

2 A. This is an application for admission to our arts camp in
3 the summer of 1996.

4 Q. Do you see the -- without saying any identifying
5 information, do you see the address in the third section of 6 this document?

7 A. I do.

8 Q. Is that the same address or a different address than the 9 other address that you're looking at?

10 A. I believe it's a different address.

11 Q. Just to be clear, you think it's a different address?

12 A. Yes, it's a different address.

13 Q. Thank you.

14 MR. ROHRBACH: No further questions, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 Ms. Sternheim?

17 MS. STERNHEIM: May I have a moment please?

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 (Counsel conferred)

20 MS. STERNHEIM: Thank you, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Do you anticipate more than five minutes?

22 MS. STERNHEIM: Maybe less.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION

25 BY MS. STERNHEIM:

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - cross

1 Q. Mr. Besselsen, just a few questions for you.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. With regard to the --

4 THE COURT: Take off your mask.

5 MS. STERNHEIM: Thank you.

6 Q. With regard to the applications that have been put in 7 evidence, did you produce to the government who paid for that 8 student?

9 A. I did not provide that to the government; so no, I'm not 10 aware that we did provide that.

11 Q. Because you do not have those records; correct?

12 A. I believe that's correct, going back that far.

13 Q. And you don't have records for the siblings of that 14 individual either; correct?

15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. And that would be for the years of attendance of those 17 three siblings, 1994, 1995, and 1996; correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Now, with regard to Mr. Epstein's invitation to come to the 20 lodge, it was for the end of August; correct?

21 A. I believe the letter mentioned from Interlochen's vice
22 president of advancement that we were having the final concert
23 for our arts camp, I think it was August 7 or the week of 24 August 7, I believe.

25 Q. And is it fair to say that in Interlochen, which some

LC1VMAX7

Besselsen - cross

1 people call band camp, that the end is like the equivalent of
2 color war for athletic camps?

3 A. I'm sorry, I don't have any experience with color war.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. I don't know what that term means.

6 Q. It's when the performances are; it's the culmination of the 7 summer experience. Correct?

8 A. That's true, yeah.

9 Q. And it is then that performances are going on as opposed to 10 classes going on; correct?

11 A. The final day there are performances. I'm not sure if the 12 entire week is like that or not, but --

13 Q. But nonetheless, the donors, especially the major donors,
14 come for the performances; correct?

15 A. Yes. Some major donors do come to campus for performances.

16 Q. And Mr. Epstein certainly was a major donor; correct?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And the invitation for him to have the lodge was for the 19 period of time which is the culmination of the summer program;
20 correct?

21 A. That would be correct, I would imagine, yes.

22 MS. STERNHEIM: May I have one moment, Judge?

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 (Counsel conferred)

25 MS. STERNHEIM: You're finished. Thank you.

LC1VMAX7

1 THE WITNESS: Oh, thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Rohrbach?

3 MR. ROHRBACH: No redirect. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 Mr. Besselsen, you may step down. You are excused.

6 (Witness excused)

7 THE COURT: And that gets us at 5:02, jury. I
8 apologize for keeping you a little bit late.

9 I will remind you of all of my instructions, of 10 course. Please keep them in mind. Same schedule for tomorrow.
11 Thank you for your continued attention and diligence. Have a
12 great night. See you tomorrow morning.

13 (Jury not present)

14 THE COURT: You may be seated.

15 Matters to take up, Mr. Rohrbach?

16 MR. ROHRBACH: Nothing from the government, your
17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Sternheim?

19 MS. COMEY: I apologize, your Honor. We do have an
20 issue. We will need to take it up at sidebar because it
21 relates to a pseudonym issue.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Sidebar pseudonym issue.

23 MS. COMEY: It will be brief, your Honor.

(At sidebar - not sealed)

THE COURT: Okay. See you 8:45.

The only thing I wanted to -- this isn't sealed. But timing, if you're going to brief piercing the privilege.

MR. PAGLIUCA: When would you like it, your Honor?

THE COURT: A month ago.

MS. STERNHEIM: We can turn back the hands of time.

THE COURT: I wish we could.

MS. STERNHEIM: I don't think you would.

We might, but not you.

MR. PAGLIUCA: I think it's a little more complicated than -- I think there are different issues related to different potential witnesses, I guess is the issue.

I'm happy to have it briefed as best we can under the facts that we know right now, assuming that the Court wants briefed is the issue we discussed today. Okay. Because then we may have issues related to lawyer witnesses that are under subpoena, but will not be called under any circumstances unless it's briefed and the Court gives permission for the calling of those witnesses.

THE COURT: Let's start with the limited issue that was raised today, which is that you would call -- you're seeking to call Glassman.

MR. PAGLIUCA: Glassman.

THE COURT: You're seeking to call Glassman on the

LC1VMAX7

1 narrow question of whether under theory of waiver he told Jane
2 that it would -- testifying would help her in her case.

3 When would you like to do that?

4 MR. PAGLIUCA: How about Friday, your Honor?

5 THE COURT: This would be a witness you would call in 6 your case-in-chief?

7 MR. PAGLIUCA: Exactly. So it's at least a week from 8 now, I would imagine. I'm assuming the government has about a
9 week more of testimony, by my review of the witness list.

10 MS. COMEY: Your Honor, I think that's right. We're 11 unlikely to rest in less than a week from now.

12 THE COURT: So is Friday okay?

13 MR. ROHRBACH: We can respond on Monday, if that's all
14 right.

15 THE COURT: Sure. Great.

16 It will provide some general background on piercing
17 privilege and waiver to the extent that will inform issues
18 beyond the specific.

19 MR. PAGLIUCA: To the extent we can preview the 20 additional issues, we'll get that underway as well so that you
21 have a sense of what may or may not be coming down the road
22 here.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Can I ask, thinking about timing, 24 now that we're where we are, what is your estimate for the 25 trial?

LC1VMAX7

1 MS. COMEY: Your Honor, I think it depends on the
2 length of cross-examination for some of the more substantial
3 witnesses. If we can expect about the same length as we have
4 with Jane today, I expect we'll be able to rest the third week
5 of trial. So not next week, but the week after, early that 6 week is my best estimate.

7 THE COURT: And what's the defense's best estimate?

8 MS. STERNHEIM: We'll let you know.

9 MR. PAGLIUCA: I'm going to suspect the length of 10 cross-examination will be less for the remaining witnesses.

11 THE COURT: We worked out some --

12 MR. PAGLIUCA: Kinks, yes.

13 But I just think substantively it's likely to be less,
14 and there's likely -- well, with the exception of one, there's 15 less 3500 impeachment material that needs to be gone through 16 potentially, so I think that will shorten the length of 17 cross-examination. And we will have whatever we need to have 18 ready to go, understanding the format we're doing this in now.

19 THE COURT: All right. See you in the morning.
